

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By Janet Wray Smith

Valley Guest Is Entertained Here

Prominent among valley visitors is Mrs. Barrett Scudder, of Chicago, who arrived here several days ago. She and her son, Stuart, are the guests of Mrs. H. Chandler Egan. Mrs. Egan is Mrs. Scudder's mother.

Among hostesses greeting Mrs. Scudder have been Mrs. Don Clark, who invited several to her home for dinner Sunday evening, and Mrs. W. F. Biddle who arranged luncheon for Mrs. Scudder and Mrs. Egan Monday.

The visitor has a number of friends in the valley who are planning small and informal affairs for her entertainment.

Mrs. Scudder and her son plan to leave early next week.

Two Return After California Visit

Returning to their homes here Monday evening were Mrs. Porter Neff and Mrs. Arthur Warnock, who have made a several weeks' stay in California. Most of their time was spent in Beverly Hills and Los Angeles.

They were guests in Beverly Hills of Mrs. Theron Hooker, formerly Miss June Warnock, and of Mr. Warnock, who is connected with the Paramount studios.

Returning north, they were met in San Francisco by Mr. Neff, the group continuing home by motor. Mrs. Neff and Mrs. Warnock have been away five weeks.

"Pie Social" Is Planned Thursday

An old-fashioned "pie social" is being arranged by the ladies aid of St. Peter's Lutheran church for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the church basement, East Main street and Portland avenue.

Appearing on the evening's program will be Frederick Gustafson, Florence Henderson, Thelma Martin, Frank Bowman, Walter Hueners, Katharine Hueners, Tommie and Billie Tams, Eileen Young and Alice Lee Cook.

Those in charge issue an invitation to the public and request that ladies attending bring a pie.

Relief Corps to Meet Tomorrow

State Department President Anna Harmon will be a guest of the local branch of the Women's Relief Corps at the meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the armory, according to announcement made today.

Mrs. Harmon will officially inspect the corps and all members are particularly requested to be present. Those attending are to bring spoon and cup.

Luncheon Planned For Club Thursday

Mrs. J. P. Naumes is to be hostess to members and guests of the Building Bridge club tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1101 South Oakdale avenue. The affair is to be a dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock, with bridge to be in play during the afternoon.

A special feature will be the hopechest display, according to those in charge. Tea is to be served during the afternoon hours.

Nurses Meeting Thursday Night

Miss Maude Demorest will be hostess to the members of district number 4, Oregon State Graduate Nurses association, at her home, 131 Vancouver avenue, tomorrow evening. Time is announced as 7:30 o'clock. Julia Grub will assist the hostess.

50th Anniversary Recently Marked

Williams Creek, No. 4.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. John Letteken celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary recently. The day was spent quietly at home. Their children, Sam Letteken, of Provolet; Mrs. Ed Woodfolk, of Grants Pass; and Mrs. Doll Lemmon, of Ashland, and their families were present, including some of the grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Neighbors called during the day to offer congratulations.

Of interest to friends was the letter belonging to Mr. Letteken, which was written to his mother in 1861 by his father, then stationed with the Union army at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., in which he said, "This is a big war scare, but it will all be over in a few weeks."

The dodo has been extinct since 1681.

Light Valley Rains Forecast by Bureau

A light rain began falling here about 8 o'clock this morning, the second time this month, the weather bureau reporting .01 of an inch November 1.

The bureau held out no hope for continued or heavy rainfall, however, limiting prediction to continued cloudy skies with light showers.

The fall months this year have been unusually dry throughout Oregon, with low humidity constituting a constant fire hazard and a detriment to success during the deer hunting season.

Neighborhood called during the day to offer congratulations.

Festive Week-end To Attract Many

Ashland will be the mecca for a large number of alumni this week-end as the Southern Oregon Normal school observes the annual homecoming celebration. Extensive preparations are under way for entertainment for an expected record number of former students.

Several from here plan attendance at one or more of the week-end functions, which will include a bonfire and noise parade Friday evening, football game Saturday and banquet and dance Saturday evening.

This year's student body at the school contains, as usual, a large number of Medford young people and many others who formerly attended are expected to increase the city's representation at the occasion.

Building Permits at $16,375 for October; Tenth Straight Gain

For the tenth straight month in 1936, building permits for October in the city rose substantially over the figures for the same month a year ago. Total for the month was $16,375 as compared to $5,483 for October of last year and only $3,500 for October of 1934.

Permits for October were divided into 16 remodeling jobs ranging from the $4,000 permit issued to W. H. Fluhrer to remodel the buildings at 202-208 East Main street, to small permits for amounts less than $25 for remodeling porches and rebuilding garages.

Six permits were issued for new residences. The largest of these went to William C. Roberts, who will build a house and attached garage at 3500 Lyman avenue at a cost of $3,800.

Judge H. D. Norton was granted a $3,000 permit to construct a residence at 809 West Eleventh street, directly to the rear of his impressive residence at Oakdale avenue and Eleventh street. J. H. Felly, 709 Beekman street, was granted a permit to build a residence at a cost of $2,000.

Court Hall was issued a permit to remodel the residence at 315 South Central avenue into an apartment house. There were many small permits issued for re-roofing business buildings and homes.

Roosevelt Vote Nearly Doubles Landon in State

who was leading Mahoney by a bare 7,600 votes with 400 precincts unreported.

McNary supporters counted on victory in the fact that the margin the Republican floor leader of the upper house of congress held had not diminished since the two candidates passed the 50,000 mark. Past the 120,000 total McNary still held virtually the same lead over the gifted Klamath Falls orator, Townsendite and New Dealer.

Even staunch Benton county, which held out to the bitter end against Roosevelt in 1932, capitulated to the Democrats this year, giving Roosevelt a majority of more than 100.

A shocking setback to Republicans was the defeat in Multnomah county of William Ekwall, Republican congressman in the third district, who bowed to the first woman ever to win the honor of representing Oregon in the national congress, Nanny Wood Honeyman.

The vigorous, gray-haired mother of three children, former legislator and wife of a wealthy hardware man, was running almost 8,000 votes ahead of Ekwall with half of Multnomah county reported.

Except for this upset, Republican and Democratic lines were holding firm in the congressional contests. James Mott, Republican incumbent of the first district, was strongly ahead of Democratic E. W. Kirkpatrick, his 80,000 vote doubling that of his opponents. In the second district, a former governor, Walter Pettec, successfully sought re-election on the Democratic ticket over Roy Ritner, amassing a two to one lead and an 18,000-vote margin.

Holman Wins Farther down the ticket were recorded victories for Rufus Holman, Republican state treasurer, over U. S. Burt, the incumbent hold a 36,000 margin, while the early Democratic threat of Alfred Dobson, Portland lawyer, to the coveted post of Republican Attorney-General I. H. Van Winkle, faded in late returns and he dropped nearly 20,000 behind.

Gov. Charles Martin saw his blanket wish on the eight state measures decisively met. Every one went down to resounding defeat, the state bank bill taking the worst punishment, losing by nearly 50,000 votes with two thirds of the state's precincts counted.

The bitterly-controverted non-compulsory military training, which would have made military training at the University of Oregon optional, was buried under a 114,000-vote avalanche of "noes," 50,000 more than the "yes" could muster. Even the old age assistance amendment to make Oregon's law compatible with the federal act was needed for defeat, although by the smallest margin, some 7,000 votes.

MILLARD IS ELECTED IN JOSEPHINE COUNTY GRANTS PASS, Nov. 4.—(AP)—Final unofficial returns today showed the Rev. W. H. Millard, Townsend independent, elected state representative from Josephine county and W. A. Johnson, Republican, named state senator. Orval J. Millard, Republican, was chosen district attorney. All county office incumbents were re-elected.

CCC Youth Dies Of Gun Wound

The body of Manuel Fernandez, 20, CCC youth who died at Yreka Monday as the result of an accidental gunshot wound, was sent from Medford last night to Los Angeles, where funeral services will be held Friday.

Mrs. Eusiba Fernandez, the boy's mother, and her daughter Rosalie accompanied the body south. They had been called to Yreka when the youth was taken to the hospital there Saturday after he had accidentally shot himself in the chest with a shotgun charge while he was preparing for a hunting trip.

Efforts to save his life were frustrated when tetanus developed. Funeral services in Los Angeles are being arranged by the Van Nuys CCC district headquarters. CCC men will serve as pallbearers. Conger's funeral parlor here had charge of forwarding the body.

Lewis H. Ripley Taken By Death

Lewis Howard Ripley, 55, a resident of Shady Cove for the past 12 years, died at a local hospital Monday evening, after an illness of eight months. He was born April 13, 1878, in Red Oak, Iowa. He came to southern Oregon in 1914 where he had resided since.

Mrs. Ripley is survived by two sisters, Mrs. H. Hale of Eagle Point and Mrs. Grace Halbert of Porterville, Cal.; two brothers, Clyde Ripley of Shady Cove and Guy Ripley of Brownboro, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at the graveside in the Shady Cove cemetery tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. John Stille of Shady Cove officiating. Per funeral home is in charge of arrangements.
