American Legion Auxiliary

By Grace Holmes

As election day approaches we are reminded that it is our duty to vote as each of us has a precious heritage to preserve. Many of the difficulties confronting us today can be attributed to indifferent and indolent citizens. The current crucial issues facing us today should be of sufficient importance to dispel the apathy of every voter.

We need only look abroad upon this troubled world to be eternally grateful for the precious opportunities we, in America, have enjoyed for 150 years. With democracies falling and dictators arising in many parts of the world, we must be ever alert to the dangers threatening our liberty. Down through the years our country has been a haven of refuge for the oppressed of all lands; ours has been the one remaining bulwark for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. There can be no greater service to the world than that we hold and strengthen our self-government, which we must do by conscientious exercise of our privilege and duty to vote.

On October 28, Monday evening, the junior auxiliary of Medford will be entertained with a Halloween party. All junior members are receiving an invitation and all auxiliary members and visitors are urged to be present to enjoy the evening.

The meeting place is to be at the Baldwin piano shop (hall in the rear).

A membership in the American Legion auxiliary means that you are helping to serve your community, state and nation in several ways. The most important service is helping to care for the World War disabled who still fill the government hospitals. There are more than 30,000 in hospitals whose normal life ceased during the war. These are confined in beds without sight or perhaps without legs or arms. Also many are confined in the hospitals for the insane. Our first duty is to see that they receive the little things that mean so much to those that are ill. Our regular contribution to the hospital fund of the American Legion auxiliary helps to provide these comforts. Your membership makes this possible.
