The Grange. Lake Creek Grange will meet Friday evening, October 9.

Members were fortunate to have present at their last meeting a representative of the Beaver Portland Cement company, who spoke on the value of lime in the soil and the benefits to be derived from applying the proper amount of lime to the soil.

Other members of the program were: Reading by Ella Meyer, according to music by Russ Moore, accompanied by Mary Moore and George Brown; assembly singing, with Mrs. LuVerne Pech at the piano; guessing game, led by Mary Moore.

Live Oak Grange. Live Oak Grange met in regular session October 5. Attendance was small, which was regretted as we had three visitors from Sams Valley, Mrs. John, Althea and Robert, who were working in a logging camp at Bly, Ore. Mrs. Coker will remain here for awhile longer.

There were 70 persons present last Sunday at the Presbyterian Sunday school here, but there is still room for more and a cordial invitation is extended to all who do not attend elsewhere. A splendid junior choir of about a dozen voices has been organized in the church, and singing during the services every Sunday morning. Sunday school is at 10 a. m., and church services at 11 a. m. The local C. E. held a party at the church last Friday evening.
