

GAME AND DANCE TO FEATURE HOMECOMING AT ASHLAND NORMAL

ASHLAND, Nov. 5.—(Spl.)—Featuring the SOBS-Oregon Normal football game and climaxed by a dance in the new gymnasium Saturday night, Southern Oregon Normal school will welcome back its hundreds of graduates this week-end in the annual homecoming celebration.

Alumni from all parts of Oregon and many from other states will return to meet old friends and make new ones, and officials in charge of the program are preparing to take care of a record number.

The complete homecoming program follows:

Friday.
9 p. m.—Rally on the steps of gymnasium, and noise parade through business district. Prizes for best floats.

11:30 p. m.—Midnight matinee at Lithia theater.

Saturday.
10:30 a. m.—Alumni meeting at Normal auditorium with Charles Weaver, president, presiding.

2:30 p. m.—SOBS-Oregon Normal football game at high school field.

6:30 p. m.—Alumni banquet at Lithia hotel with vocal and instrumental numbers.

9:00 p. m.—Dance at SOBS auditorium for alumni, friends and students.

Big Applegate

BIG APPLIGATE, Nov. 5.—(Spl.)—Miss Ida Kleinhammer and nephew, Harold Hammer, of Modesto, Cal., were guests late last week here at the home of the former's brother, A. B. Kleinhammer.

Mr. and Mrs. Aris Throckmorton were recent dinner guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Hansen, at Medford. The occasion marked the 51st birthday anniversary of Mrs. Throckmorton, who received many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Schmieiding, owners of the Bagley planing mill at Eugene, have returned to their home after spending two weeks as guests of their son, W. S. (Billy) Schmieiding, at Steamboat.

C. H. Elmore returned Saturday from several days' business trip to Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Raymer of Derby were guests of Mrs. L. C. Port Sunday. Week-end guests at the Port home included Miss Jeanette Gore of Medford and Miss Helen Dunn of Ashland.

Applegate school is sponsoring a dance at the community hall Saturday, November 7.

Mrs. James Buckley returned from a brief trip to Portland, where she visited her son, Louis, student at Portland university. Mrs. Buckley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Osenbruge of Medford to the northern city. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knutzen also made a trip to Portland last week.

Carl Herriott left Tuesday for Fresno, where he has employment. He was accompanied south by Leo Hoffman, who will attend school in Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roberts of Medford were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kubli, attending the Halloween dance at Upper Applegate grange hall.

Cal Hill of Provoit entered a Medford hospital recently for observation.

Teddy Eketten, second grade pupil of the Buch school, has been unable to attend school for a few days as a result of receiving a cut on the head Saturday, when he fell, striking a rock.

daughter, Dianne, are spending several days at Talent and Ashland as guests of Mrs. Martin Stevens and Mrs. Clyde Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Robinson, having rented their ranch at Wilderville, where they have resided for 50 years, are spending several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Elmore, before continuing to San Francisco vicinity to make their home.

Prizes for the best costumes worn at the masquerade dance given by Upper Applegate grange Saturday were awarded to Mrs. Chester Wendt of Jacksonville, who represented a gypsy, and Lloyd Hancock of Central Point, dressed as a pirate. The dance was attended by 200 people.

Friends here are glad to hear that Mrs. T. M. Rowden of Oak Grove, formerly of Buch, is much improved in health, following several months' illness.

Uniontown school observed Halloween with an evening program and social. Funds obtained from sale of pop corn balls will be used for the purchase of harmonicas used in the harmonica band organized by the teacher, Miss Aileen Inlow, who also is giving pupils piano lessons.

Mrs. M. Metzger and her pupils at Little Applegate gave a program and picnic social Thursday evening. A number of pupils of the Buch school, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Opal Mootser, motored to Antelope school Thursday, where they were guests of Mrs. Aileen Reinking and her pupils at a Halloween social.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harlow attended a dance at Oriental Gardens at Medford Saturday.

Claude Kleinhammer motored to Portland for the week-end, attending the Washington-Oregon football game.

Mrs. J. R. Hoffman and son, Leo, went to Talent Sunday, where they were guests at a dinner honoring Mrs. M. L. Hartley, sister of Mrs. Hoffman.

Ward Banister of Portland was visiting friends at Buch Sunday, where he resided during his childhood and attended grade school. Recently Mr. Banister has been employed in Klamath county.

The Buch sewing club met at their club room Tuesday with a good attendance, the day being devoted to quilt making, which project they have chosen as their winter program, and as a result of which each member will have a new quilt at the end of the club period. A covered dish luncheon was served.

Mrs. Hazel Neen Loomis of Portland, who is conducting a county dramatic school at Central Point this week, came here Tuesday to inspect the stage at Upper Applegate grange hall. She was accompanied here by Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent, and her mother, Mrs. Ida Sweeney of Medford. The Upper Applegate grange is being represented in the dramatic school by Mrs. Bertha Haskins and Mrs. Lee Port.

Applegate home extension unit held their regular meeting Wednesday, at which time Mrs. Mabel Mack of Medford conducted a demonstration on "Food for the School Child."

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—(P)—Portland's Chinese colony was denied a liquor agency by the state liquor control commission. Lee Sing Sew filed an application, saying fellow-Chinese disliked to trade at the Japanese agency in the neighborhood.
