Paul Gallio's hilarious Saturday Evening Post story, "Wedding Present," comes to the screen of the Craterian theater for tomorrow only in the filmization that has Joan Bennett and Cary Grant co-starring in this rollicking tale of newspaper boys and girls.

The story is based on the unique gift that Grant, in love with Joan, gives her when she is about to marry another man, Miss Bennett, in the role of "Rusty," the crack "fem" reporter on the same paper on which Grant works, finds herself surrounded by what Grant considers the only type of present that she should have—which brings out the fire brigade, the homicide squad, the emergency wrecking crew—not to mention the ambulance corps, and the motorcycle patrol, all leading to a riotous climax to close the story on a gale of laughter.

"Wedding Present" will also be shown tomorrow night only at the Holly theatre.

BEDRIDDEN WITH RHEUMATIC PAIN
Joyous Relief After 25 Years Suffering

NO MATTER how severe your case may be or how long standing WILLIAMS' R. U. X. COMPOUND is guaranteed to relieve it or it will cost you nothing. Mrs. Jennie Woolery had always led an active life until confined with rheumatism. Her WILLIAMS' R. U. X. Soon put her on her feet again.

Helplessly Crippled for SIX MONTHS with RHEUMATISM. Her WILLIAMS' R. U. X. Soon put her on her feet again.

"I suffered with rheumatism for 25 years, gradually getting worse the last eight years until I was stricken to bed, where I was confined six months. I thought I would never be able to use my limbs again and I was in so much pain I thought I would go crazy. After trying everything without getting relief and nearly giving up all hope of ever getting out of bed, I saw an advertisement of WILLIAMS' R. U. X. COMPOUND and sent for it. I felt better right from the start and I was soon up and around again feeling like a new woman."—MRS. JENNIE WOOLERY, 430 South 25th Street, Salem, Oregon.

Money-Back Guarantee
Get a bottle of WILLIAMS' R. U. X. COMPOUND today at Health's Drug Store and try it for yourself. If you are not relieved of your rheumatism in ten days—if you are not completely satisfied with the results you get from it, your druggist will refund your money without question. It must relieve you or cost you nothing.

On Roxy Screen

Loretta Young and Franchot Tone co-star for the first time in "The Unguarded Hour," which plays a return engagement today and tomorrow only at the Roxy theater. The story deals with the "unguarded hour" every woman dreams about and every man thinks about. It's filled with the things that make real pictures come true.

Others in the cast are Lewis Stone, Roland Young and Dudley Digges.

Murder Mystery Film at Rialto

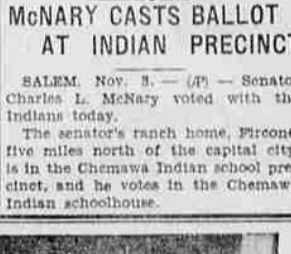

Robert Young and Florence Rice are pictured above getting into some sort of trouble with Sidney Toler and Harry had cop Ted Healy in a scene from "The Longest Night" which plays at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Thursday on the double bill program with "Back to Nature" featuring the Jones Family.

"Back to Nature" takes the happy, scrappy Jones family on their vacation. The family decides for Dad that they are going to take a house trailer and make one grand time of it. Outnumbered and outguaged, Dad gives in and the whole family starts out for Tranquil lake. Filling the wide open spaces with fun and romance they glide happily along on the funniest adventure ever shown on any screen.

"The Longest Night" tells the story of a group of store clerks who try to keep their employer from selling out right under their noses. The murder and mysteries they encounter while doing so keep the story going at a merry pace. Others in the cast are Julie Haydon and Catherine Doucet.

The A. P. will tell

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS staff in the United States, augmented to 50,000—the largest ever to cover a single news event—will report the returns of the election. Every precinct in the nation will be covered by this Associated Press army, with speed and accuracy. Two hundred and eighty thousand miles of leased wire will carry these returns in news and in pictures. Even Uncle Sam himself will first learn the result from The A.P. dispatches. No other organization ever has performed and cannot this year adequately perform this stupendous task which the support of Associated Press member newspapers makes possible.
