WAGNER ANSWERS LONDON BLAST AT SOCIAL SECURITY

New York Senator Says Candidate Proposes Demolition Entire Program—Return to Hoover Bread Line

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(UP)—Senator Robert F. Wagner, Democrat of New York, charged in a radio address Saturday night that Governor Alfred M. Landon's denunciation of the federal social security law constitutes "a threat and a menace to the security of every American family."

Wagner's address was a reply to Landon's speech a week ago in Minneapolis in which the Republican presidential nominee said the law was "a hoax and a fraud" on the workers.

Asserting that Landon in his speech proposed "demolition of the entire structure of social security," and a return to the "bread lines of Herbert Hoover," Wagner asked if the Kansas "really believes that the 48 members of congress who voted for this law would participate in a fraud on the workers?"

"Is it credible," he asked, "that William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, George L. Berry, chairman of labor's non-partisan league, Gerard Swope, president of the General Electric company, Walter Teagle, chairman of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the Rev. John A. Ryan of the National Catholic Welfare council, Grace Abbott, former head of the United States children's bureau, Barbara Armstrong, University of California expert, and Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, secretly conspired to hoax the workers?"

"Yet these were but few of the many inspired men and women who helped frame the measure and gave the law their warm approval before it passed."

To Landon's criticism that reserves built up to pay old age benefits would have to be invested in government bonds, Wagner replied that "every insurance company and every bank . . . regards such investments as their first line of defense."

Saying that Landon "tried to convey the impression that United States bonds were no safer . . . than the I. O. U. of any Tom, Dick or Harry," Wagner added that it was "the first time in our history that anyone in a position of Mr. Landon's responsibility toward the public has stated that the United States treasury would default the public."

Pointing to Landon's home state, Wagner pointed out that Kansas was not co-operating with the federal government to care for the aged, has no old age pension law and "provides nothing better than pauper relief."

800 MEMBERSHIP IS OBJECTIVE OF EAGLES CAMPAIGN

Over one hundred members have been added to the Roster of Crater Lake Aerie No. 2003, Fraternal Order of Eagles during the past three weeks.

The campaign being conducted by the local lodge of the Eagles is designed to bring the membership to a point where the usefulness of the organization can be materially increased in order to carry out the humanitarian principles for which the Fraternal Order of Eagles stands.

At a lodge meeting Friday it was unanimously voted to send a check to the Eagles lodge in Bandon for the aid of those brothers affected by the recent fire. The state department of the lodge has directed a letter to every aerie in Oregon urging that a fund be set up immediately for the benefit of Eagles who suffered loss in Bandon.

"We expect a membership of eight hundred in the Medford Aerie," stated Tucker, "and the way the campaign is going at present leads us to believe we shall realize this quota. Our work throughout the county on behalf of Mother's Day, Old Age Pensions, Workmen's Compensation laws, and widows' pensions should be sufficient incentive for anyone to join our organization.

The sick benefits which we pay assist materially in tiding our brothers over during sickness and distress."

COAST BUILDING AT RECORD PACE, BETTER THAN 1930

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—(AP)—September building activity in the Pacific coast's 10 largest cities was more than 5 times as great as in the same month two years ago.

Building permits in these cities have topped $12,000,000 in each of the last 4 months.

Last month's permits totaled $12,200,000 in round figures, compared with $4,926,000 in September last year and $2,428,000 in the like 1934 month.

It was just two years ago the upturn started. Gains since then have been unusually steady for this industry, until the rising curve flattened out early this summer.

Current opinion among builders reflects no anticipation of any disturbing factor of sufficient importance to interrupt activities to any appreciable extent.

Costs are rising—somewhat for labor, and markedly for some materials. Fear of water transport interruption along the coast has occasioned considerable canceling of water shipments, turning the traffic to railroads at increased costs—some cases showing more than double the cost.

Building in the 10 largest coast cities thus far this year has brought out permits for $95,920,000 worth of work, compared with $52,270,000 last year in the first 9 months. These figures exclude non-building permits for such items as bridges and tunnels.

4 CCC COMPANIES ADDED FOR WINTER DUTY IN DISTRICT

1649, McKinley, and Co. 1652, Prescott.

The men of three companies, those at Annie Springs, South Fork and Prescott, will leave the district October 9 for Fort Sheridan, Ill., while the companies at Sitkum and McKinley will be held until the fire danger is over, probably until October 12, before being returned to Fort Sheridan.

Fourteen companies in the Medford district will remain assigned. They are: Co. 844, Lava Beds; Co. 709, Gassquet; Co. 920, Orleans; Co. 922, Oak Knoll; Co. 1910, Selad; Co. 3740, Clear Lake; Co. 557, Bonanza; Co. 563, Klamath; Co. 703, Steamboat; Co. 986, Big; Co. 2523, Agness; Co. 2702, Applegate; Co. 2904, South Umpqua Falls; and Co. 4742, Wimer.

Six camps occupied. Of the remaining six camps at present occupied in the Medford district, Sitkum, McKinley, Prescott and South Fork will be reoccupied at once by the new companies from the eighth corps area.

Co. 979, Camp Diamond lake, a ninth corps area outfit, will be disbanded and the men assigned to Co. 966, Big, and Co. 2904, South Umpqua Falls. Diamond lake, a high altitude camp, is never occupied as a winter company. Annie Springs will be left unoccupied as it is also a high altitude camp, not occupied during the winter. The company sent here to replace the Annie Springs outfit will go to Oregon Caves.

Six Medford district camps which have been unoccupied will be reoccupied with new companies. They are Coos Head, near Marshfield at the entrance to Coos Bay; Prairie Creek, on the lower Klamath river in northern California; Silver Lake, in western Oregon north of Lakeview; Oregon Caves, in the Oregon Caves national monument in southwestern Oregon; Tule Lake, in northern California, south of Klamath Falls; and Rand, on the Rogue river west of Grants Pass.

Of the announced changes, the final disposition of Tule Lake and the Lava Beds camp is still not definitely settled, but it is probable there will be a company in each.

Continued Prescott. A definite assignment of companies has been made in the case of McKinley, South Fork, Prescott and Sitkum. Co. 3881 will arrive Oct. 12 from Mt. Pleasant, Texas, for Camp McKinley. Co. 3965 will arrive about October 9 from Bulling, Texas, for South Fork. Co. 3864 will arrive about October 9 from Bastrop, Texas, for Prescott. Co. 3874 will arrive about October 12 from Cleveland, Texas, for Sitkum.

Co. 2712, now at Camp Rubicon Point in the Sacramento district, will be transferred to Camp Prairie Creek.

A number of officers will return east with their men and will be assigned to other companies in the sixth corps area. Capt. Harold H. Capers and Lieut. Robert H. Colwell, of Annie Springs; Capt. William B. Clegg, of Prescott; Capt. Carroll S. Miller and Lieut. Francis O. Neer, of McKinley; Capt. Rose E. Wilson and Lieut. Anton Yots of Sitkum, and Lieut. George E. Wood of South Fork will be leaving with their men.
