High School News by STUDENT REPORTERS

By Merlin Dow. A boys' league assembly was held November 2, in the boys' gymnasium so that initiations might get under way. Assembly was opened by Mr. Smith who gave numerous necessary announcements. Then Sam Richardson, boys' league president, gave the program for the following week, as far as sophomore boys were concerned.

Tuesday: Sophomore boys must bring shoe polish and rags so that they may polish higher classmen's shoes. Wednesday: All sophomore boys wear their shirts backwards with the either in front or back. Kangaroo court will also be held on this day.

Thursday: 40 acorns must be deposited in a barrel for that purpose. Friday: The big bonfire and dance will be held Friday evening, climaxing all initiations. On Friday the sophomore boys must bring something to burn on the bonfire.

After this program outline came impromptu selections from picked members of the sophomore class. They were called upon by the president. These included "Shorty" Campbell, who was forced to imitate Fred Astaire; Pete Knudson, given a doll to wear the rest of the week; Elmer Wiesburg, who presented a part of his debate speech; Gene Achibald, and Al Thorbis, who crooned for the assembly.

Mr. Wait then said a few words after which Burdette Dodge and John Prentice demonstrated two football plays in the moment that bell rang and the assembly was dismissed at approximately 1:25.

By Janice Shreve. Torch Honor club held a meeting October 30 at which the following members were voted in: Sophomore, Merlin Dow; Junior, Roger Henselman, Elizabeth Hodgkins, Corday Norval, Betty Southwick and Muriel Stocker.

The committee of Donald Younger and Lorraine Wilson a party and initiation will be held in the near future. The club also decided to have a picture taken of the Torch Honor debaters receiving the silver loving cup which is to be presented by the Kiwanis club. The debate team consisted of Kenneth Raymond, Burton Daugherty, Louise Keesee and Jeanette Thatcher.

WINS HER RIGHT TO LIPSTICK

It's all right now for Maria Glory Perry, 18-year-old Oakland, Calif., girl, to touch up her lips, for she has official court approval. Charging her parents with abuse and cruelty because they were too strict with her, even forbidding the use of lipstick, she won a court order to have a friend, Mrs. Anita Rose, appointed her guardian. CAUGHT 17 YEARS AFTER ESCAPE

Seventeen years after Howard Fulger escaped from the Michigan state penitentiary, he was arrested at the Chicago apartment building where he had been employed for nine years as "Howard Law." He is shown (right) as he appeared after his arrest and (left) as he looked when incarcerated in 1919. His wife, whom he married after his escape, planned a plea for clemency. HOUDINI'S SPIRIT STAYS AWAY

The spirit of Harry Houdini failed to appear at a public seance on the roof of a Hollywood hotel on the tenth anniversary of the famed magician's death, and his widow announced termination of efforts to gain communication in accordance with an agreement they made before he died. Shown at the seance with the articles through which it had been hoped the spirit might manifest itself are (left to right): Caryl S. Fleming, president of the Pacific Coast Association of Magicians; Mrs. Houdini and Edward Saint, business manager for the widow. (Associated Press Photo)

HUSKIES BREAK OREGON JINX

University of Washington's Huskies kept up their march toward a Pacific Coast Conference championship when they broke their jinx against Oregon at Portland with a 7 to 0 victory. Here is by Haines, fleet halfback, going over for the only touchdown of the game after Washington recovered an Oregon fumble. (Associated Press Photo)

JACKSONVILLE High School News

by STUDENT REPORTERS

By Eunice Sanden. Five girls of the Jacksonville high school attained places on the honor roll during the first six weeks of school. The senior class took the list with three members and the junior and freshmen classes tie with one each. The girls are Avada Ayres, Lucille Filtrott, Valerie Pearce, seniors; Mary Branch, junior; and Jerry Ayres, freshman.

Judging from the report cards the sophomores either need a little more study or a little less geometry and biology.

By Frances Haight. Mrs. Una B. Finch will speak Friday afternoon at 3:15 p. m. at the high school assembly before the P. T. A. meeting.

In addition to this the glee clubs will give a musical program followed by a one-act play, "A Sisterly Scheme" to be given by the Junior English class.

The seniors are also giving a short skit advertising their class play which is to be presented November 20. After the program the regular meeting of the P-T-A. will take place.

By O. L. Dewey. Sophomores gave the Juniors a Halloween party in the Jacksonville gym last Friday evening. Clever games worked out by the sophomores were played and thoroughly enjoyed. Some of them were vigorous enough that even the best were looking for some place to rest. Following the games came two skits. These were also presented by the host class. Those taking part were Joe Beach, Jack Hamilton, Ruth Hill, Ernesta Bell, Bernetta Zumwalt and Anell Gunter.

Music from a temporarily installed radio set furnished part of the evening's program. Near the end of the party the sophomores treated the guests to apple cider and doughnuts. Two chaperones were present, Miss Crover and Miss Albert, both teachers from this school. The gym was appropriately decorated with orange and black streamers. Approximately forty students were present.

This party was a delayed picnic from last year. Because of unexpected rains the last year's freshmen were unable to give a return party for initiation night. However, the Juniors grant that the Halloween party was a very good substitute even though it was delayed.

By Harvey Handley. The freshmen of Jacksonville high are giving a return party to the sophomores in the high school gymnasium Friday night at 7:30 p. m. The freshmen are very proud of the fact that they can carry on the custom of previous years.

The chairman of the committees with the class president are working hard to make the party a success. The committee chairman are Jerry Ayres, decorations; Bruce Metzger, program; Gladys McIntyre, refreshments; Betty Sanger is class president.

Elliot Roaten last week took over the new bus which will run the Griffen and Old Stage road routes. The smaller bus made six trips daily where the latter will make but two trips. Harvey Handley has been given the smaller bus which will run the Sterling route instead of private passenger cars.
