CHAMBER TO WORK OUT 5-YEAR PLAN FOR TOURIST GAIN

A systematic plan designed to in- crease tourist travel in southern Oregon will be started at a meeting to be held in the city council cham- bers at 7:30 Thursday night under sponsorship of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. The tourist convention, publicity, roads and highways and fish and game committees of the chamber of commerce will attend the meeting, with G. C. Briggs acting as general chairman. A brief introductory talk will be given by Olen Arnsperger, chamber president. Everyone who has a direct interest in tourist travel is invited to the meeting, Mr. Briggs said, and it is expected that most of the owners and managers of tourist resorts of south- ern Oregon will be present. "I have talked with several resort owners and they are eager to attend the meeting to help formulate a county-wide plan that will bring more travelers to this part of the state," Mr. Briggs said. Everyone attending will be invited to express his views regarding ways and means of increasing tourist travel here. Mr. Briggs explained All these suggestions will be noted and later tabulated and from them a five-year plan developed, he related. "I want to get away from seasonal and haphazard campaigns and to adopt instead a comprehensive plan that will function all year around for a period of years," Mr. Briggs said. "It will be a continuous plan that will be operative all the time no matter who might be on the various committees promoting it."

2 ARMY OFFICERS WILL BE HONORED AT BANQUET HERE

A banquet will be given in the Hotel Medford at 6:30 Wednesday evening in honor of Lieut. Col. C. L. Tinker and Lieut. Col. Johnson of the United States army air corps. It will be a farewell testimonial for Col. Tinker and a welcome for Col. Johnson. Col. Tinker is retiring as commander at Hamilton field, Cal., to assume new duties in Washington, D. C. He is being replaced at Hamilton field by Col. Johnson. The dinner was arranged by Mayor George W. Porter and he will act as toastmaster. He has invited the avia- tion committees of the city council and the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, Medford chapter of the National Aeronautic Association and the Crater club. Following the dinner Col. Tinker and Col. Johnson will be initiated as honorary members of the Crater club, the Craters to put on the whole initiation ceremony, with the uniformed band under Captain Hillman participating. Early Thursday morning Mayor Porter will take the two army offi- cers on a bird hunt on the W. E. Morris ranch at Table Rock. Col. Tinker hunted with the mayor on the first day of the bird season last year and promised them to return this season. Col. Tinker has been a frequent Medford visitor and is well known here. He brought the B-1st bombing squadron to Medford a year ago for maneuvers over the Rogue valley.

HIGHER BOND ORDERED BY FEDERAL COURT IN CASE OF ROLAND HICKS

(Continued from Page One.) charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was scheduled to go on trial today. The man charged with sale of wine and whiskey to Klamath reservation wards, received sentence this morn- ing from Federal Judge Pees. All were ordered sent to federal prisons to be selected later. They were: H. Kellison, sale of whiskey to In- cense, 12 months and $100 fine. Kel- lison's request for probation was de- nied. Ed Williams, Harry Starr, and Wil- liam O'Neill, each sentenced to nine months, and each fined $100. W. Briggs, J. Bowen and H. Wood- ley, William Donnelly, Bert Cava- naugh, and Joseph Smith, were each sentenced to eight months, and each fined $100. Under federal law, Columbus day is not a legal holiday, so federal court sessions were held. It is expected the present term of the federal court here will be con- cluded by Thursday.

310 KNOWN DEAD, SCORES OF BODIES BURIED IN DEBRIS

(Continued from Page One.) tral islands of the archipelago were whipped by wind and great seas tossed small inter-island craft. The 500-ton vessel Sugbu of Cebu was disabled and abandoned by passen- gers and crew. A passing sailboat rescued some crew members. The fate and number of others of the crew and the passengers was unknown. Tune in KSL every evening. Mon- day thru Friday, 8 p.m.

SUPREME COURT DELAY DECISION ON WAGNER ACT

(Continued from Page One.) last May, holding unconstitutional the 1934 municipal bankruptcy act, in- tended to aid debt reductions through federal bankruptcy courts by cities, counties and other political subdivi- sions. Review Refused Refused to review a ruling by the western Missouri federal district court upholding the constitutionality of the 1935 Frazier-Lemke act granting a three-year moratorium on farm mortgage foreclosures. The appeals court has not yet acted on the case. The legislation was enacted after the su- preme court had held unconstitutional the 1934 Frazier-Lemke act, granting a five-year moratorium. Agreed to review a contention of the government that a 30 per cent tax on silver profits, made prior to passage of the silver purchase act, was constitutional. The court of claims held the levy was unconstitutional. Agreed to review the government's contention that the 1934 arms em- bargo act, aimed against sale of munitions for use in the Paraguay-Bo- livia Chaco war, was unconstitutional. The southern New York federal district court held the statute in- valid. Agreed to review a lower court ruling upholding the constitutionality of the 1935 Ashurst-Summers act for- bidding the transportation of prison- made goods into states that bar their sale and requiring that such pro- ducts be labeled "prison made."

MURDER MYSTERY IS Theme Rialto Drama

"Satan Met a Lady," murder mys- tery drama, which was shown for the first time locally at the Rialto the- ater yesterday on the double bill pro- gram with "Kelly the Second," kept audiences alternately keyed to a pitch of intense excitement over its thrilling situations or chuckling with laughter over the humorous episodes. Bette Davis and Warren William have their stellar roles with Alison Shipworth, Arthur Treacher, Winifred Shaw and Porter Hall in the support- ing cast. The picture is one of un- usual interest, containing not only thrills and laughter, but love and intrigue and baffling mysteries. It is based on the novel by Dashiell Ham- mett. The story concerns the at- tempt of a band of crooks to steal a legendary trumpet supposed to be filled with jewels. Miss Davis the wicked role of her career, a veritable Lucretia Borgia, who lures men by her gorge- ous beauty only to destroy them when she has gained her ends. In this picture she gives her most out- standing performance. "Kelly the Second," probably the funniest feature-length comedy re- leased this year, features a cast of funsters including Patsy Kelly, who steals the show, Charlie Chase, "Big Boy" Williams and Pert Kelton. The action of this hilarious film revolves around Molly Kelly and her fighting sweetheart, Cecil Callahan, a truck driver, Molly decides to cash in on her "booz" and engages "Doc" Kium, an old fashioned apothecary, as the manager and inserts herself as train- er. The trio formed by Patsy Kelly as Molly, "Big Boy" Williams as Cecil and Charlie Chase as "Doc" Kium presents one round of laughter after another.

Gary Cooper Stars In Craterian Film

Laid against a background of modern war-torn China, "The General Died at Dawn," which opened at the Craterian theater yesterday, is a time- ly, fast-moving action drama of high adventure among those Yang Kowun but highly colorful characters who make a business of international intrigue. The growing spirit of resistance on the part of modern China against the predatory war lords, who have subju- gated the country is the basis of the story, which presents Gary Cooper again in a soldier-of-fortune role. This time he is in the ranks of the people's army, sent to Shanghai to purchase arms with which to resist General Yang, war lord, he is lured aboard a train by beautiful blonde Madeleine Carroll, whose father is in Yang's employ. He escapes and gets to Shanghai where he kills the father who is about to flee to America with the money. Cooper and Madeleine are captured and taken on board Yang's junk, where they are to be tortured into revealing the hiding place of the money. Realizing that she loves Cooper, and to atone for her dupli- city, Madeleine offers to pay for his freedom with her life. Yang is mor- tally wounded in a scuffle. He orders his guards to kill the captives and, realizing he is about to die, commands his men to commit suicide so that they might follow him in death. Just as the soldiers are about to fire, Cooper starts a desper- ate gamble for life, skillfully playing upon the general's vanity. Vain even in the face of death, Yang permits Cooper and Madeleine to leave, as a last gallant gesture. Playing the part of General Yang is Akim Tamiroff, who, after numer- ous small successes and invariably good performances, rises to new heights and delivers a standout per- formance that will undoubtedly ele- vate his star rating in the future.
