

ROAD COMMISSION TAKES ACTION ON JACKSON PROJECTS

Contract for Stock Pile on Crater Lake Highway Is Awarded to Wallace—Hall Low On Tolman Creek Bid

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—(AP)—When the snow flies in Oregon and luckless motorists run into uncleared stretches of highway, the Pacific coast maritime strike can be called to account.

Fifteen snow plows ordered by the state highway commission are held up at Los Angeles because transportation is not available. The commission has ordered purchase of 10 pieces of equipment locally to meet possible emergencies and to fill a request from the maintenance division stating that 25 plows will be needed to meet snow conditions.

The commission took action on the following projects:

Benton county—Alsea-South Fork section, Alsea-Deadwood highway construction, two bridges, and 1,043 miles grading and surfacing. Big Ash, Portland, $40,180; contract referred to engineer with power to award.

Clatsop county—North Fork Nehalem river section, Oregon coast highway, 696-mile grading, surfacing, and bridge construction; awarded to Dolan Construction company, Tillamook, $49,617.

Deschutes and Klamath—Bend-Crescent section, The Dalles-California highway, stock pile; E. G. Hall, Eugene, low bidder at $34,700; referred to engineer with power to award.

Gilliam and Wheeler—Condon-Postall section, John Day highway, stock pile; awarded to Charles H. Leonard, Albany, $7720.

Grant—John Day rock production project, John Day and John Day-Burns highways; stock pile; Schuesser, Williams and Gentlemen, Portland, low bidder at $9945; referred to engineer with power to award.

Harney—Burns rock production project on central Oregon and John Day-Burns highways; all bids rejected.

Harney—Gap Ranch-Silver Creek section, Central Oregon highway, 2.33 miles grading, 13.34 miles graveling; Warren Northwest company, Portland, low bidder at $10,950; referred to engineer with power to award.

Jackson—Eagle Point-Crater Lake section, Crater Lake highway, stock pile; A. S. Wallace, Roseburg, $37,864.

Jackson—Tolman Creek-Siskiyou section, Pacific highway, 3.69 miles graveling, 7.92 miles surfacing and macadam; E. C. Hall, Eugene, low at $14,544; referred to engineer with power to award.

Malheur—Pumping plant Hill section of Old Oregon trail, 3.25 miles grading, 1.43 miles surfacing; McNutt Bros., Eugene, low at $33,445; referred to engineer with power to award.

Sardine Creek

SARDINE CREEK, Nov. 6.—(Sp)—Mrs. Howard Dunlap and daughters Vivian and Edna, visited friends at Kerby over the week-end.

Mrs. Emma Paulson of Stockton, Calif., is here visiting her son Henry, and family, who live on the old home place on Drummond's gulch. The Paulson family lived here several years having moved to California 17 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shoemaker of Kansas creek spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dusenberry.

Mrs. E. C. Fienne and Mrs. Mabel Taylor attended the Sunshine Sewing society at the home of Mrs. Westring in Medford last week.

Six friends and neighbors of Ivan Smith gathered at his place last Sunday and helped erect the frame of his new house getting it ready for the roof.

Mrs. Eva Smith and daughter Marjorie were calling on Mrs. Harding in Riverside Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. E. C. Fienne, Mrs. Mabel Taylor, and Mrs. Evogene Smith attended a meeting of the H. E. C. at the home of Mrs. Rose Gay Thursday to work on the Grange regalia which they are making.

Mrs. Evelyn Walker is visiting here this week with her brother Dale Hamner, and family. Mrs. Hamner is still quite ill.

Mrs. Nellie Smith of Gold Hill and Mrs. Paulson, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Medford the past week, were calling on friends here Wednesday afternoon.

Ralph Dusenberry and wife are moving this week to Kansas creek on a place owned by her father, Ed Shoemaker. He has rented his place here to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dusenberry who are moving in this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pierce, accompanied by his sister, her husband and daughter, and uncle Jack Allison, who are all here from Kansas on a visit, motored last week to Eugene, up the McKenzie pass to Bend and around by Diamond lake and Crater lake, returning Saturday. They report snow so heavy at Crater lake they were unable to see the lake.

Two Fatal Accidents.

SALEM, Nov. 6.—(Sp)—George E. Dingman, Warrenton laborer, and George T. Johnson, Portland truck driver, died during the past week as the result of accidents in Oregon industries, the state commission reported.

Dingman was injured October 12 and Johnson was injured in December of 1934. The commission reported 677 accidents during the seven-day period.

Lava Adds 82 Acres

HONOLULU (UP)—Thanks to the activities of Mauna Loa, during its latest eruption, American soil was increased by 82 acres. The addition was made by the pouring out of 15,000,000 tons of lava.
