

F. R. LAUDS PWA; LONDON UPHOLDS LABOR'S RIGHTS

Both Candidates Center Efforts in New York City Vicinity — Landon Says Dems Using Spoils System

By the Associated Press.

On the go in populous areas of New York and New Jersey after hour after hour, President Roosevelt and Governor Landon were cheered and heard by thousands today as their campaigns approached a finale.

Celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the status of liberty, the president pledged himself, near his base, to seek "an even better home for liberty." His schedule took him to another brief address in the metropolis before reaching his town house for dinner. In Brooklyn earlier he praised the PWA program as a help toward "better American citizenship."

Landon Upholds Labor. In Newark, en route to New York for a major speech tomorrow night, Governor Landon again upheld the right of labor to bargain collectively. He said an effort was being made to introduce into American labor ranks "the European system of political alliances which invariably victimizes labor," and added that this would fail.

Recalling recent controversy over James Roosevelt's remarks concerning the future of NRA principles, a reporter asked the president late yesterday whether he would favor revising NRA.

The chief executive smilingly referred the interrogator to his present and past speeches. A check of his addresses to date showed that he has praised NRA, but has not indicated whether he contemplated any new moves to revise some such undertaking.

In a nationally broadcast address at Pittsburgh last night, Governor Landon asserted the New Deal was guilty of the "most open, the most crude, and the most brutal use of the spoils system this country has ever seen." He pledged "a good, old-fashioned housecleaning . . . when I am elected."

Lewis Hits Landon. Meantime, John L. Lewis, union leader supporting Mr. Roosevelt, declared in a New York speech that "Landon is the most dangerous and weak man in all America. He has sold himself to lords and masters . . . the DuPonts."

At Chicago, former Senator James A. Reed denounced President Roosevelt on the ground that he "led the Democratic party into the slaughter house and had it murdered." He also said "Roosevelt doesn't know the value of a dollar for he never earned one."

Attorney General Cummings declared that opposition to the New Deal comes from those who "think primarily in terms of dollars" instead of "in terms of humanity."

Browder Hard Put For Speaking Hall

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 28.—(AP)—The Communist party, which complained that Buffalo halls had been barred to its presidential candidate, Earl Browder, announced today it finally had obtained the use of a hall. Browder will speak tomorrow night.

He will be escorted to the speaking place—The Main Recreation Hall—by parading Communists. Police have assigned men to duty in connection with the parade but Alexander Guss, Communist organizer, said the Communists had not asked for special guards.

MISS OTTERDALE RETURNING NOV. 3

Miss Myrtle Otterdale, chief operator for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in this city, who is vacationing in Mexico City, will return to southern Oregon November 3, according to a letter received by her mother, Mrs. Marie Otterdale.

Describing Mexico City as an interesting, colorful place where red carnations are 10 cents for four dozen and bull fights the popular diversion for Sundays, Miss Otterdale reviewed a visit to the Borda Gardens. In Taxco her tourist group inspected cathedrals and other famous buildings.

Miss Otterdale stated in her letter that she was thoroughly enjoying the trip and that the tour which was arranged for her by the Southern Pacific offices in Medford was exceptionally satisfactory. She expected to arrive in San Francisco November 1 en route to this city.

STOCKS INJURED; OUT OF LINEUP

Medford high school's Black Tornado footballers will go into the crucial Saturday tilt against Klamath Falls minus a veteran lineman. Ardo Stocks, first-string center, will be out of the fray with a cracked collar bone suffered in last week's game with Grants Pass. Coach Bill Bowerman stated today. The injury just came to light today, and while not serious, definitely eliminated Stocks from the list of those facing the Pelicans.

No other injuries had shown up today in Bowerman's squad, which is reported in top condition. Stocks is to return to the lineup after several days' rest.

NOTED SWING BAND FOR ARMISTICE DAY DANCE

Medford Post No. 18, American Legion, has signed up the outstanding, and, in Portland, the only swing band, for appearance Armistice Day, November 11. The band consists of 14 pieces and includes six entertainers for a big floor show.

The entertainers and part of the band were the main attraction at the Roseburg convention of the American Legion this year, being featured at the Streets of Paris in that city. This concession was packed from early afternoon until the last bugle was blown on the last hour of the convention.

here dropped quickly in expectation of the steup. Chief wharfinger John Sullivan reported 18 ships were at docks, 11 having arrived last night.

Fruit Flow at Peak Sullivan said the daily average movement of cargoes was between 25,000 and 30,000 tons, but he could not estimate the monetary value.

The movement of canned goods and fresh fruits is at its peak, heavy cargoes being destined for the east coast and European ports.

The negotiations committees of the sailors union of the Pacific coast and the coast committee of shipowners were to meet, but a stumbling block to any progress was the union's demands for an entirely new agreement, the principal demands being cash for overtime and wage raises.

The shipowners took the position that they already have agreed to an indefinite extension of present contracts and awards. Harry Lundberg, secretary-treasurer of the sailors union, said he did not know how many vessels were tied up, and would not comment on the situation otherwise.

TOWNSENDITES TO FEAST ON FRIDAY

By Geo. Iverson.

One of those famous 5th Friday Townsend meetings occurs next Friday. Commencing with a 6 o'clock pot luck supper. Every woman is expected to bring a covered dish of whatever she wishes to bring, baked beans, potato salad, meat loaf, meat pie, pot roast, chicken, rabbit, horse, fruit salad, cake pie, sandwiches, etc. Mr. Oliver says it will be O. K. for everyone to bring fried chicken.

The men are to do all the serving and are to bring an apron and a dish towel; any woman caught monkeying around the kitchen will be kicked out. Everyone is to bring their own plate, cup, knife, fork, spoon, etc. There will be a small charge to everyone. Supper will be followed by a political rally and entertainment, at which the entire sample ballot will be discussed and cussed, mostly cussed; positively no partisan wrangling is to be allowed.

Townsend club No. 2 of Medford has charge of the supper and club No. 1 has charge of the program.

Townsend clubs of Jackson county have all been invited and many of them will attend.

NASH, KELVINATOR COMPANIES MERGE

KENOSHA, Wis., Oct. 26.—(AP)—At 72, when most big business men eyed pipe, slippers and a quiet place in the country, ruddy-faced Charles W. Nash, the motor magnate, was busy today on a new expansion of his huge industrial holdings and a new phase in his colorful career.

Directors of Nash motors and of Kelvinator corporation of Detroit yesterday approved a merger of the two companies, to be known as the Nash-Kelvinator corporation, with Nash as chairman of the board of directors. Combined assets are $55,000,000.

The venture spreads the Nash influence again to Michigan, where a job in a cherry orchard put him on the path to fame in the automobile industry. Nash has turned out 1,100,000 cars with aggregate sales amounting to $1,067,000,000. Company officials recently announced orders on hand in advance of the announcements of new 1937 models were the largest in history.

PARADE TO BOOST MILITARY TRAINING

By W. H. Payne

Medford post, American Legion, and Jackson County Reserve Officers association are joining in preparations for a national defense and security demonstration to be made Saturday afternoon. It is to be in the form of a motorcar parade to circulate on Medford streets and to visit Phoenix, Talent, Ashland, Jacksonville, and Central Point.

Particular purpose is to continue military instruction and training as a required course for male students at Oregon law supported institutions of higher education, an issue on which this state is to vote in the general election.

Formation of the demonstration will be at Medford city park. To start at 2:30 p. m.

Everyone interested in preserving the present system of required military work at the universities is invited to join in.

The proposition on the ballots is to eliminate a "yes" vote will be against training, to retain it vote 309 X No.

2 ARMY OFFICERS ARE GUESTS HERE

Col. Jacob E. Fickel, air officer of the 9th corps area with headquarters at the San Francisco Presidio, and Col. Leland H. Stanford, assistant to the corps area signal officer, were entertained at lunch in the Hotel Medford today by Mayor George W. Porter, Max Peirce, president of the local chapter of the National Aeronautic association, and A. H. Banwell, manager of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

The two colonels arrived at municipal airport at noon in a Douglas observation plane from Hamilton field, Cal. They continued north this afternoon to Fort Lewis, Wash., where Col. Fickel was to observe maneuvers now being held by the Hamilton field air force.

Cadet H. P. Bronson, piloting a Douglas amphibian from Hamilton field to Fort Lewis, called at municipal airport this afternoon to have his ship refueled.

ASHLAND LEGION WILL AID ARMISTICE FETE

AMERICAN LEGION HONORS NAVY WITH SPECIAL PROGRAM

Navy Day was observed at last night's meeting of Medford post No. 18, American Legion with Chief Petty Officer E. M. West as speaker of the evening. An interesting story of the origin of Navy Day was given by Mr. West who stated that on Oct. 27, 1775 the first continental congress set aside the first funds for an American navy. He also reviewed recent years in which progress has sometimes been seriously hampered by lack of funds for development essential if the United States is to keep pace with the naval standards of foreign powers.

This is particularly true of the naval air forces, according to the speaker, who concluded his remarks with the suggestion "Let's make every day 'Navy Day.'"

Dr. B. G. Badley of Grants Pass who served in the navy during the World War also spoke telling of the observation held in Grants Pass yesterday in which a large gathering of school students was addressed by representatives of various veteran organizations. In this connection he spoke of the need for educating the students in proper respect for the colors, many of the present generation being ignorant of the proper salute of the flag. He also advised that talks were "being made in some schools under the guise of 'Peace' that smacked strongly of pacifism and communism which should be combated by veteran organizations and all true American citizens."

Adjutant Lee Garlock reported on the recent meeting of the state "40 et 8" society held in Eugene Saturday and told of the national safety program sponsored by the legion in which the "40 et 8" is taking an active part. He stated that the Oregon Vulture of which he is grand chief de gave will sponsor the furnishing of suitable uniforms for school patriots to safeguard the school students in various Oregon communities.

Harry Moore reported on the activities of the committee in opposing the Military Training bill which will be voted on Nov. 3rd and said that legion speakers were available to address local service clubs, granges and lodges on the subject. Col. W. H. Payne advised that a public demonstration would be held in Medford and Ashland next Saturday afternoon to assist in educating the public on the various points of the measure.

Horace Bromley suggested a special effort be made, under the head of "community service," to get out a record vote in next Tuesday's election, asking every member to urge all his family and friends to vote without fear "as you will but be sure to vote," is the keynote of the legion's periodic campaign along these lines.

Cass Wymore, chairman of the Armistice Day celebration advised that plans were nearing completion for the "big day" and tickets for all events were now on sale. A special ticket good for all features of the entertainment program has been provided and will greatly facilitate matters for the public as well as the legionnaires.

The annual Armistice ball promises to be a huge affair with music and floor show by one of the finest orchestras in the northwest according to Wymore. A special 14-piece dance band with a group of fine entertainers.

His Cooking Fails To Please; He Sues

Charging that his wife criticized his cooking and housework, Harry E. Wheat of Los Angeles filed suit for separate maintenance in a cross-complaint to her divorce action. He explained that since his wife had a teacher's job and he was in poor health and unemployed most of the time, he was willing to take care of the house. (Associated Press Photo)

Wheat has been engaged for the occasion and tickets for the event will soon be available.

Post Commander J. F. Fliegel told of the plan for a series of monthly meetings which will feature entertainment by various past commanders of the post and promised some excellent programs for the ensuing months.

TO HOLD SERVICES FOR CAPT. HOWARD IN ASHLAND SUNDAY

He enlisted in the United States army in 1917 when he was a student at the University of Arizona. He remained in the army after the war and in subsequent years commanded several air corps fields at various times. He also served as commander of the 11th bombardment squadron and at the time of his death was communications officer at Langley field, Virginia.

In 1932 Capt. Howard was awarded the Mackay trophy for the most outstanding achievement in the air service for that year, having carried food to the starving Navajo Indians near Winslow, Arizona. He visited Medford, where for several years he once resided with his family, last year when he supervised installation of federal radio equipment at the municipal airport.

Capt. Howard is survived by his parents and his sister.

policy henceforth will be complete independence, not a return to pre-war neutrality.

France and Germany both will be assured that no army will use Belgium as a base of attack either, he said.

Spanish fascists shoved their outposts today within 10 miles of Madrid, almost within range of their heaviest artillery.

While the capital struggled to organize for its defense against a rising tide of confusion and dissension within and an encroaching wave of fascists on its outskirts, the insurgent command jubilantly drew plans for a triumphant entry.

Fascist leaders, having taken five new villages and having advanced their vanguard to a point 16 miles south of beleaguered Madrid, announced they were ready for the final thrust.
