BLOCKADE OF PORTUGALS DEMANDED

By Paul Mallon
Copyright, 1936, by Paul Mallon
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—There has never been an investigation like the senate campaign investigation. In fact, you cannot find out for sure whether there is one.

The committee has presumably been ferreting out campaign facts for three months, but has held a hearing.

Only one committee report has been published. It was based on the evidence of the Maine election and disclosed that the Rockefeller and DuPonts had contributed to the Republican cause in Maine.

The committee door is shut. It bears a placard reading: "Visiting hours from 1 to 3 p. m. . . . If you have a message put it under the door."

The committee is supposed to have held an executive session once, and those who went in under the door were identified as Chairman Loperon of Connecticut, Senators Schwelb, Minton, Frazier and Austin. Originally, Vice-President Garner appointed Senator La Follette to the committee, more or less facetiously as a Republican, but he retired. The Republican who was selected to succeed him is Frazier, who has just announced for Senate. This leaves one Republican on the committee, Austin of Vermont. But there has been no party strife among committee members; only sensational quiet.

The official explanation, which slipped out one day when the door was inadvertently left open, is that Chairman Loperon is accumulating oodles and oodles of information, but will hold it back until after the election is over, and forgotten. Then it will be submitted to the senate as a post-mortem.

Sgt. Ed Walker of the state police describing the grounds to be seen on occasion in a year ago, back doing a rapid dash down the main drag, apparently preferring sunshine to dust storms.

Mrs. Esther Church Leake doing a bit of fancy balance walking, making her way along the narrow curbing at the Espee depot without a flicker of an eye, or once losing her equilibrium.

Carl Johnson, who departed this terrain about a year ago, back doing a rapid dash down the main drag, apparently preferring sunshine to dust storms.

Chris Richardson trying unsuccessfully to give away some pop corn from his newly acquired popcorn, but instead recipients of his bounty refusing because the stuff sticks in their teeth.

RUSSIA INSISTS UPON ACTION TO HALT ARMS FLOW

Control Over Portuguese Ports Only Way To End Supply Of Munitions To Fascists In Spain, Claim.

(By the Associated Press)
MOSCOW, Oct. 14.—Soviet Russia has demanded establishment of a virtual blockade of Portugal by the British and French navies to halt supplies of arms for Spanish insurgents, officials disclosed tonight.

The demand was made by Russian diplomatic officials to Lord Plymouth, chairman of the international non-intervention committee, in London today.

Immediate establishment of "control" over Portuguese ports, it stated, is the only way to end the supply of arms to the fascist armies in Spain.

An official communique stated: "We demand from the committee the establishment of such control. We suggest the enforcement of the control measures be turned over to the French or British fleet or both."

M. Kagan, the Soviet representative on the non-intervention committee, asked that the group be convoked without delay to consider the new Soviet proposal.

By the Associated Press
Frost-bitten militiamen of Madrid pounded back today at San Martin De Valdeglesias, newest fascist-won objective in the march on the capital, while Soviet Russia demanded that Europe act speedily to isolate the Spanish war—"or else."

At London, Soviet Russia's ambassador, in a personal visit to the British foreign office, asked, informed sources said, that the international neutrality committee be summoned this week to act on Moscow's charges of flagrant violation of the "hands off Spain" accord.

At Madrid, swept by wintry winds, government troops looked forward for the order to launch a "final" head and air attack on San Martin De Valdeglesias today.

Advance lines of socialist militiamen have penetrated within 600 yards of the church commanding the Pelayos road. Sergeant Major Leon Garcia reported to the war ministry.

AUTOIST FACING TWO COMPLAINTS

Deryl Allen is scheduled to appear in justice court today on a charge of reckless driving on October 4 last, and tomorrow is due to answer to a charge of driving an auto while intoxicated, committed on October 11, on East Main street. Pleas of not guilty have been entered to both charges.

Wesley D. Durkee of this city yesterday afternoon entered a plea of guilty to reckless driving on the Medford-Jacksonville highway and was assessed $25 and costs.

Carrie Fields and Marvin Mow, both of Ashland, charged in a complaint signed by the husband of the woman, with acts contrary to public decency, had their case remanded to the grand jury by Justice of the Peace William R. Coleman. Mow did not appear. A tempestuous and wordy scene was staged by the woman and her mate.

Zane Watkins of this city was fined $1 and costs for improper license plates on an auto.

College Girls Pull Hair Before Political Rally

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Oct. 14.—(P)—Powder and rouge covered the bristles today which several Smith college girls received when rival political groups indulged in a little hair-pulling and nail-scratching before a rally for Massachusetts Republican candidates was held on the campus.

With red and green torches flaring and a band blaring, a hundred or so Republican supporters marched across the campus of the exclusive college of John M. Greene last night to hear the candidates, headed by John W. Haigis, candidate for governor.

They were met by a group of about 25 Democratic enthusiasts carrying brightly painted signs.

OVERFLOW CROWD HEARS PRESIDENT

408 KNOWN DEAD IN TYPHOON; 600 OTHERS MISSING

MANILA, Oct. 14.—(P)—The death list from the Philippines' most disastrous typhoon jumped to 408 today. Little hope was held for 600 others reported missing.

While relief agencies worked to check famine and disease stalking through the stricken area of northern Luzon island, belated reports from the San Narciso district of Zamboanga province, northwest of Manila, said 150 miners were trapped and drowned by a wall of water which swept down on them as they were crossing a river.

Ten were drowned at Magalang, in adjoining Pampanga province, when their boat capsized. Other scattered deaths were reported.

Famine and disease faced the survivors of last week's typhoon, particularly in those districts where relief agencies have been unable to penetrate because of floods. Food supplies were virtually wiped out along the Pampanga river valley, north of Manila.

Ironically, a great excess of water left the residents of the damaged areas suffering from thirst—floods that followed the typhoon destroyed water supplies. Natives did not drink for fear of a typhoid epidemic.

From the stricken region came urgent appeals for relief.

College Girls Pull Hair Before Political Rally

A highly pitched soprano hoot pierced the air. Carmine-painted fingernails went into play. Tufts of hair from carefully marcelled heads drifted in the night air.

Signs bearing such sayings as "Sunflowers die in November," and picturing a drooping flower; "Don't be dumb, be a Democrat"; "Are you a Democrat?" with a picture of President Roosevelt on one side and a mouse on the other toppled.

Only one non-student was seen to take part in the rumpus, and she was a gray-haired woman wearing a London armband. When victory was apparent she was seen entering the hall, yanking her swollen suit into shape.

INDIANS DEATH BRINGS MORE SERIOUS CHARGE

Roland Hicks, Indian, was remanded to the county jail here without bail this morning after he had waived preliminary hearing on a charge of second degree murder. He appeared before U. S. Commissioner Victor A. Tengsvald.

Hicks was charged with feloniously assaulting Irwin Johnson, also an Indian, at the Klamath Indian reservation, on October 2, with a stick or firearm. Johnson died yesterday of a fractured skull at the Klamath agency hospital, the injury having been inflicted by Hicks, the commissioner was told.

Hicks had been held on an assault charge and last week when the condition of Johnson grew serious his bail was raised from $2,500 to $10,000 in federal court here. The alleged beating occurred after a brawl, agents said.

COPCO EARNINGS ZOOM IN AUGUST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—(AP)—California Oregon Power Co. reported today August net profit of $111,387—almost double the 1935 August net of $37,069. Gross receipts rose to $258,522 from $262,963.

For the year ended Aug. 31 net was $693,005 against $416,691 last year; gross was $4,249,781 against $3,764,157.

What this young lady is seeking to do is in effect to tear up her contract and say that whether she is right or wrong the court will not grant an injunction against her," Sir Patrick told the judge.

Referring to Miss Davis' contention the contract had been broken by Warner Brothers itself, Hastings declared: "In regard to these I venture to suggest your lordship will doubtless come to the conclusion this is really a rather naughty young lady and what she wants is more money."

UNITY OF ACTION TO HELP OREGON PLEA OF DODSON

Portland Chamber of Commerce Leader Is Spokesman For Visiting Group At Chamber Luncheon.

A plea for unified action on the part of Oregon communities in an effort to secure federal assistance for projects of state-wide importance was voiced by W. D. Dodson, executive vice-president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, before a luncheon meeting of Portland and Medford business men today at the Hotel Medford. Mr. Dodson, principal spokesman for a delegation of Portland business men, emphasized the statement that "Oregon ought to come closer together" and urged the results of concerted action in both California and Washington.

"We are prone to be too busy with our local affairs to successfully unite for greater developments of state-wide importance," Dodson said in urging this community to join with other cities of the state in determining now a program for water conservation and following through to a successful completion of this program. Intelligent, aggressive action, and a spirit of cooperation have brought several great projects and many millions of dollars in federal funds to Washington and California, and the same unity of action is essential to Oregon's advancement, Dodson pointed out.

Hean Chairman.
C. D. Bean, president of the Medford retail merchants' bureau of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, who acted as chairman of today's meeting, interspersed his introductions with brief pertinent facts concerning this city and the southern Oregon country. Mayor George Porter welcomed the Portland delegation on behalf of the city of Medford, and William F. Isaacs, vice-president of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, extended the greetings of that organization.

A. C. McMicken, chairman of the trade and commerce committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and sales manager of the Portland General Electric company, acted as chairman of the Portland business men at today's meeting. After expressing briefly the desire of the visitors to closely cooperate with the people of Medford and southern Oregon, Mr. McMicken introduced R. G. Callvert, associate editor of the Morning Oregonian, who offered reminiscences of a visit to southern Oregon many years ago and complimented the Medford business men upon the improvements in roads here and the progress of this community.

An enjoyable highlight of today's luncheon was a series of laughable stories in Scotch dialect by E. D. Ross, member of the board of directors of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and president of the Irwin-Hodson company.

This afternoon, members of Portland group will be guests on a tour of the Rogue river valley, including "open house" at William F. Isaacs' beautiful lodge on Rogue river. Golf matches will also be enjoyed by the visitors who are golf enthusiasts.

Members of the Portland committee making the trip through southern Oregon and present at the luncheon were:
