

ROOSEVELT LISTS MAJOR TALKS FOR WESTERN JOURNEY

Will Speak in Omaha Saturday Night — In Chicago October 14 — Leaving Capital Thursday Noon

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7. (AP)—The White House today announced the itinerary for President Roosevelt's western campaign, disclosing it called for major speeches at Omaha, Neb., Saturday night and at Chicago October 14.

The president will leave here about noon tomorrow instead of Friday as originally planned. The trip will terminate at Hyde Park October 17.

Mr. Roosevelt will travel as far west as Denver, Colo., and Cheyenne, Wyo., and also will carry his campaign into the home state of his rival for the presidency, Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

He will visit Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, and New York.

Although speeches will be made at Denver the morning of October 12 and at Detroit the afternoon of October 15, White House officials indicated these would be of regional variety, probably without national radio hook-ups.

Leaving here tomorrow, the president will make a 45 minute stop Friday morning at Dubuque, Iowa. He then goes to Oelwein, Iowa, and St. Paul, Minn.

The president will then go to Lincoln, Neb., Des Moines, and Afton, Iowa, where Senator Norris of Nebraska, independent Republican, will join the party. The Omaha speech is scheduled for 8 p. m., (central time), Saturday night.

The presidential special will arrive in Cheyenne Sunday.

It will leave Monday morning for Denver, and later for Wichita, Kas.

The president is due in Wichita at 9:30 Tuesday morning and Kansas City, Mo., about 6 p. m., October 13.

From there Mr. Roosevelt will go to St. Louis, arriving about 9:30 a. m., October 14.

He is due in Chicago the night of October 14 for a major speech at 9:30 p. m. (eastern time) in the stadium where he accepted the nomination in 1932.

The route then will carry the chief executive to Grand Rapids, Mich., October 15 and October 16.

Says F. D. Threatens the Home.

To the Editor:
Your editorials covering the period since the political conventions in June, on political matters, have been as haywire as the supreme court has found the new deal theories. Especially is this true when you discuss the candidate who opposes the new deal. You now tell us that you are just plain sorry for Governor Landon. How condescending—yet you continue to misrepresent and propagandize his utterances and policies. Landon appears to be very much more unsatisfactory as a candidate, to Parley and his ilk, including the Mail Tribune, than he is to the Republicans or any other group of Americans. The reason is obvious. I have as yet failed to read one of your editorials discussing his candidacy wherein you did not impugn and malign him. That represents one type of politics which Parley predicted would characterize this campaign. It is evident he knew his following.

I shall be glad to be specific if you will permit me one-half of the word space in your newspaper which you devote to the subject. In view of the fact that your newspaper enjoys a monopoly in this community it is only fair to the well being of Jackson county that both sides of the issue be presented; and let me assure you that when we finish there will be a far better understanding among your readers of why such men as Alfred E. Smith, Governor Ely, Bainbridge Colby, Jim Reed, Newton D. Baker and our own Colonel Voorhies, with such metropolitan newspapers as the Baltimore Sun, the St. Louis Post Dispatch, the Omaha Democratic paper and many others, have gone sour on the new deal doctrine which you so devoutly espouse, and why these men and newspapers are warning the nation and their own communities against danger to the security of every American home.

On the other hand these same men and newspapers who have been the embodiment of the stalwart policies and philosopher of the Democratic party for the past half century or during their lifetime, are proclaiming their faith and confidence in the ability of this man Landon to lead us back to sound Americanism.

G.O.P. Politically Bankrupt.
To the Editor:
Last Sunday's San Francisco Examiner carried a long article, charging that President Roosevelt is a radical sympathizer, and the unofficial communist candidate for president.

The Republicans certainly have a lot of crust to make such a statement. Nobody has forgotten Hoover's term as president. Nobody has forgotten how black the situation was then. Those were the days when the communist party recorded its fastest growth.

Of course the Republican party leaders know that the idea of the president being in league with the reds is absurd, but they hope they will scare the people into voting for Landon. Such red-baiting tactics only reveal the decadence and bankruptcy of the Republican party as an American political party. When the situation is so desperate that they have to resort to red hogs, and Moscow plots, to gain their ends, then the situation for them indeed is black.

When the Examiner makes these charges, it pays our president the greatest compliment possible, for if he has conducted himself, during his term as president, in such a manner as to get the admiration and votes of liberals, I take my hat off to him.

Landon charges the Democratic party with waste of our nation's funds. I take it then that feeding the needy is a waste and he would, if elected (faint hope) do just the opposite, or in other words starve us all to death.

Roosevelt may not have given us all we want, but at least we are not worrying as much as we used to, so on election day I think I will just go to the polls and vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt—the greatest president we ever had.

Big Business Doesn't Like F. D. R.
To the Editor:
In looking over your editorials of late, one can hardly help but think of the area of prosperity we would be enjoying if Big Business could have the same confidence in the present administration policies which you seem to have. But business does not seem to feel that way.

With an unlimited amount of idle money begging to be invested at a very low rate of interest, with our vast quantities of raw material, our factories, machinery and labor waiting to be employed, and most of all, the strong demand for all commodities, so what's wrong that we are not going full steam ahead?

We must agree that confidence between our various political and commercial life is an absolute essential to our business progress. During the first six months of this administration, no president ever came so near having the unanimous support and co-operation of the entire nation, which was followed by a brisk upward turn in business; then came the NRA, supplemented with a grisly of nuisance laws or regulations. Soon the small business man, especially, found himself hog-tied so he could not move ahead or back in his daily business activities without rules and regulations from Washington, many of which were countermanded in a short time. However, we witnessed one of the greatest business confusions in the history of this country. Soon business began to lag; all business was frightened, big and little. Whether or not they were justified, the fact remains business will not go ahead freely under such burdens.

STATE FORCES TAKEN FROM BANDON FRONT

SALEM, Oct. 7. (AP)—Governor Martin pulled state forces out of the Bandon fire area today and dispatched Brigadier General Thomas E. Rilea from that section to Washington, D. C., where he will seek further federal aid in expediting the program for temporary reconstruction.

Rilea will leave by plane for the national capitol tonight where, with the concurrence of E. J. Griffith, Oregon WPA administrator, he will present the picture to relief authorities and to President Roosevelt "if necessary," Governor Martin said.
