

PRIEST'S OUSTING AND RECEIVERSHIP REQUESTED IN SUIT

Priest Held Despot
The bill alleged also that "the defendants have permitted themselves to be emancipated of their powers by Father Coughlin and have permitted him to usurp an absolute and despotic control over the organization."
It also alleged that the radio priest was dissipating trust funds "in preaching and propagating fascism and undermining democracy."
O'Donnell, filed a bill alleging that loases from trust funds were "in excess of $1,000,000."

O'Donnell cast the only negative vote at Cleveland recently when the N.U.S.J. convention endorsed William Lemke, union party presidential candidate.
Named as defendants with Father Coughlin are:
B. F. Stephenson, Marie W. Rhodes, Eugenia Burke, Dorothy Rhodes, E. Perrin Schwartz, Mrs. Robert E. O'Brien and the National Union for Social Justice, of Royal Oak, a Michigan corporation.
O'Donnell said in his bill that he is bringing suit by his individual right as a member of the organization but that "the matters involved are of interest to all members of the N.U.S.J."
Stephenson heads the National Union's organizations in Michigan, and Schwartz is editor of its newspaper, Social Justice. The others, except Mrs. O'Brien, are Father Coughlin's secretaries.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By Janet Wray Smith

Daughters Plan Saturday Luncheon

A large number are expected to be guests of the local Bethel of Job's Daughters Saturday afternoon when the members will entertain with a card party at the Masonic hall. Playing is to start at 2 o'clock.
Arrangements are being made for tea at 4 o'clock, and additional guests who are unable to arrive earlier are invited to drop in at that hour. A cordial invitation is extended to anyone interested.

Miss Helen Thompson in Charge of Arrangements

Miss Helen Thompson is in charge of arrangements and is being assisted by the Misses Betty Pennington, Barbara Lemmon, Jean Hunt, Jean McPherson, Kathleen Dillard, Marjorie Phipps and Maxine Young. Refreshment committee is headed by Miss Phoebe Dean and includes Katharine Conroy and Mary Elizabeth Shreve.

Business Women Plan Party Monday Evening

Mrs. Margaret Fabrick will be hostess to the Business and Professional Women's club at her home on Crater Lake avenue Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The affair is being arranged as a political party and numerous features are planned by the program committee, headed by Miss Mary Louise Foster. Refreshments are in charge of Miss Lura Lynch.

Don H. Newberry will address the group on republican phases of the presidential campaign and music and entertainment will follow the campaign theme.

All members and prospective members are extended a cordial invitation and visitors will be welcome, according to Mrs. Mabel Mack, president.

Mrs. Harding is Guest in Ashland

Mrs. B. O. Harding, state regent of the Daughters of American Revolution, was a guest of Mount Ashland chapter in the Lithia City today in her official capacity, when the Ashland group entertained with a luncheon in her honor.

Mrs. Louis Dodge, Ashland regent, presided and Mrs. H. C. Galey was in charge of arrangements.

Crater Lake chapter will be hostesses for Mrs. Harding tomorrow, having arranged a luncheon at the Hotel Medford to be followed by tea later in the afternoon.

Mrs. Wynore is Guest of Parents

Mrs. Earl Wynore arrived here last night from Portland to spend several days as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hon. She was formerly Miss Marjorie Hon and resided here until several months ago, when she and Mrs. Wynore left to make their home in Portland.

Mrs. Wynore plans to leave for Eugene next week-end for the Homecoming activities and also to attend the wedding of Miss Eleanor Boyd, who is also a former resident of Medford and well-known here.

Medford Bethel to Initiate at Ashland

A large number of members of the Medford Bethel of Job's Daughters will go to Ashland tonight to initiate and install officers for the new group being organized there. The ceremonies are to start at 7 o'clock in the Ashland Masonic temple.

Medford officers, headed by Janice Shreve as queen, will initiate the Ashland members and other officers and past officers will install leaders of the new group.

Members of Reames chapter, O.E.S., have also been extended a cordial invitation and a number will attend.

Party Planned Friday Evening

Members of the Wenonah club will entertain with a card party, the first of the current season, tomorrow evening at the Redmen hall on Apple street, instead of tomorrow afternoon as stated in a previous notice.

Invitation Issued For Club Luncheon

A cordial invitation to all Medford and valley college women and those of junior college standing has been issued by the Medford branch of the American Association of University Women to attend the luncheon meeting Saturday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the Hotel Medford.

Mrs. Justin Smith, chairman of the program committee, has announced that the program will include a history of the organization nationally, to be presented by Miss Carin Degermark; "How A.A.U.W. Started in Medford," by Mrs. Robert Hart; "Fellowship Work of A.A.U.W.," Mrs. W. E. Flinn.

Resumes of study group work will be discussed by Miss Helen Parish, Miss Josephine Kirtley, Mrs. J. F. Lawrence and Mrs. Darrell Huson.

Newlyweds Return From Wedding Trip

Returning here early this week were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burns, who have been vacationing in the south following their marriage here Oct. 3 at the First Christian church. Mrs. Burns was formerly Miss Irene Strowbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns are at home at 135 North Holly street, and plan to make their permanent residence here. They have both been residents of the city for some time and are being welcomed by a number of friends.

Holiday Festivities Planned for School

Prominent among Halloween activities being made by school organizations is the frolic to be arranged by the Lincoln school service club for Friday evening, Oct. 23.

Outstanding features are being worked out by committees and teachers of the school, headed by Mrs. Ralph Burgess as general chairman, and the varied entertainment is expected to attract a large crowd.

Funds received will be for the benefit of the club and the school kitchen.

Miss Fowler Here To Organize Group

Among visitors in Medford for the past several days has been Miss Vera M. Fowler, of Chicago, Ill., who has started organization of a Medford branch of Zonta International, women's classified service club.

Officers of the new group will be elected at a dinner meeting this evening and Miss Fowler expects to leave for the north for further organization tomorrow. She is field secretary of the group.

OLD RELIABLES IN BEAVERS LINEUP

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 16.—(P)—Experimental combinations were junked today when Lon Stiner, head man of Oregon State football destinies, turned back to "old reliables."
Ten of the men who opened the California game last week will be in at the kickoff against Washington at Seattle Saturday. Frank Nihil will be the only new warrior. He will replace veteran Jim Miller at left tackle.
Dale Lillebo, right end, was named captain. It was the third time this season the North Bend, Ore., youth has received the honor.
With Johnny Alexander, little half-back who went into the California game as a reserve and became the hero of the Beaver attack, out with a broken nose, chief half carrying work will fall to Joe Gray.
A man who broke into a tavern at Montville, N. J., ate and drank so much he was asleep when police arrived to arrest him.

HUNTING FOR DEER CONTINUES POOR; FIRE DANGER HIGH

The following bulletin was issued today by the Rogue River national forest service:
"There has been little change in deer hunting conditions since last week end. In the Bear Indian section the more fortunate hunters are finding the Buck Mountain, Big Draw, Clover creek and Mount McLaughlin territory the best for hunting."
"In the Butte Falls district there is little chance as only one buck was reported killed there last week end. The reports from the Union Creek district are much the same. In the Applegate, hunting has improved but little. All reports indicate that the deer are remaining in the higher elevations in the brush fields."
"The grouse are reported scarce except in the Butte Falls area, where quite a few birds have been seen. Valley quail are quite numerous in the lower elevations in the Applegate."
"Because of the continued dry weather, the governor has proclaimed that Oregon fire laws 42-409 and chapter 270 will remain in effect until further notice. This means that the three rules: No smoking while traveling; camp fire permits; and the axe, shovel and bucket, will be enforced. It also means that burning permits will be necessary in order to burn slashings."
"Whitened snags in the old burns are ghosts of once attractive landscapes. They tell of wasted scenic wealth of the northwest caused by carelessness with cigarettes and camp fires. Put your cigarette and camp fire out."
"Wind this morning reached a velocity of 61 miles an hour at Pelican butte above Pelican bay. This is a speed of six miles an hour more than prevailed when the disastrous Bandon fire broke out. Humidity is still excessively low and fire hazards are therefore exceedingly high."

Comment of the Day's News

By Frank Jenkins
PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is touring the country, campaigning for re-election. Which is quite all right and not open in any way to criticism. But it is interesting to recall that four years ago he was touring the country campaigning for election, and it is even more interesting to recall some of the things he said.

Speaking at Pittsburg on October 19, 1932, he said (attacking the administration of President Hoover):
"Our federal extravagance and improvidence (meaning Hoover's, of course) bear a double evil: First, our people and our business cannot carry its excessive burdens of taxation, second, our credit structure is impaired by the unorthodox federal financing made necessary by the unprecedented magnitude of those deficits."
"Instead of financing the billion-dollar deficit of 1931 in the regular way, our government simply absorbed that much of the lending capacity of the banks (meaning that government borrowed money) and by so much impaired the credit available for business."

ON MARCH 4, 1933, when the Roosevelt administration went into office, the gross debt of the United States was approximately 21 billion dollars.
On June 30, 1936, three years and four months later, the gross debt of the United States was approximately 34 billion dollars—an increase of 13 billion dollars, or nearly four billion dollars a year.

WHEN was Roosevelt right—when he was savagely attacking Hoover for permitting a deficit of one billion dollars in one year or when he himself was running up a deficit of THIRTEEN BILLION dollars in a little over three years?
And if he changes his mind so readily and so easily, how can we believe what he is saying NOW, when he is again a candidate?

Talent Is Grateful
To the Editor:
Talent citizens are very grateful for the part you played in helping to make a success of the Pear and Tomato Show held in Talent on October 2 and 3. Words cannot express the feeling we would give to the many people whose interest and community spirit helped to accomplish that which Southern Oregon as a whole can benefit from.
It is the hope of Talent citizens that this event can be perpetuated in time to come, and from it permanent benefits will accrue to the Rogue river valley.
Again we want to thank you for the fine spirit of co-operation shown by you and hope with all sincerity that at another time we may have the pleasure of working with you.

Favors Tax Limitation.
To the Editor:
You are stepping on my toes again

with your articles against the Tax Limitation measure.
If there ever was one thing we needed it is some method of holding some of our officeholders (tax spenders) somewhere near earth when it comes to spending money. They are so wonderfully, exquisitely solicitous of the welfare of the dear people; they just must be taken care of in every way possible, safeguarded, protected, watched over. Of course it costs money but the "efficiency of the government must be upheld."
(Do you recognize the words?)
I am going to tell you this: The crude way of collecting most of the tax off of real or tangible property is driving the people into bankruptcy and poverty.
There are countless undeveloped resources in Oregon that are investigated and passed up because of the excessive taxes, or if they do start up they soon give up the ghost.
Then there are the countless people who would like to make Oregon their home, but as one prospective home owner said, "Why, my wife and I could live on what the taxes on a decent home amounts to."
And the poor farmer? I know of one who has a fine farm, all paid for and all in apple-pie order. He wanted to be comfortable in his old age and have no worries, but now he finds he has to raise $600 per year for the "tax-eaters," and he is plumb discouraged.
I knew one farmer-dairyman (I bought milk from him when the cows were allowed to manufacture it); he was enthusiastic, worked hard to build up a fine place; had a son who worked with him, and was doing fine—but then he discovered that he could not keep up with his taxes. He talked it over with the boy; the boy saw the hopelessness of it and could not stand the gaff—he committed suicide. (This happened in Jackson county.)
The father traded everything for a small farm over on the Applegate, sacrificing thousands of dollars, but is now tax free and contented; makes just a living but has no worries.
One of our largest ranchers told me he was getting along fine (during the worst of the depression) except that he could not get his taxes paid. He had several thousand bushels of barley but no market; the breweries came back and he sold the barley to them, and paid the taxes, and last year he sold enough winter blue-grass seed to pay taxes.
Of course Farmer Bill gets paid for the hogs he does not raise, so he is all O. K.
The whole matter is this: That if the people of Oregon want work they will have to allow work to come into the state. The workers are without jobs because industry is kept out

The people are kept so all-fired healthy, but die from starvation and worry to keep it up. The young folks are educated to death, and not a job in sight when they are through. Young ladies are taught to cook, sew, keep house, and can't get married because the young men can't support a home.
The Tax-Limitations measure is made to force some other way of raising money by the Tax-Eaters except on tangible property.
