

MARKET BASKET EMPTIED BY G.O.P. SAYS ROOSEVELT

roduce London at the Madison Square Garden rally tonight. Several campaign speakers and others joined in a furious argument centering around the social security act, with charges and counter-charges of "fraud."

Calls Pension Plan Fraud. William Hard, Republican radio commentator, called the old age pension plan "a deliberate coercive fraud upon youth" while Republican Chairman John Hamilton asserted that the social security money gathered from taxes on wages and payrolls could be used for "boondoggling" or other purposes. He said the money goes into the treasury's general funds, which are at the disposal of congress.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, countered with an assertion the money would be carefully administered and would enable workers "to face old age with a feeling of security." The social security board charged its name was "fraudulently used" as a signature to posters addressed to the attention of workers; while Attorney General Cummings accused some employers of "unconscionable" misstatements about the act.

Speeches Fill Air. Throughout the country, the campaign drove toward its end with a multitude of speeches.

Col. Frank Knox said at La Crosse, Wis., that the Roosevelt administration had curtailed the opportunities of youth and prolonged the depression of the young.

A description of Governor Landon as a "political Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" was given by Secretary McKee, who said "east-bound" Landon stood for different policies than when he was bound west.

Speaking at Springfield, Mass., Father Charles E. Coughlin "challenged" Mr. Roosevelt to "say that, come what may, not one cent for offensive warfare but millions and billions for defense."

Secretary Roper said the "turn back the clock" Republican leadership was seeking to arouse "hysteria" to "another the constructive accomplishments of the Roosevelt administration."

214 ABSENTEE VOTERS RECEIVE BALLOTS FOR JACKSON COUNTY POLL

the ballot is also light. What little there is lies in the non-compulsory military drill bill, making optional, whether a higher institution of learning student shall engage in military drill.

Candidates who have been around the county forecast that if it is a sunny day, 40 percent of the registered 20,077 voters will go to the polls. Bad weather would cut the vote, it is figured. In the 1932 election, with a red-hot county campaign to spur the electorate, approximately 43 percent cast ballots.

Distribution of ballot boxes for Tuesday's election has been started by the sheriff's office. Outlying precincts in the far corners of the county will be served first. Precincts on the floor of the valley or easily accessible will be visited Monday. Delivery will be made early Monday morning to Medford precincts.

Commerce Loses Hopes For Title

PORTLAND, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Commerce high school's undefeated record in the Portland league and its heretofore well-founded aspirations to a championship hit the bottom with a thud when Washington high school marched to a 34 to 0 victory.

It was Washington's first win of the year. The result left Jefferson in sole possession of first place.

FAMED JOCKEY DIES AS RIDING NEAR END

GOVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Mack Garner, one of four brothers who won acclaim as jockeys, has ridden his last race. He died last night in the "home stretch" of his career in the saddle at the age of 36.

TAX LIMITATION CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT FOR SCHOOL DISTRICTS HAVING 100,000 POPULATION—Purpose: To amend the constitution

"... to levy taxes not to exceed 80% of TOTAL *1932 levy ..."

Also Read Voters Pamphlet Page 17

TAX LIMITATION in this title is UNFAIR and MISLEADING to average Voter and intended to DECEIVE YOU that Portland School District will operate for 80% of the 1932 levy. 80% of TOTAL 1936 levy (three separate levies added) will INCREASE taxes by $1,300,000. This is NOT so stated on your ballot.

Portland School census shows rapid decline, over 100 Vacant Rooms with 9,000 less enrolled. INCREASED TAXES ARE UNWARRANTED.

DO NOT permit Portland District to enact SPECIAL LAWS by Statewide vote, or grant SPECIAL PRIVILEGES to tamper with present 5% Tax Limitation Law, observed by ALL OTHER school districts in Oregon.

COMPEL Portland District to remain under full Legislative control as to free state books or other school laws, the same as all other school districts in the State.

COMPEL Portland District to submit special problems of school operation to VOTERS OF ITS OWN DISTRICT ONLY, and thereby maintain HOME RULE THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

SPECIAL COPS ON HALLOWE'N NIGHT

Police Chief Clatus McCredie announced today that special officers will be on duty Friday and Saturday nights to temper the maraudings of children bent on celebrating Halloween in too boisterous a spirit. "We don't care if the kids have a good time," Chief McCredie said, "but we do ask parents to warn their children against the destruction of city property and the personal property of others."

Already street signs have been torn from their moorings, and cement water shut-off covers have been rolled away or broken. McCredie said that such depredations would be looked upon with a disapproving eye, and malefactors will be punished when apprehended.

In reality, Halloween will be Saturday night, but modern kids have incorporated the preceding three nights into an occasion for roasting. Chief McCredie said, dubbing the nights "Clothesline night," "Doorbell night," "Window soaping night," and others.

Board Of Control To Survey Bandon

SALEM, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Members of the board of control and other state officials left here today for Bandon, where an inspection of the fire-torn city and its rehabilitation will be made. The party planned to stop at North Bend tonight, returning to the capitol tomorrow.

In addition to Governor Martin, Secretary of State Earl Snell and State Treasurer Holman, members of the party included Brig.-Gen. Thomas E. Riley, assistant state treasurer; Fred Faulstich, Dan Fry, purchasing agent, and several newspaper men.

Delake Prepares. DELAKE, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Perhaps considering the possibility of meeting a fate similar to Bandon's Delake prepared itself for future fire emergencies with the purchase of a new chemical truck. A volunteer fire department will be organized.
