

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Transacts Business—W. H. Walker was among Medford business visitors in Ashland Wednesday.

Shopping Here—Mrs. Alma Merriman and son Ray of Trail shopped and called on friends here Tuesday.

To Join Army—Floyd L. Johns left this morning for San Francisco, Cal., where he will apply for enlistment in the United States army.

From Trail—Out-of-town visitors here Wednesday included Mrs. Rena Howe and Mrs. Alberta Hughes, both of Trail, who shopped and transacted business while here.

Leave for East—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lewis and son left by train last night for South Bend, Ind. They plan to be away two or three weeks and will return by motor.

Week-end in North—Miss LaVerna Key is spending the week-end in Portland as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ada Key. She expects to return to her home here Monday.

To Roseburg—H. M. Cowling, chief scientific aide in the U. S. department of agriculture, returned north last night after transacting business here. He planned to stop at Roseburg.

Business Visitors—Business callers in Medford this week included Axel Hall of Ashland, who was here yesterday, and W. G. Tucker, also of Ashland, who visited Wednesday.

From Yreka—Mrs. M. P. Franklin of Yreka, Ca., was calling on friends and business acquaintances in Medford and Ashland Wednesday. She returned home in the evening.

Surveying Politics—Ralph Watson, veteran reporter for the Oregon Journal, accompanied by Mrs. Watson, is spending a few days in southern Oregon, getting the lay-down on the political situation for a series of articles in his newspaper.

Return to Prineville—Norman Penick, former district ranger here who is now employed on the Ochoco national forest in the same capacity, and Mrs. Penick returned by motorcar this morning to their home in Prineville. They returned via Lake of the Woods. Mr. Penick came to Medford Wednesday in connection with a case in federal court.

Study in East—Ten students from Oregon have enrolled this year at Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill. Two registered from Medford are Joe D. Pierce, 704 North Central avenue, and Donald E. Stewart, box 463. Both Medford students are studying engineering.

To Transfer Prisoners—E. G. Narregon, deputy United States marshal, is to leave Sunday for Klamath Falls where he is to get three federal prisoners. He will take the prisoners, together with 15 others now in county jail, to Portland Sunday night.

Gets Promotion—Clayton East, for the past two years a member of the Crater lake national park staff, has been promoted to the regional national park service office in San Francisco, headquarters for 11 western states. Mr. East is well known here and a number of years ago was connected with the Southern Pacific railroad and Pacific Fruit Express companies, with headquarters in Medford during the autumn fruit shipping rush. In the Crater lake office he handled ECW accounts.

Collins Appointed—Hugh Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, a freeman in law at the University of Oregon, was recently appointed a member of one of the important committees for the freshman class which will be held October 23 in conjunction with homecoming week-end. The huge fire in the form of a flaming "O" is an old Oregon tradition observed every year during alumni week-end. It is the duty of the freshman class to construct and guard it from any molestation attempted by students from other colleges. Collins is a pledge of Theta Chi fraternity.

Stars of Historical Screen Drama

With an exceptionally strong cast that includes Robert Taylor, Joan Crawford and Lionel Barrymore in the leading roles and Franchot Tone, Melvyn Douglas, James Stewart, Alison Skipworth, Louis Calhern, the beautiful Bondi and Sidney Toler in featured supporting parts, "The Gorgeous Hussy" opens its local run at the Craterian theatre Sunday. Based on Samuel Hopkins Adams' best seller, "The Gorgeous Hussy" tells the story of Peggy O'Neal, daughter of a Washington insider during the Jacksonian period of America's history. A beautiful and flirtatious creature, Peggy trips from one romance to another, becomes both the toast and scandal of continental Washington, and in the end rises to prominence as the first lady of democracy.

Taylor plays the part of an officer in the navy, who sweeps her off her feet and into a marriage which tests Peggy O'Neal's character and convictions. "Ticket to Paradise" plays as the double feature on the same program. "Ticket to Paradise" is the insanely funny tale of a young rascal who suffers so badly from insomnia that he forgets who he is and where he is. The predicaments encountered in his sleepless journey are filled with hilarious entertainment. Others with Miss Francis in the cast of "The White Angel" are Ian Hunter, Donald Woods, Nigel Bruce, Donald Crisp and Henry O'Neill.

On Plan Board—K. Baylor on October 13 was appointed a member of the Talent planning commission by the Talent city council, the other members being Mrs. Harriet Bates and Harry Hamilton. The planning commission will formulate a new and interesting program for the development of Talent.

To Leave Sunday—H. S. Kenyon, deputy clerk of the United States district court, is to leave for his home in Portland by motorcar Sunday. He has been here for the federal court session that was completed yesterday.

Chorus Rehearsal—Esther Church Leake, director, announced today that the Jackson County Teachers' chorus will hold a rehearsal tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the county courthouse auditorium. All members are urged to be present as practice is under way for the education institute in Ashland the end of this month.

Miss Jones Away—Miss Dorothy Jones, recently arrived in the United States after spending 33 years as a missionary in China, left for Klamath Falls last night. She has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Jones at their home here. She planned to go to Los Angeles from Klamath Falls and from there will continue on to Joliet, Ill.

SUNDAY MONDAY

In Role of Immortal Heroine

Kay Francis, one of the most beautiful women on stage or screen, portrays the role of Florence Nightingale, the immortal war heroine whose blood-stained uniform became the red badge of courage of the Red Cross nurse in "The White Angel," which opens Sunday for a three-day run at the Rialto theatre. Roger Pryor and Wendy Barrie co-starring in "Ticket to Paradise" plays as the double feature on the same program. "Ticket to Paradise" is the insanely funny tale of a young rascal who suffers so badly from insomnia that he forgets who he is and where he is. The predicaments encountered in his sleepless journey are filled with hilarious entertainment. Others with Miss Francis in the cast of "The White Angel" are Ian Hunter, Donald Woods, Nigel Bruce, Donald Crisp and Henry O'Neill.

Attorneys Return—Carl C. Donough, United States attorney for Oregon, and his mother, Mrs. Jessie May Donough, returned by motorcar last evening to Portland. Also returning to Portland by car were J. Mason Dillard, assistant United States attorney, and his mother, Mrs. Susie B. Dillard.

Summerville Leaves—J. T. Summerville, former Medford resident and now United States marshal in Portland, returned to his home this morning by automobile. He was accompanied by Mrs. Summerville. Mr. Summerville came here to attend federal court.

Carnival Tonight—Annual benefit carnival will be held at the Howard school at 7:30 tonight, proceeds to be used in maintaining the playground, purchase of costumes for the puppets and other school affairs. A food sale and the usual features of a carnival constitute the program. The event is sponsored by the P.-T. A. and the public is invited.

Two Gun Man

Ken Maynard returns to the Rosy theatre (tomorrow) Saturday only to delight his fans with "The Cattle Thief." In this picture he fights desperate men of the plains in an effort to stop the notorious cattle rustling of those parts. With him in the cast is Geneva Mitchell. Also on the same program is the fifth episode of the serial "The Roaring West," which stars Buck Jones.

AIRLINE MANAGER IS VISITOR HERE

Walter L. Sells, manager of the Catalina Air Line, Wrigley transportation system connecting the mainland with Catalina island off southern California, Mrs. Sells and their daughter Loren visited friends here overnight. They were en route home after making a motor tour to Vancouver, British Columbia.

Mr. Sells was a flier for the United States navy in the World war and has a citation for valor in bombing an enemy submarine. He has been flying since 1913 and holds a license to fly any type of plane.
