

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

Travelers Expected Home From Various Points This Week

Among the earliest of visiting valley residents to return home will be Mrs. P. Corning Kenly, who has spent the past few weeks as the guest of her mother and other relatives in Chicago.

Mr. Kenly left yesterday morning for San Francisco, where he was to meet Mrs. Kenly Tuesday. The two will spend a few days at Ross, Calif., the guest of Mrs. Farwell Hill before returning home.

Also expected to arrive home this week is Mrs. Alex Sparrow, who with her daughter, Harriet, has been traveling in Mexico for the past six weeks. They will probably arrive tomorrow or Tuesday.

Among visitors in the valley is Barrett Wendell of Chicago, Ill., who is a guest of Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, a cousin.

Departing Member
Honored at Dinner

Mrs. Grace Pellatt, who is to leave soon to make her home in Yreka, Calif., was honored at dinner last Sunday by members of the Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church, following morning service.

About fifty members and guests were present to honor Mrs. Pellatt, and a large number of gifts were presented to the honoree.

Plan Visit in San Francisco

Among Medfordites visiting in the bay area this week will be Mrs. H. G. Byington and son, Fred, and Mrs. C. M. Hurd, who left by motor this morning for San Francisco.

They plan to spend several days in the south, visiting friends and viewing the auto show. They are also attracted by the new San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge opened last week. They expect to return home the latter part of the week.

Takes The Spotlight

Pretty Adaline Heiskell, 18, has the social spotlight in Memphis, Tenn., all to herself this season, because she is the city's only debutante. Her debut necessarily is to be the outstanding social event of the year. (Associated Press Photo)

Luncheon Meeting Is Thursday Event

Mrs. C. D. Thompson and Mrs. E. E. Kelly were luncheon hostesses to members of chapter AA, P.E.O., at the Thompson home Thursday afternoon, following luncheon members went to the home of Mrs. Lois Young for the business session and program of the afternoon, when Mrs. R. A. Work was initiated into the group.

Mrs. F. L. Pickett presented a program on the educational work of the organization. Guests included Mrs. Louis Brown and Mrs. R. G. Fowler.

Miss Hampson To Wed Russell Royer In Tuesday Service

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hampson have announced the coming marriage of their daughter, Mildred Mae, to Russell Theodore Royer. The ceremony is to be solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at 1102 West Tenth street. Rev. W. R. Baird will read the service.

Miss Barbara Hampson and Walter Roth will attend the couple as bridesmaid and best man. Guests will be members of the families and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hampson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hampson of Crescent City and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hampson of Grants Pass.

Miss Hampson has spent her entire life here and has many friends in the valley. Mr. Royer is the son of Mrs. Estie Roth of this city and also resides in Medford.

The young couple plan a coast motor trip before returning to Medford to make their home.

American Life Is Study Club Topic

The program presented at this week's meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club was concentrated on a study of phases of American life. Mrs. William Miller acted as chairman for the program.

Mrs. E. A. Moore presented a review of "Roots of America" and Mrs. John Crews discussed calendar topics concerned with social welfare problems. Mrs. B. B. Lowry gave an annotated review of the "frontier woman" from Richter's "Early Americana."

Miss Nancy Blake entertained the group with accordion medleys of American songs typical of various sections of the country.

It was announced that at the next meeting date falls on Thanksgiving Day, the group will convene the Friday morning following, November 27.

Surprise Party Observes Birthday

A large group of members of the Baptist church arranged a surprise party at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Walford A. Daves following the mid-week prayer meeting this week. The affair was in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Daves.

A treasure hunt and refreshments were features of the entertainment.

Mistletoe Club Plans Card Party

Plans for a card party Thursday evening were completed when members of the Mistletoe club were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irene Shirley.

Time for Thursday evening's affair is set at 8 o'clock at the K. P. hall. Bridge, pinocle and five hundred will be played, with prizes being planned for each game. Reservations may be made by calling 987-X or 041-B. Special features are to be part of the evening's entertainment. The public is invited.

A New 17 Jewel BULOVA

"American Clipper" $29.75

- Streamlined!
- Sturdy
- Dependable

The "American Clipper" is making history, too! For the first time in BULOVA history a man's 17 jewel timepiece is priced so low... only $29.75!

Exclusively at
Larry Schade
Your Favorite Jeweler
Since 1918

228 W. 6th—Holly Theatre Bldg. Phone 684

Party Planned For Club Monday Eve

Extensive arrangements are being completed for the program entertained to be presented at the social meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club tomorrow evening at the Rogue Valley school studio.

The program will include games, singing, musical numbers, dramatic vignettes and other features. The Misses Florence Mason and Jeanne Fabrick have charge of program arrangements. Time is announced at 8 o'clock, and all members are invited to bring guests. Thanksgiving decorations are to be used.

A number from the Medford club went to Klamath Falls last night and this morning to attend the district conference of southern Oregon clubs held there this week-end. Among those going were Mrs. Mabel Mack, president; Mrs. Maude Snider; Miss Eva Bavelock, Louise Klumpp, Ethelwyn Hoffmann, Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, Miss Lura Lynch and Mrs. Jacque Lenox.

Ceylon Background Discussion Subject At Club Meeting

Members of the Travel Study club were entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. E. H. Hurd at her home.

Ceylon was the subject of the November reports. Mrs. J. O. Grey presented a paper on the "Lost Cities of Ceylon." Much of the history of the island and its people has been obtained by archaeologists in their excavation of ancient ruins of temples and cities. Mrs. Grey pointed out.

The architecture of this powerful civilization rivals that of Egyptian marvels and Roman splendor and takes its place among the wonders of the world today. Mrs. Grey continued.

Mrs. F. R. Hagerty, in discussing "The Parahara Procession of Ceylon," stated that some of the old customs are still observed. These are religious festivals observing special days with all pomp and ceremony of ancient times. A wealth of gems and precious stones are used in preparation for the festivals and in their many shrines Hagerty concluded.

Mrs. Crews Is Hostess to Club

Mrs. John Crews entertained members of the Dixie club and their guests at her home on Rogu River for a recent meeting, with luncheon preceding the business session.

Entertainment was provided by members, each one participating in the program. Mrs. George Canode is to be next hostess to the group.

Mrs. Waterman Hostess Tuesday

Mrs. T. A. Waterman was hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of the Ever Ready circle, when plans were discussed for a joint project with the Merritt circle. Further details are to be announced later.

Following the business session refreshments were served by the hostess. Next meeting is planned for December 8 at the home of Mrs. John White.

Mrs. Dodge Is Guest of Son

Being welcomed by many old friends in the valley is Mrs. B. L. Dodge, of East Orange, N.J., who is among visitors in the valley.

Mrs. Dodge is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Dodge, Jr., and family. She has made other visits to Medford and has many friends who are enjoying renewing the acquaintance.

Mrs. Dodge plans to remain in Medford until after the Christmas holidays.

Mothers Plan Party Tuesday

Members of DeMolay Mother's club will be hostesses Tuesday afternoon entertaining with dessert luncheon and card party at the Girls' Community club. Time is announced as 1 o'clock.

Invitation is extended to the public and particularly to all members of DeMolay members. Arrangements are being made by Mrs. O. E. G. Meyers, Mrs. Vern Marshall, Mrs. John Gillings, Mrs. A. Littrell, Mrs. Harry Ritnabarger and Mrs. L. S. Ettinger.

Mrs. D. D. Roberts, president, and Mrs. Frank Hull, a past president, will receive the guests.

Study Continued By Class Friday

Continuing their discussion of "Congo Crosses," the study class of the Women's missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Frank Albert Friday afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Burr presented the second part of the study.

All ladies interested in the international study of missions are cordially invited to attend the meetings.

Following the study period refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Maynard Putney with Mrs. A. J. Hanby presiding at the tea table.

Next meeting of the group has been set for Friday, Nov. 20, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hanby, 453 North Holly street.

OLD RE-MADE NEW

Many "New Furs" you have admired of late, actually were Remodeled by our Re-Styling experts. Look at your old Fur—better yet, let us look at it! We'll show you amazing possibilities for its Remodeling.

ARISTA Furs of Distinction

228 W. 6th—Holly Theatre Bldg. Phone 684

Salute The Colonel

Leone Wakefield, senior co-ed at the University of California at Los Angeles, was chosen honorary colonel of the institution's R. O. T. C. regiment. Selection was made by a secret committee of Scabbard and Blade, military fraternity. (Associated Press Photo)

Family Entertained For First Reunion On Armistice Day

Armistice Day took on an added significance at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. John Savage, of Fern Valley, when members of the families gathered for re-union.

Greeting relatives were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McClain, of Phoenix; Mrs. L. H. Hughes, of Fern Valley; Mrs. Mollie Ruberts, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watkins and daughters, Evelyn Jean and Phyllis Lee, of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bennett and daughter, Carol Marie, of Williams Creek.

Dinner at noon was served in the dining room with gold and pink chrysanthemum adding color to the scene.

Mrs. Bennett has only recently come from Hollister, Mo. She is the sister of Mrs. Ruberts and of Charles and George McClain, and was entertaining the family for the first time as her Missouri residence had made a reunion impossible before.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, also relatives of the group, will be hosts for the next reunion at their home on Williams creek.

Program Presented At Guest Meeting

A large number were present at the Guest Day meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eva Garlow. Mrs. Grace Roberts, president, conducted the meeting.

Those appearing on the program included Myron Eaton, in a vocal solo; Mrs. M. E. Cox, readings; Lee Ella Williams, violin solo; Rev. W. A. Daves; Kenneth Raymond, piano solo; and Miss Ora Cox, who described her recent extensive visit to the national capital and other eastern cities. The program was in charge of Mrs. Myrtle Wilson.

Refreshments were served following the program.

Club Has Supper Monday Evening

Mrs. Iva Walden was hostess to the F. L. club for tamale supper at her home Monday evening. The short business session was followed by sewing during the evening hours. Miss Nell Cator was a guest of the group.

Present were Ethel Humphrey, Lucille Cave, Georgiana Husong, Edna Hildebrand, Bebie Thompson, Faye Ackley, Marion Mullin, Josephine Bateman, Miriam Ward, Helen Williams and Geocyle Hess.

Dad's Dinner To Be Friday Event

Dads of the Jackson school will be honored again this year with the annual Dad's night dinner which has been scheduled for Friday evening of this week.

Those in charge of arrangements state that the dinner is to be southern style, with group singing to be a feature of the varied program being planned.

Definite time and further details are to be announced later.

Visitor Leaves To Return Home

Leaving Friday morning were Mrs. Eunice Van Vleet and her two sons of Austin, Tex., who have spent the past three months as the guest of the P. S. Branton family here.

They were accompanied to Portland by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brittan. From Seattle, Mrs. Van Vleet will continue to Bozeman, Mont., to meet her husband, they planning to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives there before returning home.

State Regent Is To Return Home Following Visits

Mrs. Boone G. Harding, state regent of the Daughters of American Revolution, is expected to return home early this week after an extensive visit in the northern part of the state.

Mrs. Harding has been entertained by various northern chapters in her official capacity for the past month. She has visited D. A. R. groups in Roseburg, McMinnville, Newberg, Woodburn, Portland, Astoria, Hillsboro, Hood River, Salem, Lebanon, Albany, Corvallis, and Eugene.

Grants Pass will be hostess to Mrs. Harding next Friday. She has already been entertained by Klamath Falls, Ashland and Medford and chapters in eastern Oregon.

Informal Dance Is Planned Wednesday

An informal dance, the first of a series of social affairs being planned by the members of the CCC headquarters detachment, will be held Wednesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Detachment members and their friends are being invited. The program will include a number of entertainment features and a midnight supper.

Patrons and Patronesses Will Include Capt. and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson, Lieut. and Mrs. Roy D. Cratt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mace, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Alger, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Harding.

On the committee in charge of arrangements are Alford Handley, Duane Bergstrom, Kenneth Nagel and Walter Larson.

Club Has Supper Monday Evening

Mrs. Iva Walden was hostess to the F. L. club for tamale supper at her home Monday evening. The short business session was followed by sewing during the evening hours. Miss Nell Cator was a guest of the group.

Present were Ethel Humphrey, Lucille Cave, Georgiana Husong, Edna Hildebrand, Bebie Thompson, Faye Ackley, Marion Mullin, Josephine Bateman, Miriam Ward, Helen Williams and Geocyle Hess.

Dad's Dinner To Be Friday Event

Dads of the Jackson school will be honored again this year with the annual Dad's night dinner which has been scheduled for Friday evening of this week.

Those in charge of arrangements state that the dinner is to be southern style, with group singing to be a feature of the varied program being planned.

Definite time and further details are to be announced later.

Visitor Leaves To Return Home

Leaving Friday morning were Mrs. Eunice Van Vleet and her two sons of Austin, Tex., who have spent the past three months as the guest of the P. S. Branton family here.

They were accompanied to Portland by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brittan. From Seattle, Mrs. Van Vleet will continue to Bozeman, Mont., to meet her husband, they planning to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives there before returning home.

Mrs. Mann Hostess For Luncheon Series

Preferring as do many hostesses to concentrate entertaining at home into a series of affairs, Mrs. J. C. Mann has arranged three luncheons at her home on East Main street in the past two weeks.

The third luncheon was an event of yesterday. Mrs. Mann inviting sixteen for luncheon and bridge. Covers for twelve were laid for luncheon Thursday afternoon and the same number for the first affair the latter part of last week.

Medford hostesses are planning numerous affairs for the coming busy season, with Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays offering opportunity for an unusual number of luncheons and teas.

Praise Service Planned Tuesday

The annual praise Thanksgiving service has been scheduled by the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church for Tuesday afternoon in the church Sunday school room.

All members are requested to bring a guest. A special program is being arranged. Mrs. E. Iverson is to be hostess for the afternoon.

California Visitors Honored By Lodge At Friday Session

Honoring Mrs. Grace Mc Masters, of Richmond, Calif., grand pochothas of the southern state, the Pochothas lodge entertained Friday evening. Other distinguished guests honored were H. J. Drake, past great sachem of California and Mrs. Drake, deputy great Pochothas of Santa Clara.

The following new members were initiated: Elsie Durham, Lorna Durham, Opal Carter, Cordis Deatherage, Emily Savage, Grace Luman, Olive Floyd, Ethel Handley, Rosalie Simmonds, Esther Powell, Alice Smith, Mrs. Robert Waterston, Mrs. Douglas Smith and Mrs. Nell Roberts.

The visiting officers addressed the group briefly.

Following the lodge session members and guests spent the remainder of the evening dancing. Announcement was made of a hard times dance to be given next Friday evening at the hall for members and friends.

Informal Dance Is Planned Wednesday

An informal dance, the first of a series of social affairs being planned by the members of the CCC headquarters detachment, will be held Wednesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Detachment members and their friends are being invited. The program will include a number of entertainment features and a midnight supper.

Patrons and Patronesses Will Include Capt. and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson, Lieut. and Mrs. Roy D. Cratt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mace, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Alger, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Harding.

On the committee in charge of arrangements are Alford Handley, Duane Bergstrom, Kenneth Nagel and Walter Larson.

Club Has Supper Monday Evening

Mrs. Iva Walden was hostess to the F. L. club for tamale supper at her home Monday evening. The short business session was followed by sewing during the evening hours. Miss Nell Cator was a guest of the group.

Present were Ethel Humphrey, Lucille Cave, Georgiana Husong, Edna Hildebrand, Bebie Thompson, Faye Ackley, Marion Mullin, Josephine Bateman, Miriam Ward, Helen Williams and Geocyle Hess.

Dad's Dinner To Be Friday Event

Dads of the Jackson school will be honored again this year with the annual Dad's night dinner which has been scheduled for Friday evening of this week.

Those in charge of arrangements state that the dinner is to be southern style, with group singing to be a feature of the varied program being planned.

Definite time and further details are to be announced later.

Visitor Leaves To Return Home

Leaving Friday morning were Mrs. Eunice Van Vleet and her two sons of Austin, Tex., who have spent the past three months as the guest of the P. S. Branton family here.

They were accompanied to Portland by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brittan. From Seattle, Mrs. Van Vleet will continue to Bozeman, Mont., to meet her husband, they planning to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives there before returning home.

Shangle Baby Salon
STILL OPEN FOR ENTRIES
$300 IN CASH AND MERCHANDISE
Compete for substantial awards and, at the same time, solve your Christmas gift problem with genuine "PERSONALITY PORTRAITS" of your child... Complete details gladly furnished.

DON'T DELAY — ACT NOW!
ONLY 14 Days Left

SHANGLE STUDIO
MEDFORD BLDG. PHONE 1308

RICH NEW SILVER

to dress up your Thanksgiving table...

Maybe grim old Mr. Pilgrim Father wouldn't believe it. But customers tell us there's nothing like new silverware to add an extra festive note on "turkey day."

Introducing "LADYSHIP"
A new Pattern in Stratford Plate. Made by the Makers of Holmes & Edwards. It is backed by the full replacement guarantee of the International Silver Co.

For Limited Time Only

34-piece Set	$13.75
50-piece Set	$19.95
60-piece Set	$24.95

(A saving of $6.75 to $15.95)

To Complete the Thanksgiving Table
Silver Wall & Tree Platters, Gravy Boats, Double Vegetable Dishes, Sugar and Creamers, Water Pitchers, etc.

Brophy's JEWELERS
MEDFORD, ORE.
"Quality Jewelry Honestly Priced"

Special CARVING SETS—Sterling Silver Handle $5.50

BRIDAL BOUQUET
Repoussé
STERLING SOLID SILVER

THIS charmingly aristocratic design—luxurious in appearance, offers unusual opportunity for individuality. Each beautiful flower, from the delicate forget-me-not to the lovely rose and the lavish chrysanthemum, contribute its daintiness, lending character that will harmonize with a variety of decorative schemes; yet, it is comparatively inexpensive. For instance:

Teaspoons, Regular	Set of Six $6.00
Dessert Knives, Mirror Finish Blades	13.50
Dessert Forks	16.50
Salad Forks, Individual	10.50
Butter Spreaders	9.00
Cream Soup Spoons	10.50

A Complete Open Stock Pattern Mail and Phone Orders Filled Prompt!

Lawrence's
We specialize in high quality Silverware. Agents for Gorham, Wallace, Towle and other leading companies.

GOOD NEWS!
Southern Oregon's best known Knitting Instructor
GERTRUDE DODSON
Will be available to her old friends and customers at Fortmiller's, Ashland. Same expert service, same personal attention, but in a new environment.

Fleischer Yarns, of Course

When The Bridge Club Meets

ARE you wide awake, ready to make that finesse with clever generalship and to the immense satisfaction of that fabled partner—or are you just too tired to bid?

DENS mar your true pleasures. At a cost that is real economy, you can send all your soiled articles here, and know they will receive the same care you would give them yourself.

DONT let washday bur- Try us this week

Rough Dry No starch 8 lbs. 56c
7c each additional pound

AMERICAN LAUNDRY
132 SOUTH CENTRAL AVENUE
MEDFORD, ORE. PHONE 873

Exclusively at
Larry Schade
Your Favorite Jeweler
Since 1918

OLD RE-MADE NEW
Many "New Furs" you have admired of late, actually were Remodeled by our Re-Styling experts. Look at your old Fur—better yet, let us look at it! We'll show you amazing possibilities for its Remodeling.

ARISTA
Furs of Distinction

228 W. 6th—Holly Theatre Bldg. Phone 684

BAZAAR
Sacred Heart Church
PARISH HALL
November 20 and 21
Hope Chest will be disposed of Saturday Evening

Murray's Beauty Shop
407 East Main

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL
Machineless Permanent WAVES
$ 3.75

No wires, no electricity. Never before has this Permanent been offered in Medford for less than $8.50. Make an early appointment so that your hair will look its best for the holidays.

Murray's Beauty Shop
Phone 365