Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Motors and specialties led the stock market in a quiet recovery move today that pushed up some of the favorites 1 to 3 or more points, several to new 5-year peaks.

While gains predominated at the close, steels, utilities and an assortment of recent leaders were inclined to hang back. Transfers were around 1,700,000 shares.

The market apparently discovered selective rallying fuel in the flood of highly satisfactory third quarter company reports and other business news.

OLD AGE PAYMENT MEASURE STUDIED BY COUNTY COURT

Ballot Proposal Analyzed And Discussed At Informal Session — Halt In Pension Checks Feared.

The ballot proposal relating to old age assistance was analyzed and discussed at an informal meeting of the Jackson county court in chambers at the courthouse this forenoon. Judge Earl B. Day presided.

The proposal is numbered 300-301 on the ballot. It is the bill passed by the last special session of the legislature amending the old age assistance act of 1935. The bill was held in abeyance when a petition was filed ordering a referendum thereon. Meantime old age assistance has been administered under the prior act passed by the regular session of the 1935 legislature.

Under the act now in operation, the age limit for assistance is 70 years. Under this act, it was related, the number receiving old age assistance in Jackson county and the average payment have doubled.

Costing $4,000,000

Old age assistance in Oregon is now costing $4,000,000 a year, it was brought out. Half the expense of old age assistance is paid by the federal government, one-fourth by the state and one-fourth by each county.

"The proposed amendment has popular appeal for those not familiar with conditions," Judge Day said. "It reduces the age limit from 70 to 65, it speaks of relieving counties from contributing to old age assistance and it talks of the federal government matching payments by the state.

Would Halt Pensions

"If the amendment passes, however, it would automatically stop operation of the present law. It would stop the payment of pensions for months at least. We should have to wait for a ruling on its constitutionality and, if it is found constitutional, for a working plan to be developed by the state and the government at Washington. Meantime pensions would cease."

It was brought out at the court session that the amending act was passed hastily by the special legislature under pressure of special groups against the counsel of advisers familiar with the administration of old age assistance. The amendment, it was emphasized, made no provision for funds or appropriations. What would have resulted in chaos, it was said, was averted when the amendment was held up through the referendum on which the public is now required to vote.

FLYING MOLLISONS' MARITAL SHIP HITS UNFAVORABLE WINDS

CHELSFIELD, England, Oct. 21.—(AP)—With a broken nose but a firm heart, Mrs. Amy Mollison announced today the famous "flying Mollisons" will set solo marital courses hereafter.

She crashed her plane near here yesterday, wrecking the ship and fracturing her nose.

"I've heard rumors about Jim for the past month," she said, referring to her husband. "Well, Jim is going his way and I am going mine. Hereafter, I shall fly under my own name as Amy Johnson."

Amy's "forced landing" from domestic skyways left the status of two other members of the aerial triangles still up in the air—Jim Mollison and Mrs. Beryl Markham, the blonde English aviator who attempted a solo flight from England to New York and crashed in Nova Scotia, Sept. 5.

Mrs. Markham described Mollison as a "very good friend," but British newspapers, at the time of the flight, hinted of a more romantic attachment.

Barton McLane took an insurance examination immediately after playing a heavy emotional scene. His blood pressure registered 180. Normally it's 115.

FOREST CONSERVATION DEPENDS UPON PUBLIC

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21.—(AP)—C. J. Buck, regional forester, in an address at a public forum here, said progress in forest conservation in Oregon depends entirely upon the forcefulness of public opinion in regard to the manner in which forests should be protected.

Buck said national forests already were on a sustained yield basis but that these lands will not be sufficient to supply the lumber industry in the future. He also pointed out that 600,000 acres of forest land are held by counties and said the question of their administration should be settled at once.

OCTOBER COURT TERM OPENS NEXT MONDAY; TO DRAW GRAND JURY

October term of the circuit court will start October 26, and a jury venire of 31 names has been directed to report at 9:30 a. m. on that date. Selection of a new grand jury will be made Monday morning. The first seven names drawn from the jury box will comprise the grand jury.

Four matters, involving deaths by autos the past four months, on the Pacific highway in this county, will be brought to attention of the new grand jury, District Attorney George A. Codding has announced.

Inquiry will be made into the death of Avis Brood, 14, Central Point girl bicyclist, killed last August, when she was assertedly struck by an auto driven by Z. J. Riggs of Hillsboro, Ore.; the death of Edith Barry of in which she das riding plunged off the Pacific highway near Jackson Hot Springs. Maurice French is held as the driver of this car. The third case is that of Lester Messal, held for the alleged hit-run death near Talent last September of Everett Thompson, a highway pedestrian.

The auto accident on the north Pacific highway last June, in which a Miss Riggs was injured, will also be investigated by the grand jury. Miss Riggs was riding in a small model car, reputedly driven by Delbert Tremaine, when it collided with a meat truck.

Harry Warren, the movie song writer, was a piano player and general handy man at the Vitagraph studios in Brooklyn when the late Larry Semon made comedies there, 20 years ago.

Shaindel Kalish, who is Mrs. Charles Freeman in private life, called herself Ann Preston for her first film and Judith Blake for her second.

Wallace Beery still holds the record for catching the largest black sea bass with rod and reel. He is officially credited with hooking a 515 pounder, in 1916, off Catalina Island.

Gail Patrick's ambition after pictures is still to be governor of her native Alabama.

FOOD TURNED TO BLOATED MASS IN LADY'S STOMACH! HERBS GAVE QUICK RELIEF

Years of Misery From Gassy, Swollen Stomach—Up 4 to 5 Times a Night With Kidneys —"Was in Despair Before I Found Van-Tage!"

"I feel I owe so much to VAN-TAGE that it is a privilege to endorse it," writes Mrs. A. E. Tuel, socially prominent Oregon lady. Read her statement below.

"My food seemed to turn into a rock inside my stomach. The suffering was almost beyond endurance!" Rescued from the shadows of sickness and pain, Mrs. A. E. Tuel, socially prominent Oregon lady, tells her amazing experience with Van-Tage—the new Internal Medicine made from Nature's Own Herbs and other Scientific Ingredients, now available here at Young's Drug Store. This lady's experience has been shared by THOUSANDS of other men and women, who have recorded their story in SWORN STATEMENTS. Could greater proof possibly be given of the power of Van-Tage?

Read carefully every word of Mrs. Tuel's remarkable testimonial. Her address is 2900 Brooks St., Salem, Ore., in which city she has lived for many years, and is widely known throughout Oregon.

Food Lay in Stomach Like Rock After Her Meals

"For years I was in an awful condition," said Mrs. Tuel. "After meals I would bloat up with gas and it would feel like my food had turned into a rock inside of me. I was simply in misery. Was also a victim of sluggish kidneys, in fact, they got me up four or five times EVERY NIGHT, which broke up my sleep and rest COMPLETELY.

"I tried many medicines, but will frankly say that nothing did me any good, and I was in despair. Then, recently, I began to hear about Van-Tage and what it was doing for so many people. So I got it and started taking it. And I will say that it was JUST WHAT I NEEDED. It took hold of my trouble at once. It worked the awful gas and bloating and hard, rocky feeling from my stomach organs and now I can eat and not suffer afterward, and it sopped my kidney sluggishness and I can go to bed and sleep all night without having to get up. This medicine did a thousand times more for me than they said it would. I never saw anything like it, and I can't praise it enough after the way it helped me!"
