COUNTY BRIEFS

Reese Creek

REESE CREEK, Oct. 7.—(Spl.)—American Union Sunday school is progressing very nicely. Mr. Still, of Shady Cove, had charge of the young people's meeting Sunday and preached a sermon Sunday evening. A crowded house greeted him, all enjoying a fine evening.

Elmer Robertson, while loading a drag saw on a truck Saturday, got his neck and shoulders hurt, but is getting along better now. Mrs. Robertson accompanied Mrs. Frank Smith to Bandon to bring back Mr. and Mrs. Gunderman, who were living over there and lost their home and most of their belongings in the terrible fire.

The Reese Creek W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting October 1 at the mission church. A good attendance was had. Mrs. Ella McCormick had charge of the program, a world's temperance missionary meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers of Lake Creek were dinner guests September 21 at the W. R. Lamb home.

Mrs. Charles Sanderson of Beagle and daughter, Mrs. Melvin Martin and baby, Donnie, were guests October 1 of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Martins and family.

The home and school circle held the first meeting of the year at the school house Friday evening. Mrs. Homer Martin will have charge this year as president; Mrs. Leo Rusho, vice-president, and Mrs. Ralph Merritt, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Theo. Rien will have charge of the soup kitchen for the year with her committees.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Fields of Powder River county, Mont., near Broadus, the county seat, have bought a place from Mr. and Mrs. Gaskell and have taken possession. They are very pleased with the place and our wonderful Rogue River valley. They stated everything had completely dried out from lack of moisture and an increasing army of grass hoppers. Their son, Thomas, has entered high school at Eagle Point.

Mrs. J. Edward Leigh will entertain the ladies of the community at her home Thursday with an all-day party. Each lady is to bring a covered dish.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphrey's new house is fast nearing completion. It will be a fine home when completed.

Leo Rusho visited at his home Sunday. He is being transferred to Camp Oregon Caves.

W. H. Vimont and Eulia M. Minter are handling the school in a very efficient manner. The children seem to be doing fine this fall.

October is the spooky month when everyone is busy gathering in the corn and pumpkins and finishing canning fruit, enjoying full larders of provisions laid away for winter and last of all getting ready for Hallowe'en.

There will be an all-day meeting for Rally Day, October 25, for the American Union Sunday school at the school house. Antelope and Shady Cove Sunday schools are invited together with all those interested in Sunday school work. Basket lunch will be served at noon.

Booster night at Jacksonville Grange began with a 7 o'clock covered dish dinner. A good crowd was in attendance.

Lecturer Henry Niedermeyer presented the following program: Debate, "Resolved, that the H. E. C. should turn over all funds to the Grange," by Henry Conger, Irvin Dew and Carl Niedermeyer.

Several interesting guessing contests by the lecturer. Group singing by all. A collection amounting to $12 was taken and turned over to the Bandon relief fund.

Sams Valley Grange.

The past week has been a very busy time for members of Sams Valley Grange.

Monday evening the drill and initiatory team met for practice. Wednesday approximately 150 attended the annual Booster night meeting. About 20 members of the Grange participated in the program which included quartet singing, readings, solos, tableaux, tap dancing and talks on history, activities and accomplishments of the Grange. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served to the large crowd by the H. E. committee.

Thirty members from Sams Valley attended regular meeting of Gold Hill Grange, October 1, where the Sams Valley team initiated a class of 20 in the third and fourth degrees. The class included 14 candidates for Gold Hill, four from Sams Valley and two from Griffin Creek Grange.

Sams Valley Grange held regular meeting October 3. Eight applications for membership were received from the booster night drive. W. Z. Grant announced for the agriculture committee that anyone wishing to secure squirrel poison could do so at the schoolhouse Thursday afternoon. It was also announced that Mr. Moore from the cement plant would be at the schoolhouse Wednesday evening to test soil. Anyone wishing their soil tested free is welcome.

Song practice was held during lecture hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Jerome Fitzgerald and Robert Clark served refreshments of sandwiches and coffee.

Upper Rogue Grange

Upper Rogue Grange met Oct. 1, with very small attendance, which is very disheartening to the master and those who try to attend regularly, as there is work for all members to do.

All members are urged to bring out their neighbors and friends to Booster Night, Friday, Oct. 9. There will be speaking, entertainment and eats. All U. R. Grange ladies are to bring either a pumpkin or apple pie. A good many of the men have turned out to help on the hall. It is hoped all will do so. The building has been delayed, due to the mill burning.

There will be outside speakers at the next meeting during lecture hour to discuss measures up for vote at the election. All are urged to keep this in mind.

Next H. E. C. meeting will be with Sister Violet Ditsworth, Oct. 20. Don't forget the box social and entertainment, Oct. 24, put on by the H. E. club for the benefit of the hall. Everyone is invited to come.
