

Medford Massacres Marshfield 37 to 13—Penalties Void Long Runs

COOS BAY SQUAD TAKES TO AIR TO ANNEX MARKERS

Regulars Make Way For Shock Troops After Fast Scoring At Start Of Game.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 17.—(Sp.)—The Medford high school football squad defeated Marshfield here today, 37 to 13. Penalties deprived the Tigers of two touchdowns, when Olsen's 60-yard run, and Ettinger's 75-yard sprint were called back. Medford's first string ran up 14 points in the first six minutes of play, and Coach Bowerman then sent in his shock troops, for the remainder of the first half. A power and passing attack led by Kline, scored two touchdowns for Marshfield, while the Tiger reserves were scoring one marker. In their drive the Coos Bay squad completed ten passes in a row, to score their first touchdown. Sakralda scored three touchdowns and Olsen and Baylis, one each for Medford. The Tiger first string went back into action in the second half, and scored twice, while holding Marshfield scoreless. Olsen's 60-yard run for a touchdown, was called back, and Medford penalized fifteen yards for holding. On a lateral from Olsen to Ettinger, Ettinger ran 75 yards to pay dirt, but it too was declared illegal. Medford's only casualty was a sprained ankle for Hill. The field was fast but dusty.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 17.—(UP)—Medford high school team displayed a brilliant offense today, as they handed the Marshfield Pirates a 37-13 defeat. Coach Bill Bowerman, Medford mentor, used his second and third teams through the major portion of the game. Marshfield, a vastly improved team, relied on a passing attack to aid them in scoring two touchdowns.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A steady scoring drive through an un-spectacular game brought Medford high school a 37 to 13 victory over Marshfield today. Lee Sakralda, Medford fullback, made the first three touchdowns for the invaders. Bob Olsen and Ray Lewis crossed with the other two. In the second period a sharp Marshfield attack carried Jim Peterson, fullback, over the Medford goal twice.

MINNESOTA ROUTS MICHIGAN FOR 20 VICTORIES IN ROW

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Minnesota marched again down football's victory street today as it trounced Michigan's Wolverines for the Golden Gophers' 20th consecutive conquest before 48,000 spectators. The score was 26 to 0.

Unleashing an impressive display of power and lateral passes in the traditional battle for the little brown jug, perennial Minnesota-Michigan trophy, Bernie Bierman's eleven rammed home touchdowns in three of the four periods of its opening western conference game. Michigan never had the ball in Gopher territory at any point in the game as Minnesota's lefty forward wall led the victory parade up and down the field while Wilbur Moore, substitute halfback, thrilled the crowd with a sparkling 38-yard run for the Gophers' last touchdown in the final minutes of play.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Notre Dame's grid legends swung into a touchdown march in the second half today as the Irish rolled over the Braves of Wisconsin, 27 to 0, before a chilled throng of 25,000 spectators.

Fought to almost a standstill by their scrappy opponents in the first two periods, in which they scored but six points, the Irish scored twice in the third period and added another touchdown in the final stanza Wisconsin's line, in the first half, held the Irish backs in check but for the remainder of the game Notre Dame reserve strength was too much for the tired invaders.

WASHINGTON WINS TERRIFIC BATTLE FROM STATE, 19-7

Huskies Held To Tie In First Half—Pass Gives O.S.C. Lone Touchdown.

WASHINGTON STADIUM, Seattle, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The University of Washington Huskies swept triumphantly forward over the Pacific coast conference championship gridiron trail with a smashing 19 to 7 victory over the Oregon State college Beavers. It was the second successive conference triumph for Coach Jimmy Phelan and his veteran pigskin punchers and kept the Huskies very much in the running for the coast title. The Huskies led the points short, however, of equalling the early season 38 to 7 victory of Southern California over the Beavers. Joe Gray, the "Gray Ghost" of Oregon State and his teammates gave the Huskies a terrific battle through the first half, forcing Washington to tie the hard way. Coach Phelan had to keep his regulars working at top speed all through the second half to pull victory out of the fire and put it on ice. After both eleven had scored in the second period, Washington forged ahead with a touchdown in the third, and added another in the fourth. The Huskies opened the scoring early in the second quarter with a 74-yard march. The starting second string backfield of Newton, Johnston, Cain and Cruver, carried the ball to the Oregon State 30-yard line where three veterans rushed into the fray and charged up to the goal line. Cruver went over on a lateral from Waskowitz on the 60-yard line on the fourth down. Late in the period, Oregon State got two cracks at a touchdown going over the second time with only seconds to play. Kicking from behind his goal line, Logg's boot was partially blocked and rolled out of bounds on the Husky 20. Two line smashes and two passes by Gray failed to advance the Beavers materially and the 12,000 fans sat back with a sigh of relief, but only for a moment. On the following play, Cruver fumbled, and Wendlich recovered for Oregon State on the Washington 16. A fourth down pass from Gray to Mountain put the Beavers on the Washington five-yard stripe, and the "ghost" then whipped another aerial shot to Weaver in the end zone for a touchdown. On a 45-yard romp in the third period, Washington finally forged ahead again. Haines reeling around his left end from the five-yard line to reach pay dirt. Logg's place-kick was wide. In the fourth period, with Gray throwing passes in every direction in a desperate effort to catch up with Washington, two of which connected for a total of 17 yards, Logg came from nowhere to intercept another hand on the O. S. C. 35. The Beavers were visibly tired and Cain, Waskowitz and Haines took turns plunging through their line until they reached the nine yard stripe where Cain wiggled through a group of would-be tacklers to reach the goal line and a third touchdown for Washington. Farburst missed the extra point from placement. Lineups and summary:

TROJANS HELD TO SCORELESS TIE BY COUGARS IN MUD

Webfeet, Menaced By Scoreless Tie, Rally In Final Quarter—Slim Crowd Attends.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—(P)—Two undefeated football teams, Washington State and University of Southern California, played each other to a standstill and a scoreless tie here today. Twenty-five thousand spectators, huddled in rain-soaked Memorial coliseum, saw a hard-fighting pack of Cougars stop the vaunted and highly favored Trojan machine in 60 minutes of muddy football. The Trojans outplayed the Cougars in all but two departments of the game—punting and spirit. Trojan thrusts toward the Cougar goal line, once in the second when the ball reached the 33-yard line, were stopped by the Cougars' forward wall. Southern California lost its sensational Dave Davis, the "mighty mite" triple-threat star, in the first quarter when he went out of the game with an injured rib. Washington State's answer to Davis, Ed Goddard, went out of the game in the fourth, also with injuries. Both distinguished themselves as expected. U. S. C. made 12 first downs to the visitors' six, but most of them were made in their own territory. The Trojans outrushed and outpassed the Cougars according to the cold statistics, but the yardage was missing when a score was needed. The slippery condition of the field handicapped both teams, and whatever edge Washington State earned in punting was due to the powerful foot of Ed Goddard. He averaged 42 yards a kick. Davis' own first play of the game made 33 yards on a spinner, tearing to the Cougar 48 after eluding the alert W. S. C. secondary of Bob Fletcher, Carl Littlefield and Roger Dougherty. Forced to punt, he put the ball out on the Cougar 3 yard stripe. Goddard's flying feet were seldom able to get a hold on the ground, and he failed to terrorize the Trojans as he did a year ago.

OREGON CRASHES TO 13-0 WIN OVER FUMBLING IDAHO

Webfeet, Menaced By Scoreless Tie, Rally In Final Quarter—Slim Crowd Attends.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17.—(P)—The Oregon Webfoots, frightened into action by the menace of a scoreless tie, presented a handful of spectators with a fourth-quarter rally and shouldered their way to a 13 to 0 victory over the University of Idaho at Multnomah stadium today. Out of the danger of an Idaho score, stopped by fumbles almost on top of the goal line, the Webfoots jammed on the pressure and ended whatever hope the Vandals had of scoring. Two fumbles in the fourth period set Idaho back from the Oregon seven-yard line to the 18, where Oregon took possession on downs. A sharp Webfoot running attack pushed the ball to the 40. Then out of a pile of waving arms and kicking legs, Bob Braddock, Oregon's left halfback, jammed through the Idaho left tackle out over to the right and sprinted 60 yards to a touchdown. Nicholson's attempted conversion was wide. The Vandals, thoroughly unnerved, took to fumbling again. Shortly after the Oregon kickoff, Rex Willard, who went into the backfield for the brilliant Harold Rolse, fumbled on his own 19. John Yerby, alert Webfoot end, recovered. On the first play halfback Jimmy Nicholson swung wide around the Vandal right end to step across the goal untouched. Nicholson kicked the extra point from placement. Nicholson's pass to Bradock in the second period for a five-yard gain represented the Webfoots' only completed throw this season. Clarence Devlin, who took Earl Ritzheimer's place in the Idaho backfield, turned in one of the most brilliant individual plays of the game. A few moments before the end of the first half he snagged an Oregon pass on his own five and sprinted to the Oregon 25 before he was downed. Idaho failed to capitalize on the threat and a weak attempt at a field goal from placement was the final result of Devlin's 70-yard run. The summary:

INSPIRED UCLANS HAND CALIFORNIA A 17-6 DRUBBING

Berekeley, Calif., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Out of the air by rifting passes and a trusty kicking toe, the Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles snatched their greatest football victory today, a 17-to-6 rout of their so-called "big brothers"—the University of California Bears.

Actually the scoring pass and point conversion in the first period decided the game. It was a straight, sharp throw from Harold Hirschon, who replaced Bill Spaulding, Jr., at left half early in the contest, to right end, George Schroeder. The ball was on the 34-yard line. Schroeder outmaneuvered the California secondary, caught the ball in the clear and ran five yards to score. Bob Williams, fullback, place-kicked the extra tally. Late in the fourth period, the same throwing and receiving combination worked aerial trickery almost similar for the second touchdown. It was good for a total gain of 24 yards, Schroeder catching the ball over the goal line. This time Walt Schell, substitute fullback, added the extra point with a placekick. It between the two Bruin touchdowns, Fullback Williams gave his team an extra three points with a field goal which split the uprights from a slight angle. The Bruins held the ball on California's 16 when Williams dropped back for the try. His toe met the oval exactly on the 24-yard line. Thirty thousand fans cheered in a tremendous ovation. California, pre-season favorites to at least tie for the Pacific coast conference championship this season, turned in a dismal brand of play almost throughout the game. Only twice were the Bears able to cross the midfield mark, the first time in the third quarter which brought them their lone touchdown. It was a somewhat fluky score for the Bears in which the Bruins aided by their own streak of poor playing.

NEBRASKA DOWNS INDIANA 13 TO 9

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 17.—(AP)—An inspired Nebraska football team, nine points behind at the half, wrested a 13-to-9 triumph from the Indiana Hoosiers before a Dads' day crowd of 31,000 fans in Memorial stadium here today. The Hoosiers played the Cornhuskers to a standstill in the first two periods, but Nebraska came back after the intermission and marched irresistibly to two touchdowns.

UPSETS EXPLODE TITLE HOPES OF PITT, PRINCETON

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Duquesne university expelled the Pitt Panthers' hopes for a Ross Bowl game today with a sensational 7-to-0 victory over Jock Sutherland's hitherto unbeaten and unscored upon team. A 72-yard-run by Matsik to a touchdown in the second period settled a bitter battle between the neighborhood rivals.

FRANKLIN FIELD, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—(AP) Princeton was knocked from the ranks of the undefeated and untied today by a fighting, never-say-die Penn team, 7-0, before 60,000 spectators in sun-bathed Franklin Field. BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Yale capitalized the breaks today to beat Navy, 12 to 7, before a crowd officially put at 43,000 in the municipal stadium. Capt. Larry Kelley of Yale led the way for Clint Frank to tally his second and decisive touchdown, in the third quarter, by kicking a fumble by Navy's Sned Schmidt to within three yards of the Navy goal. The Sailors outrushed the Eli's but lost the game as a consequence of their own mistakes in scoring range.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Army's supposed air-minded Cadets ploughed through the stadium's mud and rain to gain a 22-0 victory over Harvard today before a drenched crowd of 25,000. All five touchdowns were made overland, two by "Monk" Meyer, the elusive lightweight; a pair by Quarterback Bob Kapner, and the fifth by Jim Craig, all on plunges from inside the Crimson's five-yard line. Score by periods:
Army 0 7 0 0—7
Harvard 0 0 0 0—0
Army scoring—Touchdowns, Kapner, Meyer, Meyer; point from try after touchdown.
Harvard scoring—Touchdowns, Cruver, Haines, Cain; point from try after touchdown, Logg.

PETE EXPECTING REVENGE OF GANG

Good old Pete Belcastro! Never one to doubt his own prowess, his latest gem is the assertion, made yesterday, that if the other five wrestlers in the ring with him at Monday's battle royal insist upon ganging him he will not only defend himself but do so with such finesse that he will be the only muscle mangle left in the arena. Pete's suspicion that the others, Les Wolfe, Billy Burns, Jimmy Goodrich, Joe Hubka and Gene Moore will probably concentrate all their efforts toward disposing of him early in the match is well founded. None of the five care much about the overbearing Belcastro manner and each will be more than willing to take a poke at him if the opportunity provides itself. At the same time Les Wolfe doesn't rest on too solid ground. Several of the grapplers have been the recipients of Wolfe's recent dirty work and they will be more than happy to divide him up and eat him alive but to dispose of Wolfe they have to eliminate Belcastro first, and to dispose of Belcastro they have to eliminate Wolfe, and either way the job will be a tough one. Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

ASHLAND LOSES TO BUNGLING BATTLE

GRANTS PASS, Oct. 17.—(P)—Grants Pass and Yreka high school football teams treated the crowd to a dud and blunder comedy of errors here last night when the locals won their fifth consecutive game of the year 27 to 0. Some features: Yreka blocked Trimble's punt. The kicker backed up, caught the ball in the air, and started to run around end but was tackled. A Yrekan attempted to kick off but missed the ball. The man holding the pigskin finally kicked it for a few yards as it lay on the ground. Grants Pass was penalized 10 times and lost 95 yards, while Yreka lost ten yards on two penalties. Most of the penalties were for offside or backfield in motion. The locals fumbled 11 times and recovered 15 times, losing 54 yards. Yreka fumbled seven times, recovered three, and lost one yard. Half the punts were blocked, one time being recovered in the end zone for a score. Willamette Wins CALDWELL, Oct. 17.—(P)—Willamette's powerful grid machine rolled up 47 points here last night in shutting out the College of Idaho.
