It was announced that the next gathering of the group November 16 will be at the Valley school. JAPANESE MEDIC ADVISES WIGGLE FOR LONGEVITY

Life Really Begins at 100 Says Royal Family Doctor — System of Exercises Given for Health Aid

By PAT McGRADY.
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Katsuzo Nishi, medical consultant to members of the Japanese imperial family, said today that "Americans are wrong. Life really begins at one hundred."
Nishi, who resigned as the chief engineer of the Tokyo and Osaka subway systems a year ago to preach to the world "the Nishi system of health engineering," is completing a series of lectures in the United States.
If his system of exercises is followed, he said, the normal span of life will rise to 120 years and it will not be unusual for some persons to live to be 240.

Six Laws Drawn.
"Himself only 57 years old, 'by no means mature,' youthful, studious and quiet, Nishi said his system of six laws and exercises will eliminate 70 per cent of the present need for medical treatment and relieve humanity of minor ills 'from hangovers to obesity.'"
"Eight hundred thousand Japanese have adopted my system in the last ten years," Nishi said. "Among them are several royal princes and princesses. The result of the system on their health is more than gratifying."

Heart Theory Wrong.
"The system is based on my theory that osmotic action of the capillaries and not the pumping action of the heart causes circulation. The heart, despite Harvey's accepted theory, is not a pump, but rather a volume control of the circulation. I have a standing offer of $5000 to any man who can prove otherwise."
"It is physically and mathematically impossible for a small organ like the heart to pump the blood through all the arteries and veins of the body as well as 5,100,000,000 capillaries in 22 seconds."
"For good health and longevity, said Nishi, one must: Sleep on a flat, hard bed with comfortably light cover; gradually accustom oneself to a hard, rounded pillow placed under the third or fourth cervical vertebrae; lie on the back, hands clasped under the back of the neck, turn the toes toward the head, and oscillate the whole body "as a gold fish might," and lie on the back, head raised slightly by a pillow, elevate arms and legs to the extreme and vibrate the hands, feet, arms and legs.

Few Minutes Plenty.
"Three or four minutes of this exercise twice daily are enough, he said. "It is no wonder many people are content to die now at the age of 70 or 80 years," Nishi said. "If my simple system is followed people will be vigorous, shapely and beautiful at least until they are 125."
A hangover, he said, can be exterminated by drinking plenty of luke warm water and practicing the vibration method.
Nishi, well-to-do, accepts no fees for his services.

Young People to Hear Negro Tropic
Announcement has been made of the monthly session of the young people's circle of the First Christian church this evening at 8 o'clock in the church recreational hall.
Following a short business session, the group will continue the study of "The Negro in America," a program to be conducted by Margery Gregory and others in her group. A social hour is being planned to follow the program.
A cordial invitation has been issued to all young people of high school age.

High School News by STUDENT REPORTERS

By Barbara Hampson.
Squad debate at Medford high school began Wednesday. Under direction of Mr. Kenneth Scott Wood those interested in inter-school debate met Wednesday at 3:30 for a brief 15-minute lecture on debating in general. About ten interested students turned out with the sophomores holding the lead.

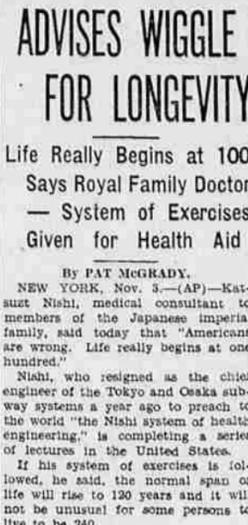

The question is the same as debated by the clubs of the school: Resolved, That all electric utilities be governmentally owned and operated.
This year the Medford debaters are anxious to turn up first in the state debate tournaments, so it is expected that this will spur the teams on to greater triumphs.
Readers of this column will surely hear more about this subject in this space later, as Medford fully expects this year's debaters to "bring home the bacon."
The debates will begin in February. Until then the squad will spend all spare time in preparation.

A short Latin club meeting was held Wednesday for the purpose of bringing in the new members and getting a better start for the year's coming events.
The meeting was opened by the president, Edith Whitlock, who was followed by the minutes of the previous meeting. Roll call was then taken. When other necessary business had been taken care of the new members were asked to rise and give the oath. This they repeated after the president. After another short discussion concerning the affairs of the club, the meeting was dismissed, but the students remained in the room until the next period.

RAISE PORTLAND LIABILITY RATES

PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The national bureau of casualty and surety writers placed Portland in a category separate from the remainder of Oregon today as a result of what was termed this city's "unfavorable landlords and tenants' public liability insurance."
Prior to today, the entire state was grouped for rates in nearly 100 classifications of risks including apartments, tenements, mercantile and office buildings, churches, clubs, hotels, stores and schools.
Portland rates are increased. In the remainder of the state, rates in some classifications were reduced, others boosted and some were unchanged.
The Portland increase and separation was attributed partially to a deterioration of the physical condition of properties.

ASK MAYOR'S AID IN TRAINING OF POLICE

The procedure for organizing a state-wide training program for the police officers of the cities of Oregon will be considered by a committee which has been announced by C. G. Reiter, president of the League of Oregon Cities, according to word received today by Mayor George W. Porter, who has been asked to serve as a member of the committee. Other members of the committee in addition to Mayor Porter include Mayor Joseph K. Carson of Portland, Mayor J. H. Garrett of Hillsboro, superintendent of State Police Charles P. Pray, Dean Wayne L. Morse of the University of Oregon law school, Police Chief Harry Niles of Portland, Police Chief Frank Hamm of Klamath Falls, Police Chief C. F. Bergman of Eugene and Police Officer Louis Burgess of Salem. The committee will hold its first meeting in Portland next Friday evening to canvass the advisability of setting up such a program.

PORTLAND C. OF C. FIGHTS KLAMATH GAS FREIGHT CUT

S. P. Proposal for Two Cent Differential Designed to Take Tonnage Away From Great Northern, Claim
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The chamber of commerce and traffic association of Portland, Ore., filed with the interstate commerce commission today a brief in opposition to the Southern Pacific railway's proposal to cut to two cents the rate differential in favor of the Port of Portland on gasoline shipments from San Francisco refineries to Klamath Falls, Ore.
The two organizations, acting jointly, urged retention of a differential of six cents per 100 pounds on shipments via water to Portland and thence by rail, as against direct rail shipments.
They contended the Southern Pacific's move was designed to obtain tonnage now handled by the Great Northern railway. The latter road is opposing the reduction.
The question was brought before the ICC earlier in the year when the Southern Pacific filed new tariff schedules extending to Klamath Falls a two-cent differential placed in effect on gasoline tank car shipments to Medford, Ore.
The Portland organizations contended the lowered differential on shipments to Medford was an "injustice" to Portland and that "no one will seriously claim that the rates proposed by the S. P. on shipments to Klamath Falls will not take away most of Portland's present gasoline business to Klamath Falls."
"Any difference less than six cents would divert all of the southern Oregon business to the Southern Pacific," the organizations said. "The commission might just as well put the rates on a parity as reduce the difference to two cents."
The Southern Pacific asked for the cut on the ground it was necessary to meet truck competition. It admitted that a preliminary hearing, however, that it made no move toward this end until after the Great Northern had opened its new line to the Klamath Falls area, the organizations said.
"In the fight between these two railroads the community of Portland should be particularly considered, as Portland had this business before the Great Northern entered the field," they added.
As a result of the preliminary hearing of the ICC ordered an investigation which now is in progress.

GUARANTEED RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Pills and drugs give only temporary relief. The sensible thing to do is to put "bulk" back into your meals.
Millions of people get this needed "bulk" in a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its "bulk" is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.
Some years ago, an investigation was made among thousands of ALL-BRAN users. 98 per cent found it satisfactory. Only 2 per cent had the type of constipation that would not respond to ALL-BRAN.
ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.
Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily, either as cereal or in cooked dishes. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

RED CROSS AGENT TELLS OF RELIEF DONE IN BANDON

Report of relief work carried on in fire-damaged Bandon was presented to the weekly luncheon-meeting of the Kiwanis club in the Hotel Medford yesterday by Mrs. Alice O. Maxwell, Oregon field representative of the American Red Cross.
Mrs. Maxwell told of the rapidly mobilized relief agencies were mobilized to assist people of the stricken city, pointing out that by the end of the first week 90 tent houses had been erected and that within 24 hours everyone had been fed, clothed and otherwise taken care of.
The speaker praised the relief work accomplished by the CCC, the national guard and other agencies and dwelled upon the aid sent from Medford. Rehabilitation, she said, must be continued through the fall and winter.
F. Kramer Deuel, Medford attorney, explained the referendum measures on today's ballot.
Other club guests were Miss Lillian Roberts, Red Cross secretary here, J. Edward Pope, division representative of the Shell Oil company, and George Vilas, former Medford resident here on vacation from Shanghai, China, where he is employed by the Dollar Steamship company.
