SONS GYMNASIUM DEDICATED BEFORE 800 SPECTATORS

Dr. Redford Presides At Ceremonies New $54,800 Structure—John H. Fuller Speaker Of The Evening.

Dedication ceremonies of the new Southern Oregon Normal school gymnasium in Ashland were held last night before a crowd of approximately 800 citizens and students, the largest gathering Ashland has seen for several months. The building, a PWA project built at a cost of $54,800, was completed early this summer but dedication was postponed until after the fall school term was under way.

Dr. Walter Redford, president of the normal school, presided during the address, which was followed by a basketball game between the SONS team and a squad composed of southern Oregon coaches, which demonstrated practical advantages of the new basketball court where the affair took place. The coaches suffered a 51-32 defeat at the hands of the SONS.

Sound amplifiers carried words of the speakers to all parts of the large auditorium, where spectators could clearly hear the speakers and overflowed into several extra rows of seats. Mayor O. Wiley opened the program, congratulating officials of the school and expressing the appreciation of the city of Ashland for the presence of the school. Speaking of the new building, he declared it to be an excellent example of Southern Oregon Normal school. Robert W. Ruhl, member of the state board of education, was introduced by Dr. Redford.

Following Mayor Wiley was Frank J. Van Dyke, president of the Ashland chamber of commerce, who pointed out that the new gym and the investment it presented insured the permanent location of the school in Ashland, and stated that business and professional men of the city greatly appreciated the advantages it will bring to Ashland and the benefits which will accrue to SONS athletes.

John H. Fuller, Ashland postmaster and former member of the state board of regents for normal schools, was the principal speaker of the evening. "Objects of higher education," Fuller explained, "are to provide mental efficiency and physical ability. Sound and healthy bodies are a necessary complement to mental capacity and ability to achieve success and therefore all efforts to promote that ideal and carry it to logical conclusion are a necessary and vital part of an educational system."

Buildings important. Continuing, he pointed out the importance of modern buildings to a college. The new building, he said, must be devoted to all members of the student body and not to any small group or for any purpose in which the majority of students cannot participate. He also spoke of the contrast between the new building and the old normal school which was located in what is now the Bellevue district when he first came to Ashland 28 years ago.

Miss Virginia Hales dean of women and director of women's activities at the school, also addressed the group outlining some of the physical education activities now possible for women students with the opening of the new gym. She stated that a lack of such recreation facilities has been a great disadvantage to women's activities. Claiming that he appreciated the new gymnasium more than did anyone else, Gene Eberhart, SONS coach and director of athletics, stated that he hoped to install a full gymnasium program for the entire student body. "I've spent most of my life in gym," Eberhart said, "and it's always been my ambition to step into a building like this and to be able to go ahead and devise a complete recreational and athletic program."

Gas, Gas All the Time, Can't Eat or Sleep

"The gas on my stomach was so bad I could not sleep. Even my heart seemed to hurt. My friend suggested Adierka. The first dose I took brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never feel better." —Mrs. J. S. Miller. Adierka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels while ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowels only. Adierka gives the digestive system a thorough cleaning, bringing out old, poisonous matter that you would not believe was in your system and that has been causing gas, pain, sour stomach, nervousness and headaches for months. Dr. H. L. Shwab, New York, remarks: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adierka greatly reduces bacteria and colon bacilli." Give your bowels a REAL cleansing with Adierka and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and constipation. Jarmin's Drug Store.

Athletics For All Eberhart stated that the slogan "Athletics for All" was to be used in connection with the new plant and that opportunity for recreation will be given to all students and townspeople as well. He described the technical equipment of the building, saying that the basketball court is as large as any playing court on the coast. In addition to the main court, 2 cross courts almost as large are included in the building, so that two games may be played simultaneously. This is expected to greatly facilitate schedules of the annual Class B high school basketball tournament sponsored by the school and held each spring in Ashland.

The Hilltop Shrine band furnished music during the evening, led by Ward V. Croft, of Ashland. During the intermission between the formal program and the basketball game, spectators were shown through the building on a complete inspection of rooms and equipment.

Coaches playing against the school basketball squad were the building's "sketch" O'Connell, of Ashland high school; Gene Eberhart, SONS; William Bowerman, Medford high school; Russell Acheon, Medford junior high; George Hibbard, of Grants Pass, who was scheduled to play with the coaches, was unable to do so and his place was taken by a normal player.

Game lineups are as follows: SONS: Levens, f. 13; Hoyle, f. 13; Hardy, c. 10; McLean, g. 4; Patterson, g. 4; O'Connell, f. 6; Brown, f. 6; Eberhart, c. 6; Bowerman, g. 4; Acheon, g. 1. Substitutes: SONS, Schopf, 3; Dickens, 2; Hess, 2; and Ager, 4; Coehee, Bushong, 2; Culver, 4; Burdon, 5; Woods, Referee, Clyde Young.

On Rialto Bill

A fast-stepping tale of a millionaire twenty-three times over, who had to squander his fortune before he found the right girl, is told in "Spendthrift," which plays at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Thursday on the double feature program with "Shakedown," starring Lew Ayres and Joan Perry.

With the running of the Kentucky Derby as a part of the plot, "Spendthrift" is a comedy-romance revolving around the comeback staged by a wealthy youth after he has run through his fortune. The picture has Henry Fonda, Pat Paterson, Mary Brian and George Barbier in the leading roles.

In "Shakedown," Ayres will be seen as a shy young man in love with a millionaire's daughter, as played by Miss Perry. He can't marry her because he is financially embarrassed, but when the girl is kidnapped by a gang of hush-money racketeers and refuses to pay up, Ayres steps in and cleans up the whole outfit, thus winning the father's consent. Others in the cast are Thurston Hall and George McKay.

ROTARIANS HEAR FOOTBALL COACH

The various types of football formation and the strategy used by "amateur" football teams were the subjects of an interesting talk before the Medford Rotary club today by Coach Bill Bowerman of the Medford high school. The Rotarians, who gathered at Hotel Medford for luncheon today, enjoyed a typical "skull practice" conducted by Coach Bowerman with both offensive and defensive style or plan thoroughly discussed.

The speaker explained the various styles of football employed by other schools in the southern Oregon conference and outlined successful plays used by northern California and southern Oregon football squads.
