MAJOR PARTISANS VOICE CONFIDENCE ON EVE OF BALLOT

back with a declaration that without hesitation he could predict an "absolute minimum" of 320 electoral votes for Governor Alf M. Landon, only 266 being necessary to elect. Other Republican campaigners also said there was a "victory tide" for Landon.

Roosevelt Busy. Though his more formal campaigning was over, President Roosevelt permitted himself little rest today. He planned to make a tour of his own Dutchess county, and two other New York counties, then speak tonight to neighbors from a Poughkeepsie balcony, and to the nation from Hyde Park.

On Saturday night, at Madison Square Garden, he proclaimed that the issue was the preservation of the 1932 victory for "restoration of American democracy." He said forces favoring government by "organized money" were "unanimous in their hate of me—and I welcome the hatred."

His 20,000 mile trek through the nation finished, Governor Landon rested at Topeka, Kan., before beginning the final campaign activities. He will make a 15-minute address to the nation tonight, then enroute for his home town of Independence, where he will vote. By tomorrow night he will be back in Topeka to receive the returns.

Landon Defies Issue. The governor wound up his formal campaigning Saturday night with a speech at St. Louis declaring that the traditional American form of government is at stake in the balloting and that the New Deal has "tried to run from its record instead of on its record." Recovery is retarded, he said, because "enterprise and initiative are afraid of the present administration."

Gov. Landon in a press conference, said today "the plain inference" of President Roosevelt's Madison Square speech was that "you're going to have the NRA, AAA and everything else all over again."

The vice presidential nominees also were on home ground to await election returns. Col. Frank Knox, finishing a 24,000 mile tour, reached Chicago with a statement that it was apparent from Mr. Roosevelt's utterances that there would be "four more years of dictation" if the president "should happen to be re-elected."

Garner Unexcited. Vice President Garner, who made only one speech on a nation-wide hookup during the campaign, planned to get the returns at Uvalde, Tex., though if he follows a long-time habit, they won't keep him out of bed much past 9 p. m.

Both sides issued, confident statements about the congressional contests. Besides electing a president and vice president, the voters will select 35 men for seats in the senate and 432 house members.

(Because of the present Democratic senatorial strength, that party is sure to remain in control of the senate.)

Anti-New Dealers Talk. With both sides laying aside the task of campaign debate, there were only a few scattered campaign pronouncements last night, most of them by anti-New Dealers.

James A. Reed, Democratic former senator from Missouri, continued his attack with a charge that President Roosevelt thinks he has the right to "make himself dictator." Henry Ford declared that the "chief beneficiaries of the New Deal have been the bankers." Father Charles E. Coughlin called Mr. Roosevelt the "upstart president" and the reviver of the heresy of the divine right of kings.

What meaning may be read into a marked jump in the number of registered voters is a question on which there have been many conflicting opinions. Unofficial estimates have placed registrations at $3,427,000, a boost of 8,827,000 as compared with 1932.

Latest figures bore out previous assertions that the campaign would be the costliest in history. Expenditures reported to date have been more than $13,000,000.

Returns May Be Late. The big vote indicated may make the returns later than usual. Moreover, in New York state, one of the states often pivotal in the past, returns are due to be later than heretofore because the poll closing time has been extended three hours, from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m.

Besides the Republican and Democratic standard bearers, other nominees continued active last night. Rep. William Lemke, United States audience a proponent for a vast reclamation project. Dr. P. E. Townsend, reiterating support for Lemke, asked his followers again to vote for Landon in states where Lemke is not on the ballot.

Socialists gathered in a Madison Square Garden rally last night. Norman Thomas criticizes both major parties and declares that only the Socialists present a concrete program for world peace at a time when foreign skies are "black with the clouds of war."

The American Antiquarian Society was organized in 1812, having headquarters at Worcester, Mass.

total vote tomorrow at between 13,000 and 15,000, with fair weather aiding in a heavy outpouring of voters.

Aside from the presidency, only normal interest has been shown in candidates or measures in this section, and with less than the normal amount of oratory. The county, however, has been thoroughly canvassed by all candidates.

Jackson county will vote on the following aspirants for state and county offices:

For state representative: Glenn O. Taylor and William N. McAllister, Republican; Ralph O. Stephenson and James Stevens, Democratic; and Arlet Burton Pomeroy, Independent.

For district attorney: Frank J. Newman, Republican; George A. Coddling, Democratic.

For county treasurer: A. C. Walker, Republican; and Ralph E. Sweeney, Democratic.

For county commissioner: Ralph Billings, Republican; Clarence B. Pankey, Democratic.

For assessor: J. B. (Bill) Coleman, Republican; L. H. Hansen, Democratic.

For constable (Medford district): Nicholas Young.

In Medford, for city offices, there is only one contest. Mayor George W. Porter and Elmer Leslie are mayoralty candidates.

All Townsdenites that can give car service will report at Townsend Headquarters on South Fir street, which will be headquarters for this work during the day.

Orders for cars can also be sent there. This service is for everyone, whether Townsdenites or not.

You Can Throw Cards In His Face Once Too Often

WHEN you have those awful cramps; when your nerves are all on edge—don't take it out on the men you love. Your husband can't possibly know how you feel for the simple reason that he is a man. A three-quarter wife may be no wife at all if she nags her husband seven days out of every month. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age." Don't be a three-quarter wife like LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

DEEP INTO THE BIG WOODS on a hunting trip. No luxuries here, as "Herb" Walk—famous Maine Guide—makes noon camp and serves up beans, johnny-cake, and coffee hot from the camp-fire coals, winding up with Camels all around. Hearty outdoor appetites welcome the sense of digestive well-being that smoking Camels encourages. "Herb" says: "Anything that goes into the woods with me has to earn its way. Camels more than earn theirs. Camels are a swell thing to have on the trail... a pleasure and a necessity. I've lived on one meal a day—just dried meat and water at that—and I've dined on the best that the state of Maine offers—but no matter what I'm eating, it always tastes better and digests better when I smoke Camels. And I like Camel's cheery 'lift.'"

WHEREVER...WHATEVER...WHENEVER YOU EAT—For Digestion's Sake—Smoke Camels! YOU eat over a thousand meals a year! Many kinds of foods. At all times and places. Sometimes you are free of care—at others, worried and nervous. Yet, thanks to Camels, you can help digestion meet these conditions easily. Smoking Camels speeds up the flow of fluids that start digestion off well and keep it running smoothly. Tension eases. Alkalinity increases. You enjoy your food more—and have a feeling of greater ease and contentment after eating. Mealtime or any time—make it Camels! To millions of men and women, Camels are the last word in cigarette enjoyment. Camels are so mild, they do not get on your nerves—or tire your taste—facts that steady smokers especially appreciate. HOLLYWOOD RADIO TREAT! Camel Cigarettes bring you a FULL HOUR'S ENTERTAINMENT! Benny Goodman's "Swing" Band... George Stoll's Concert Orchestra... Hollywood Guest Stars... and Rupert Hughes presides! Tuesdays—9:30 p.m. E. S. T., 8:30 p.m. C. S. T., 7:30 p.m. M. S. T., 6:30 p.m. P. S. T., over WABC-Columbia Network.

ROUTES 100 TRAINS A DAY, H. M. Wright says: "I have to have healthy nerves and good digestion. So I smoke Camels. They do not get on my nerves. And they insure a sense of well-being at mealtimes. Camels set me right."

ANOTHER CHAMPION SMOKES CAMELS. Dorothy Holderman set a glider record for both men and women. "Imagine how gliding affects digestion!" she says. "But a few Camels at mealtime bring my digestion right back."
