Adrienne Observes Anniversary Event
 Beginning Monday Adrienne's eleventh anniversary will be celebrated with a presentation of new fall and winter merchandise in a store-wide sale beginning tomorrow morning. All departments will feature attractive ladies apparel and accessories for southern Oregon patrons.
 From a very modest little shop opened eleven years ago on the same street as the present location Adrienne's has shown a steady growth until it is now one of the best known women's specialty stores in this part of the state. Two years ago a second floor was added to Adrienne's store to afford space for a larger stock of ready to wear and to house the large, modern beauty salon. The shoe department was opened at that time by Dr. W. E. Lantz.

Joint Installation Planned for Friday
 By Post, Auxiliary
 The newly elected officers of Crater Lake auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be installed Friday evening at a joint public installation with Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at the armory.
 Preceding the installation ceremonies, a covered dish dinner will be served at 7 o'clock in the basement dining room by the ladies of the auxiliary headed by a committee with Josephine Knox as chairman.
 Members of Walter A. Phillips post and auxiliary, V. F. W. of Ashland and Del Roque post and auxiliary, V. F. W., Grants Pass, have been invited as well as the heads of the different patriotic societies.
 Lillian Flynn, past department officer, will act as installing officer for the auxiliary, and John Snelstrom, senior vice-commander of the department of Oregon, will install the newly elected officers of the post.
 The following have been chosen to fill the offices of the auxiliary for the ensuing year. President, Pauline Wood; senior vice-president, Margaret Ingling; junior vice-president, Chloe Barnhardt; chaplain, Lillian Flynn; treasurer, Lenore Wall; secretary, Jelle Cantfield; guard, Alice Waterman; patriotic instructor, Dorothy Wandreg; color bearers, August Hall, Betty O'Brien, Josephine Knox and Florence Hall; musician, Lenore Wall; and historian, Mildred Taylor.
 A program of musical numbers is being prepared for the intermission between the two installations and dancing will conclude the evening's entertainment.

Members Guests
 Thursday Evening
 Among the many affairs observing Halloween during the past week was the party arranged Thursday evening by Chapter BE, P. E. O., who had their guests members of Chapter A.
 Mrs. George Phythian was hostess for the week at her home on Geneva street. Program arrangements were in charge of Miss Carin Degermark, Miss Eleanor Curry and Miss Winifred Andrews.
 A varied evening of games and appropriate entertainment was presented for the enjoyment of the thirty guests. The affair was one of the first social events of the season for the organization.

Prominent Visitors Here During Week
 Prominent visitors in the valley during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutton, of Santa Monica, Calif., who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Greenleaf, at their home on the Old Stage Road.
 Mr. Hutton was formerly dramatic critic and editor of the Los Angeles Times and the Santa Monica Bay Outlook. He is founder and director of the community theatre in Santa Monica and takes prominent part in production. Mr. Hutton entertained a number of guests at an informal affair by a fire-side reading of a threeact play of his own authorship which he is to produce soon and other dramatic monologues.
 The visitors left yesterday morning for their home. They plan to leave California soon for an extensive tour in South America.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing
 Troop 9
 The Girl Scouts of the west side troop No. 9 sponsored a community program Thursday evening as a feature of Girl Scout week. Bits of Girl Scout history, songs and Halloween skits provided the trimmings to the main part of the program.
 Moving pictures of the buds and flowers of the E. R. Driver home, Mrs.
 Driver, a member of the Medford council and of the west side troop committee, has given time and service generously to scouting activities. The troop wishes to express its appreciation for the co-operation in accepting this program. The Scouts were also assisted by other pupils of the school, the numbers being arranged by Miss Benson, teacher of the upper grades.
 Other features of the Girl Scout week program was a Halloween party for the junior high school troop; hikes by the new Washington and east side troops; a radio broadcast by the Cheshkaney troop of the senior high and a window display in a downtown store.
 Mrs. Kenneth E. Wood, assisted by Mrs. C. B. Cordy, lieutenant, also entertained her troop, No. 6, with a Halloween frolic at her home on South Oakdale avenue.

Girl Scout Troop No. 4 Girl Scout troop No. 4, is planning to start a new project for the next meeting. They are starting Tuesday, Nov. 3, to make purses and bill folds of leather. Capt. Durban, has gladly consented to help the girls which is appreciated greatly.
 Today the troop is going on a hike to earn their pioneering badges, and pass other necessary class requirements. All those expecting to go must be at headquarters at 1 p. m.

Entertain Club Thursday Afternoon
 Members of the Building Bridge club and their guests were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. L. Hunter, who was co-hostess with Mrs. R. L. Lewis.
 Scoring awards went to Mrs. J. E.
 Marshall, Mrs. O. B. Alving and Mrs.
 L. B. Hansen.
 The club will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. P. Naumes on South Oakdale avenue. A special feature of the program will be a display of articles for the bazaars November 20 and 21, according to those in charge.

Prominent Couple Will Mark 50th Anniversary

Scores of Medford and valley friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strang, prominent residents, are preparing to send congratulations to the well-known couple on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary which they will observe Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Strang will be hosts as a family dinner at their home on Medford Heights Tuesday evening and will receive friends during the evening hours from 7 until 10 o'clock.
 Mrs. Strang was formerly Miss Mary Beall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V.
 Beall, pioneer residents of the valley.
 She was born in the old family residence on Beall Lane and has spent her entire life in the valley.
 Mr. Strang came to Medford from Portland in 1880 when the first railroad was laid through this section.
 He was connected with the railroad for a few years and then went into

Marriage Unites Popular Couple
 Of interest to residents of the Rogue River valley was the marriage of Miss Dorothy Douglas and Jay Gliese which was solemnized on October 11 in Sacramento, Calif. After the ceremony the couple made a wedding trip through the west before returning to Grants Pass, where they are making their home.
 The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Douglas, former Sacramento residents who now live in Grants Pass. Mr. Douglas being a retired banker. She is a graduate of Sacramento Junior college and is affiliated with Sigma Phi Kappa sorority.
 Mr. Gliese was formerly with the Standard Oil Company of California here and is now associated with the same company in Grants Pass.

American Legion Auxiliary
 By Grace Holmes
 Members of the auxiliary are reminded of the sewing club meeting to be held Monday evening, November 2, at the welfare room over the U. S. National bank at 7:30. A large attendance is requested.
 Don't forget to vote on Tuesday, November 3, as it is so truly said by one of our greatest statesmen Thomas Jefferson: "The basic principle of American citizenship is that he who enjoys its rights and privileges must assume responsibility for their preservation." If we would preserve and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy we must assume our just obligations at the ballot box. The whole plan of our democracy presupposes that the whole people shall participate in the selection of its officials, the determination of its policy and the maintenance of its ideals. Anything else involves government by the minority.
 Your membership in the American Legion auxiliary helps to make the community in which you live a better place to live, for throughout the country aid is being given through the welfare branch of the auxiliary to needy families of the World War veteran and also many of our auxiliary members are devoting their time to Girl Scout troops and other such moral and health building organizations. Each year through the auxiliary girls are sent to camps and donations are sent to various clinics to aid in research work. Your membership makes it possible to do these things. Our watchword is service.
 We are truly a service organization in time of peace as well as in time of war.
