PROSPERITY SEEN IN ANTELOPE AREA

ANTELOPE, Nov. 3. (Sp.) - Antelope seems to be coming to the front when it comes to new improvements in the past six months. Electricity has been installed in 15 homes and Antelope school house. Almost every farmer has also installed electric motors, besides the numerous appliances in the homes. Barrie Riggs, Carl Von der Hellen and Luther Day have also remodeled their homes. J. C. Greb will build a new home in the near future.

Several tractors have been bought. Cream, hogs, whole milk, eggs, and other products have a good price. The county under the direction of Lester Brockmorton has built two new bridges in this district. Farm lands were scarce here during the summer. Many wonder why some people grumble that times are just as hard as in 1931 and 1932.

Sunday visitors at the Hines home were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Salor and daughter, Derva Jeanne, of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hull and Mrs. Purdie and son, Wesley, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Purdie and son, Wesley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowen were Monday afternoon callers at the Sanderson home.

Antelope school put on the following Halloween program October 23: Play, Hannel and Gretel; folk dance, Hungarian folk dance; music by Mrs. Marjorie Hens of Gold Hill, and songs by Mrs. Lloyd Hull. Over 225 were taken in by sale of pies and the cake-walk. We wish to thank the neighboring districts, Bama Valley and Long Mountain, for their support.

Mrs. James Martin spent Sunday afternoon visiting at the home of Mrs. Robert DeArmond.

Ruch school, in company with its teacher, Mrs. Opal Mosser, had a Halloween trip and party and visited the Antelope school Thursday afternoon. The time was spent with songs, music, Halloween play and refreshments.

Tuesday evening visitors at the James Martin home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims and sons, Herald and Cleo, and Mrs. and Mrs. Loris Sims and family. Herald Sims is here from Sprague River for a few weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin and baby, Donnie, visited home folks on Reese creek Thursday evening.

The school children enjoyed a vacation Friday as their teacher, Mrs. Reinking, attended institute.

Mrs. John Black, Mrs. W. A. Muds and Mrs. Hayes visited school Thursday afternoon, October 29, when the children gave a simple program in observance of Halloween. Refreshments of elder, doughnuts and cookies were served by Mrs. Black and the teacher, Nettie Armstrong.

Mrs. Armstrong, Sr., who has suffered an infarcted hand for the past month is now almost recovered.

Ed Hall and Ed Rowbar of Sterling, who have been working in the logging woods here, returned to their homes October 29, pending the opening of a new timber tract.

Nettie Armstrong left Friday morning to attend teachers' institute in Ashland.
