SOCIETY and CLUBS

By Janet Wray Smith

Luncheon Event For Ladies' Day

Feminine members of the Rogue River Valley Golf club will take over the links and clubhouse tomorrow. The usual ladies' day activities will be featured by a flag tournament to be played throughout the day.

Arrangements are being completed for luncheon at the clubhouse at 12:30 o'clock. Chairman of the luncheon committee is Mrs. F G. Bunch, who is being assisted by Mrs. David Wilcox and Mrs. Gordon Green. The tournament and luncheon is expected to attract a large number of ladies of the club.

College Women Hear of Spain

A large group of members were present at Saturday afternoon's meeting of the Rogue River Valley College Women's club to hear a discussion, presented by Mrs. Maybelle Church, of the political, religious and social revolution in Spain as portrayed by Ralph Bates in his novel, "The Olive Field."

Hostess for the affair was Mrs. F. G. Thayer, at her home on Lyman Drive. Mrs. E. E. Kelly had charge of refreshments, and was assisted by Miss Sara Van Meter, Mrs. Ethel Willitts, Mrs. E. N. Warner, Mrs. Mark Wright, Mrs. Aletha Vawter, Miss Gertrude Watzling and Mrs. R. C. Van Valzah.

Three Will Leave For East Wednesday

Leaving by motor tomorrow morning will be Mr. and Mrs. William A. Buchanan and Mrs. S. S. Smith, who are driving east. They will make stops at Wichita, Kan., and Decatur, Ill., where Mrs. Smith will be the guest of relatives.

While Mrs. Smith stops in Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan will continue to Chicago, New York and other eastern cities. After a few weeks in the east, they will return west via the southern route Mrs Smith accompanying them as far as Los Angeles, where she will spend the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan plan to return to their home here in about a month. Mrs. Buchanan was formerly Miss Joan DeLosh.

Mrs. Harding To Be Honored Here

Mrs. B. G. Harding, state regent of the Daughters of American Revolution, will be honored by Crater Lake chapter at a luncheon and tea Saturday afternoon.

Members who wish to attend the luncheon at the Hotel Medford at 1:00 o'clock are requested to make reservations as soon as possible by calling 1288-X before 8:30 in the morning or after 6 o'clock in the evening.

The luncheon, which is to be followed by business session and tea in the afternoon, is expected to attract a large group.

Nurses to Greet State Secretary

Mrs. Linnie Laird of Portland, state executive secretary of the Oregon State Graduate Nurses' association, will be a guest of the local group, district No. 4, at the October meeting, which has been scheduled for tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Sylvia Shreve will be hostess to the group at her home, 907 East Main street, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening, and all members are particularly urged to be present to meet Mrs. Laird.

Week-end Guests At Coleman Home

Among recent visitors in the city was Miss Grace Mitchell of Redondo Beach, Cal., who spent the week-end as the guest of Judge and Mrs. W. R. Coleman. She is a former resident of Medford and well known here.

Also a week-end guest at the Coleman home was William McFadden of Redondo Beach. The guests returned to their homes Sunday.

Pickerings Observe First Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pickering invited several friends for dinner at their home Sunday evening in celebration of their first wedding anniversary. They received a number of gifts for the occasion.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Parker, Dee Orla Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ottinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Alice Trowbridge and John Hensen.

PUBLIC IS BLAMED FOR LAW FAILURE BY U. S. ATTORNEY

Lack of public cooperation is the principal cause of the lack of law enforcement, Carl C. Donaugh, United States attorney for Oregon, told the Kiwanis club at its weekly luncheon-meeting in the Hotel Medford yesterday.

"So long as the average citizen does not cooperate, just so long can we expect a lack of law enforcement," Mr. Donaugh said. "Officers cannot do their work effectively without the support of public opinion."

Mr. Donaugh declared the public generally is careless and not interested in law enforcement. He emphasized the difficulay of getting witnesses to testify in court. He cited statistics to show the vast number of major crimes committed in this country.

The federal prosecutor described the efforts of the United States government to curtail crime, describing the work of investigating agencies in tracing down crimes through scientific methods and the efforts being made in crime prevention.

"Give your police officers your whole-hearted cooperation and try to encourage greater respect for the law," Mr. Donaugh pleaded.

Judge James Alger Fee commented on the lack of public interest in what is transpiring in court rooms. In former years the court rooms used to be filled by spectators interested in law enforcement, the judge said. Today, however, they are seldom filled and lack of public interest is evident, he asserted.

Judge Fee told of the difficulty of procuring juries and declared that is more difficult to obtain a jury here than in Portland, although service in Medford lasts only a few days whereas in the upstate city it lasts for three or four months. He cited the numerous excuses offered to escape jury duty and declared the community is to blame for not permitting its more prominent citizens to serve on juries.

Capt. G. R. Durham of the Salvation Army gave a talk on the Community Chest, telling of the work that is done by the participating agencies.

Other guests were J. Mason Dillard, assistant United States attorney, Wade Crawford, superintendent of the Klamath Indian reservation, and Irving P. Beesley, Boy Scout executive.

The Kiwanis club will hold a party next Monday evening at 6:30 and the noon luncheon-meeting will be omitted.

DELEGATES ARRIVE FOR CHURCH MEET; 100 ARE EXPECTED

Delegates to the 18th annual state convention of the women's synodical of the First Presbyterian church were expected to begin arriving this afternoon and evening to be present for opening sessions tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock in the church parlors.

Approximately 100 members from all over Oregon are expected to attend the conclave, headed by Mrs. Douglas I. Bates of Portland, state president, who will preside. The convention will continue until Friday evening.

A feature of tomorrow's program will be the youth leaders' forum to be conducted in the church auditorium at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. H. R. MacFadden, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, who has charge of the education group of that church, will address the assembly, as will also Mrs Louis Parsons of Portland. The public is invited to hear the discussion, with Sunday school superintendents and teachers particularly urged to join the group.

Guest speakers for the three-day conclave will include Mrs. Fred Neal, Eseka Cameroun, West Africa; the Rev. Paul Doltz, D. D. Silliman university, Dumaguette, Philippine Islands; Miss Elianore Ewing of San Francisco, Pacific district secretary board of national missions; the Rev. Mr. McFadden and Mrs. Ann Liberty of the Tutuila Indian reservation.

All assemblies are to be held in the church and the public is invited to attend afternoon and evening sessions which are planned to be of general interest. Mrs. E. Iverson has charge of local arrangements.

LIFE IN WHEEL CHAIR LOOMS FOR PRISONER SHOT IN ESCAPE TRY

Harold Faughty, 20, of Longview, Wash., wounded September 26 in an attempted escape from the county jail, with Buff Marshall, 19, also of Longview, Wash., will never walk again, though now convalescing favorably, Sheriff Syd I. Brown said today, he been informed by County Physician C. I. Drummond.

Faughty will be brought into court this week, the authorities announce, to receive sentence on robbery and assault charges, to which he entered pleas of guilty.

Marshall, companion of Faughty, in a series of hold-ups at Phoenix near here last August, plead guilty, was sentenced to serve a total of 20 years in state prison, and is now in the state penitentiary at Salem.

Faughty was wounded, when with Marshall, he attacked jailer Harry Ingling and Alfred Cowan of Jacksonville, a trusty. The quartet battled over the jail, in a desperate struggle. Faughty was shot, the bullet grazing his spine, when the prisoners were trying to enter the jail office, and secure the keys to the outer door. Marshall speedily surrendered when his companion was wounded.

The two youths were arrested at Redding, Calif., after they had stolen two autos, and robbed three persons at Phoenix, and beaten J. C. Berrang, aged resident.

"It looks like Faughty would spend the rest of his days in a wheel chair," Sheriff Brown said. "His lower limbs are paralyzed and he cannot walk."

MEMBERS ARE SOUGHT FOR NATIONAL GUARD; SEVEN POSITIONS OPEN

Seven vacancies in Company A, 186th infantry were announced today by Capt. Carl Y. Tengwald, commanding officer. Applications for membership are now being received at the Medford armory by Sgt. Frank Lindley who is on duty day and night at the national guard headquarters.

"The company has started active drill for the fall and winter season and we are anxious to bring the membership up to full strength," Captain Tengwald said. "We should be especially glad to receive applications from high school students several of whom have enlisted during the past week. Enrolled students are allowed high school credits for military science."

Captain Tengwald pointed out that national guardsmen are paid for each weekly drill and during the annual encampment for which, in addition, all expenses are paid by the government. Age limits for national guard duty are 18 to 32 years, he said.

The company is now engaging in outdoor rifle practice on the Medford range every Sunday to complete its qualifications by October 31. An indoor range is now being completed in the armory basement under supervision of Corp. Charles Overmyer.

Both Company A and headquarters company will hold their regular weekly drills in the armory at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

COUNTY SCHOOLS REPORT INCREASE IN REGISTRATION

Reports from all grade schools in the county outside of Medford at the end of the first four weeks of school show an increase of 63 in enrollment figures over the corresponding period last year, County Superintendent C. R. Bowman announced today. Total this year is 2,692 as compared with 2,629 last year, with 1421 boys and 1,271 girls attending.

Outstanding increases were noted in the Phoenix and Jacksonville schools, necessitating the employment of an additional teacher in both schools. Jacksonville grade students last year numbered 144 and have increased to 173 this fall. Miss Eunice McLaughlin is the new instructor. Phoenix school enrollment rose from 177 last year to 210 at present. Dorothy Morris has been secured as an addition to the faculty.

Shady Cove enrollment dropped from 56 to 73, due to consolidation of the Hatchery school with that of Elk creek, the Hatchery pupils having attended at Shady Cove last year, and the transportation of the Debenger Gap children to Antioch school instead of Shady Cove. Long Mountain school has been discontinued this year, students from there being transported to Eagle Point.

Other schools showing definite increases were Central Point, which now has 232 pupils compared with 205 last year; Talent, with 148 now and 133 last year; Rogue River, 144 and 139; Prospect, 99 and 80; and Butte Falls, 79 and 69.

Decreases were seen at Howard, which last year counted 144 and now has 125; Independence, which dropped from 27 to 13; Mt. Pitt, from 15 last year to 9 at present; North Phoenix, 31 last year and 23 now; and Uniontown, which now has 6 compared with last year's 12.

Other county schools remained approximately the same.

Not much change in enrollment figures is expected from now on, Bowman said, outside of a few transfers.

MARITIME UNIONS, OPERATORS ASKED TO AWAIT SURVEY

created does not become effective until October 20, the commission heretofore had indicated it would not take action at this time.

In Public Interest

"In the public interest, this commission purposes to use, to the fullest extent, its power and authority, both legal and moral, to prevent the threatened (strike) catastrophe," its statement said.

It added "Therefore, the commission is undertaking an investigation to determine the merits of the various questions involved and upon completion of it, without delay, will announce its findings."

The commission described the Pacific coast situation as a matter "of grave public concern," and said it appeared an agreement between operators and the unions could not be reached before October 16.

A delegation of San Franciscans who came here yesterday to seek the commission's intervention, hailed the announcement as "definite recognition of the seriousness of the maritime problem."

"Many have looked forward to such training to meet a real need, but have found the expense for the course far beyond their ability and have given up in despair. Realizing this, and seeing students turned back to their homes for lack of funds, we have been led to offer free of charge this two year course in the knowledge and use of the Bible, and to qualify for service for the field they may be called in the providence of God to enter, whether that of pastor's assistant, evangelists, missionaries, or other forms of aggressive Christian evice," he stated.

Application blanks for the courses may be obtained from Reverend Lewis at the Central Point Federated church.

BIBLE SCHOOL OPENS TRAINING COURSE AT CENTRAL PT. CHURCH

The Rev. Robert Charles Lewis, pastor of the Federated church of Central Point, today announced start of the fall term of the Bible training school at the church. The school offers a two year course of Bible study and Christian training without charge, and there is no resignation fee, Rev. Lewis stated.

The school last year had an enrollment of 67, and a considerably larger group is expected this year, with courses to run until June 30 of 1937. "The need for trained Christian workers in all departments of church life is greater than ever before," Rev. Lewis said. "The Bible schools of the country have furnished hundreds of capable men and women for various positions, but the demand is continually increasing.
