Howard Crawford Married Tuesday

Stopping here yesterday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard Crawford, whose marriage was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of Wendell Van Loan in Eugene, Ore. The bride was formerly Miss Leota Reitz, daughter of Arthur Reitz of Junction City, Ore. Mr. Crawford, a ranger-naturalist at Crater Lake national park, is well known here.

The double-ring service was read by Dr. Victor F. Morris, dean of the school of economics at the University of Oregon. Attending the couple were Miss Alice Holmbeck, of this city, and Ernest C. Moll, professor of literature at the university.

The bride has been attending the university and spent the greater part of the summer at Crater Lake. Mr. Crawford is the son of Mrs. L. H. Crawford, Sr., of Wellesville, Ohio. He has been in this area for some time and has many friends who will be interested to hear of his marriage.

The young couple stopped here en route to Klamath Falls, from where they will continue to the lake resort. They will reside at the lake for a short time.

GIRL SCOUT WORK EXEMPLIFIED FOR PUBLIC INTEREST

In observance of national Girl Scout Week now in progress, local members are joining with others throughout the country in special efforts to exemplify and illustrate to the public seven phases of Girl Scout activity, namely, homemaking, handicrafts and camping, citizenship, community service, thrift, hostess and health.

"Homemaking, to a Girl Scout, is a delightful game, leaders state, with every scout learning at least the rudiments of cooking and housekeeping, how to give simple first aid, to sew and to take care of the younger members of the family, and to do these tasks cheerfully and willingly. They are laying the foundation for smooth-running, cheerful homes.

As indication of the trust Medford parents place in Girl Scouting, 119 girls from this area attended summer camp at Camp McLoughlin this summer. To the girl who goes to camp, life is vigorous, adventurous and poetic. She lives health of body and mind and tastes the experience of a balanced day-work, play, rest, co-operation and companionship. Campers must learn to hold up their own end of whatever activity they are engaged in, and the child who has gone to camp for the first time returns home more resourceful and more self-reliant.

Girl Scouts believe that it isn't necessary to be a gray-head and sit on the borough council to do one's

MRS. R. A. NEWLAND NAMED ORGANIZER POSTAL AUXILIARY

Mrs. R. A. Newland has just received notice of her appointment as state organizer for the national ladies' auxiliary to the National Association of Letter Carriers.

She received the appointment from the national president, Mrs. Minnie Bartley of Omaha, Neb., through the recommendation by unanimous vote of the state delegates in convention assembled at Klamath Falls in September.

Mrs. Newland has taken an active part in her state auxiliary since its formation several years ago and was one of the few who helped to organize the Oregon state auxiliary, being made temporary treasurer at the time.

She has held the state presidency for two consecutive terms, being elected in 1934 at Medford, and re-elected at Baker in 1935, serving until the Klamath Falls convention last month. Through her efforts the local auxiliary, Rogue River Auxiliary No. 367, was organized and became one of the charter members of the state organization.

The success she has achieved in organization work, and wide acquaintance throughout the state, has won for her the highest honors within the gift of the state auxiliary. She is now a national officer, having charge of the national organization work in Oregon, and will immediately appoint six deputies in different parts of the state to assist in the work.

MOUNTING PROFITS PAINT PICTURE OF BUSINESS REVIVAL

Statisticians warned that in noting percentages of increase accounts must be taken of transfers from loss to the black ink side of the ledger.

Net operating income of 40 railroads rose 19.6 per cent in September over that of a year ago, with $48,873,000 earned against $40,873,000. Estimated net operating income of class one railroads was placed at $17,000,000 for the month against $13,600,000 in September, 1935, a 100 per cent rise.

Wage Increase Factor
Some less optimistic features must be taken into consideration in analyzing the favorable figures. Wall street men warned, however,

Possible wage increases throughout the steel and some other industries they pointed out, may have a bearing on future earnings. Among the railroads, predicted higher maintenance and operating costs may cut the rate of improvement. Railroad freight surcharges accounting for about 4 per cent of gross railroad operating income, expires December 31.

Another factor emphasized was that many plants, to take care of increased business or to overcome depression-time deterioration, must make heavy expenditures for expansion and improvements.

Auto Output to Expand

Automobile manufacturers expect to increase production by 10 per cent in their 1937 lines. Assembly is already sharply advanced.

Domestic cotton consumption in September totaled 630,000 bales, a new September record. In the cotton textile mills, operations were in the neighborhood of 22 per cent ahead of last year, the Association of Cotton Textile Merchants said.

The Tanners' Council of America reported that boot and shoe production this year will be somewhere near 400,000,000 pairs, also a record, and finished leather production thus far is 4 per cent ahead of the similar period in the banner year of 1929.

Domestic production and consumption of the non-ferrous basic industrial metals, copper, zinc and lead, has gone far beyond that of 1935, and domestic and export prices stand today at new five-year high levels.

Building contracts for October were estimated by Standard Statistics Co. to number 27 per cent more than for October last year. Chemical production was estimated at 40 per cent higher.

forming all district councils of the postponement. "Unless by 9 p. m. no satisfactory arrangement is reached the strike will take effect at midnight."

Operations continued in all major coast ports. Federal Conciliator E. H. Fitzgerald predicted:

"Probably there will not be any strike at all."
If a strike is called tonight, union leaders said, it was possible it would take effect only against four major west coast steamship companies. The negotiating committee, which was empowered last week to call the strike, had reached no decision on this point.
May Avert East Tieup.
Such action, observers said, probably would keep a walkout from spreading to the Atlantic coast, where 1000 leftwing seamen meeting in New York voted to join Pacific maritime unions if they struck.
Decision on this point hinged on a meeting between 8 and 10 a. m. between unions and the coast committee of shipowners, headed by T. G. Plant, which last night informed unions further negotiations for new working agreements would be "useless." Union leaders indicated they would submit their proposals direct to company presidents if necessary.
