Young Couple Wed Wednesday Evening In Church Ceremony

In the presence of about sixty friends and members of the families, Miss Ruth Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hanson, and Fred W. Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dunn, were married at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the First Methodist church. Rev. Joseph Knotts read the impressive ring service.

Attending the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Hart, as best man and matron of honor. The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father to wedding music played on the organ. The young couple took their vows before the flower-decked altar, gladioli, chrysanthemums and ferns forming the background.

The bride was wearing white satin, an ankle length gown made princess style. She carried a bouquet of yellow low rosebuds which emphasized her brunettes coloring. Mrs. Hart wore rose chiffon with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

After the church ceremony, guests continued to the F. H. Dunn home for a reception. The young couple left immediately following the reception for a short honeymoon, the bride wearing navy with white accessories. They will make their home in Crescent City.

Both bride and groom are very well-known in Medford and the valley. Both graduated from Medford high school and Mrs. Dunn is also a graduate of Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland. She has resided in Ashland for the past three years. A number of pre-nuptial affairs were arranged in her honor by friends both here and in Ashland.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William Plasted, of Crescent City; Clarence Dunn, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spindler and Mrs. Laura G. Pierce, of Ashland.

Mission Federation In Annual Rally at S. Methodist Church

A total of 88 members of the Women's Federation of Medford were present Tuesday afternoon for the Federation's annual fall rally. Hostesses this year were ladies of the South Methodist church.

Mrs. Fred M. Weatherford, of the Nazarene church, opened the session and installed new officers: Mrs. E. Iverson, of the Presbyterian church, as president and Mrs. E. E. Wilson of the Baptist church as secretary.

Treasurer Mrs. Donna D. Taylor, of the South Methodist church, was appointed secretary of literature and Mrs. A. J. Hanby of the Presbyterian church publicity chairman.

Among plans made was that of each church to encourage the presenting of a missionary program monthly in the various Sunday schools. Representatives of the various societies reported a decided increase in attendance, interest and activities among younger members of the churches.

Appearing on the afternoon program, arranged by Mrs. C. H. Hermon of the Nazarene church, was Mrs. Bertha Yokum, vocal soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Korstad at the piano. Mrs. Korstad led devotionals and outlined aims and accomplishments of missionary work at home and in foreign fields. Miss Lois Hermon also sang.

Principal feature of the program was the appearance of Rev. Fred M. Weatherford, who spoke on his travels in Palestine, displaying tapestry, pottery and other curios of the country in illustration of his discussion.

Following the program, refreshments were served in the social hall, with Mrs. Ralph Woodford and Mrs. W. C. McQuiston presiding at the attractive tea table.

Mrs. Donna D. Taylor, president of the South Methodist Missionary society acted as general chairman for the afternoon. It was announced that the annual world day of prayer has been scheduled for Feb. 12, 1937, and will be observed in the Baptist church.

Thursday Club To Have First Session

Among the many city and valley organizations laying plans for the beginning of winter activity is the Thursday Morning Study club, which is to meet for the first time this year Thursday morning at the Girls' Community clubhouse.

Program topic for the session is to be Spain. Mrs. E. Drysdale will review "The Olive Field"; Mrs. A. J. Hanby will lead a discussion of current events; Mrs. L. P. Wilcox is to discuss the opera "Carmen."

On the musical program will be James Stevens, singing the Torsador song and Roberta Ward Bebb, Habanera.

Service Club Plans For October Frolic

A record attendance of 60 members featured the second meeting of the year of the Lincoln school Service club Friday afternoon. During the business session, announcement was made of the imminent organization of a Mother's chorus and plans were outlined for a Halloween frolic to be given at the school October 23. Mrs. Ralph Burgess was appointed general chairman for the affair.

Members of the school faculty were introduced and Miss Ora Cox reviewed her recent trip east. It was announced that the "room mother" method has been adopted and results so far were pronounced satisfactory.

Music for the afternoon included songs by the 6B class under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Russell, by the 5th and 6th grade girls' chorus, directed by Mrs. D. R. Heinen and two vocal solos by LaMulle Beck, accompanied by Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb.

Fifth grade mothers were hostesses for the afternoon.

Matrons Club To Be Luncheon Guests

Members of the Past Matrons club of Reames chapter, O.E.S., will be entertained at a desert bridge luncheon Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Gilstrap will be Mrs. O. C. Boggs and Mrs. Howard Scheffel.

Daughters of Nile To Meet Saturday

An announcement has been made of the meeting next Saturday of the temple, Daughters of the Nile. Medford will be hostess city and the group will convene in the Masonic temple. Luncheon is to precede the session and definite time and place will be announced later.

Katharine Woda, queen of the temple, who has been visiting in the north, will be present.

Shower Arranged By Civic Club

Members of the Civic Improvement club of Eagle Point entertained Thursday afternoon at the clubrooms with a shower for Hazel Stoner, whose marriage to Marvin Light, of Santa Barbara, Calif., is to take place in the southern city early this month.

Fall flowers and yellow tapers decorated the clubrooms, the honor guests receiving many gifts from the large group of friends present.

Miss Bashaw Bride Of Paul Turner In Quiet Service Oct. 1

In a quiet candle-light service Thursday evening, Miss Doris Bashaw, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Bashaw, became the bride of Paul Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Turner. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother on West Eleventh street. Rev. Sherman L. Divine reading the service.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patton attended the bride and groom, who took their vows before a fireplace banked with ferns and snapdragons and gladioli in autumn shades. Only members of the immediate families were present at the ceremony.

The bride wore a gray traveling suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of gardenias and pink roses. Mrs. Patton was wearing a dark blue ensemble.

The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon, planning to return here to make their home.

Reames Chapter To Honor Past Heads

One evening each year is set aside by Reames chapter, O.E.S., honoring past matrons and past patrons of the chapter. The affair this season has been announced for Thursday evening, October 8, when all past matrons and patrons will be guests of honor and are particularly invited to be present.

Mrs. C. M. Houston, present worthy matron, has arranged a special program to follow the lodge session and refreshments will close the evening. This annual affair is much looked forward to by members and a large crowd is expected.

Annual Luncheon Is Planned for Tuesday

The annual luncheon arranged by ladies of missionary societies of the First Methodist Episcopal church will be among events of the coming week. It has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 6, at 1 o'clock in the church parlors.

The affair is always popular and a large number are expected. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends. Those attending are requested to call Mrs. A. S. Bilton, at 1249-X or Mrs. William Holloway, 1423 if possible.

Special program arrangements are being made for the afternoon. Those attending are requested to bring fruit for the Manley center.

Two Honored Tuesday Evening

A double birthday celebration was arranged Tuesday evening at the J. W. Gustafson home honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Gustafson and Mrs. Odell West. Games and refreshments featured the evening.

Mothers to Meet Tuesday Afternoon

October meeting of the Medford Oregon State Mothers' association has been scheduled for next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the affair is to be Mrs. E. N. Wilm, at her home, 203 Geneva street.

Burns-Strowbridge Service Yesterday

In a quiet church ceremony yesterday afternoon, Miss Irene Strowbridge became the bride of Jack W. Burns at 2:30 o'clock in the First Christian church. Rev. W. R. Baird read the service before a few close friends of the couple.

Attending the bride and groom were Miss Pearl Davin, as maid of honor and Clare Spiera as best man. Fall flowers in soft autumn shades decorated the church.

The bride was gowned in an ankle-length dress of delicate accordion-pleated pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. A wreath of tiny blossoms in pastel shades circled her head.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left by motor for California where they will spend a several days' honeymoon. They expect to return to Medford about Oct. 13 and will be at home at the Holly apartments. They plan to welcome their friends at a reception upon their return.

Pocahontas Lodge will entertain with a dance next Friday evening at Redman hall on Pine street. All members and friends are invited.
