Making arrangements are Capt. Herman J. Meiring, Lieut. Fred W. Greene, Lieut. Ernest J. Brugg, Lieut. William H. Driscoll and Lieut. Roy D. East.

This is the first large affair of the winter season for the military group of Garden Club.

American Legion Auxiliary

Armistice Day is always a busy day for all American Legion members as it is the day of the year that is truly our day.

This week begins with the regular business meeting of the auxiliary Monday, Nov. 9, at the Baldwin piano shop club room.

The program for Armistice Day for the auxiliary conforms somewhat to the plans of the American Legion.

All members are asked to be present at the city park (corner West Main and South Ivy streets) at 10:40 a. m. to participate in the parade that is to start promptly at 11:05 a. m.

Following the banquet, fathers will be left free for "an evening with Dad," a feature that has in the past been far more popular than scheduled entertainments.

On Sunday special services honoring fathers will be held in all Eugene churches, and at noon fathers will be guests at living organizations.

George P. Taylor is chairman of the parade committee, assisted by Rex Barnett and Ward V. Croft. The reception of the candidates will be in the hands of Rex Barnett and all members of the Hullah Temple patrol will make up his committee.

PROPERTY MISSING SINCE HALLOWE'EN

Several items taken by Halloween pranksters are still missing. It was disclosed today by city police, who asked that anyone finding any of the property telephone the police office.

Two lengths of garden hose, one ash can, and several radiator caps have never been located after Halloween celebrants carried them off.

Chief of Police Clatus McCredie stated today that the stuff is probably now lying in someone's alley, or in vacant lots.

A peculiar mania which has afflicted Medford children is the taking of radiator emblems and caps from motor cars. These trivias serve no useful purpose except on the car to which they belong, radiator emblems being no longer interchangeable as was once
