

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS ON MANY BALLOTS

Ohio Exempts Food From Sales Tax — California Defeats Chain Store Tax — Retains Income Tax

(By the Associated Press)

A flood of state constitutional amendments on such subjects as social security, taxation and liquor control were dealt with Tuesday by the electorate of 30 states.

Ohio adopted an amendment to exempt food purchased for home consumption from the three per cent sales tax, and eliminated the double liability requirement for stockholders of banks which may close in the future.

California defeated a proposal which would have levied a $500 tax on chain stores, an initiative liquor law for local option and a proposal to repeal the income tax. The state approved amendments for relief to assessment districts and simplifying tax collection on unsecured property.

Michigan defeated a proposal to exempt foodstuffs from a sales tax, and another to supplant property taxes with an income tax.

Missouri has apparently approved amendments to increase legislators pay, provide for firemen's pensions and create a non-partisan conservation commission. A proposal moving toward a teachers' pension also was seemingly adopted.

Nebraska voted to abolish the land commissioner's office, and against repeal of the state bankers' double liability law.

Alabama, one of the few remaining dry states, apparently voted to retain state prohibition. A proposed amendment to repeal the dry law and set up a control commission was defeated.

South Carolina voted to enable the legislature to provide old age pensions and similar social security measures.

Washington rejected an amendment to empower the legislature to enact a state income tax and defeated another to allow legislators to receive $5 a day expenses during the 90-day session, in addition to the $5 per diem salary.

Mrs. Mabel Humble and Miss Olga Wickbaugh, teachers in Merrill school in Klamath county, and Mrs. E. J. Southworth of Seneca, Ore., visited at the Burreson home last week-end. Miss Humble and Mrs. Southworth are sisters of Mrs. Burreson.

SET CLAIM DEADLINE FOR REFUND ON TAX

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The deadline for filing claims for a refund on processing taxes was set for December 31 by J. W. Maloney, collector of internal revenue.

Wholesale and retail merchants will be permitted to file claims for taxes not passed on to vendees or customers.

The amount of any adjustment received from processors, Maloney said, will be deducted from the refunds.

The processing tax was declared unconstitutional.

GOLD STAR MOTHER OPENS D. A. V. DRIVE

A photograph appeared in yesterday's paper showing Mayor George Porter receiving the first "forget-me-not" in the Disabled American Veterans' drive, from Mrs. Mary Wycoff, Medford gold star mother. The photo was from the Corley studio and the reading matter erroneously stated that the flower was presented the city executive by "Mrs. Mary Corley."

LAST PIONEER OBSERVES 87TH YEAR NOVEMBER 1

APPLIGATE, Nov. 5.—(Sp.)—Newton Haskins, who holds the distinction of being the only survivor of the original southern Oregon Pioneer society, observed his 87th birthday anniversary Monday. He was born in Galesburg, Ill., and crossed the plains at the age of five, having spent the most of his life in Jackson county. Mr. Haskins is in fairly good health, and makes his home here with his son, Wallace Haskins.

Farm Home Burns.
HILLSBORO, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Fire struck the farm home of the Grant Allen family, destroying the buildings and nearly all furniture and household goods. The Allens had just moved into the home and were sitting down to their first meal when the fire started.

FORGET-ME-NOT SALE OPENS NOV. 6, MAYOR URGES COOPERATION

Frank J. Holbrook, chairman of the Disabled American Veterans' "forget-me-not" drive today requested that all who can assist in the sale of the emblematic flowers report at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday and Friday mornings as near 8 o'clock as possible.

Proceeds of the forget-me-not sale go to relief purposes of the veterans' organization.

In connection with the drive, Mayor Porter today issued the following proclamation:

"I, George Porter, mayor of the city of Medford, do hereby designate Nov. 6, 7 and 11, as Forget-Me-Not days for the benefit of all Disabled Veterans of the World war. It is my hearty wish that the city officials and the public in general render all possible assistance for this worthy cause, as these men gave up their health and are still suffering from their disabilities incurred in defense of their and our country.

"To the people of Jackson county, I wish that these two days be made a real Forget-Me-Not to show these boys that we are still with them the same as they were for us in 1917-1918."
