

Brown Meets Jack Ray In Main Fistic Event At Armory Tonight

SUPPORTING CARD OF CLEVER BOYS TO ADD INTEREST

Enders And Nealy In Semi-Windup — O'Brien - Melhorn Bout Also Due To Provide Fans Fireworks.

At 8:30 tonight the curtain rings up on what Promoter Mack Lillard has declared to be southern Oregon's most promising boxing card, with Elmer "Buz" Brown, northwest featherweight champion and 128 pounds of fistic dynamite, meeting Jack Ray of Dallas, Texas, in the 10-round main event, and with four other bouts.

Both Brown and Ray are in perfect condition for the slugfest. Brown, fighting regularly for the past few months, claims to be in the best condition of his career and his manager, Tex Salkeld, confirms the statement. Always a fast puncher and a hard one, the little Portlander has been practicing hard on timing and speed and he said today he will be in better condition than he was the night he battered Al Mustola into insensibility two weeks ago.

He will probably need a few minutes to get past Ray, who outweighs him eight pounds, with Ray also claiming to be in the pink. Ray hopes to end Brown's eight year ring record of having never been on the floor.

Interest in the semi-windup battle between Sonny Enders of Klamath Falls and Jack Nealy of Kerby is growing steadily. Promoter Lillard said today, and the Bucky O'Brien-Red Melhorn struggle is also receiving comment.

The match will be the last one until after Thanksgiving in all probability, and may furnish the last chance for Medford fight fans to see Brown in action before he heads east for a series of scraps in Atlantic states. Ticket sales have been good for the fights. Lillard stated, with prospects for one of the biggest fight audiences here in years. The curtain raiser will start at 8:30 sharp.

CENTRAL PT. HIGH TO PLAY ASHLAND

The Central Point high school football team will tomorrow afternoon tangle with the Ashland high sophomore eleven on the Central Point field, with the kick-off set for 3 o'clock. It was announced today by Principal Jewett of the Pointer school.

In an earlier struggle the Ashland squad thumped the Pointers 12-6, and Coach Ken Hulbert's charges are looking for revenge in tomorrow's struggle. In the previous game the Pointers were hampered by injuries, but the squad is now back to peak condition with Myers, Jewett, Pappé and Grimes again in uniform.

Several hundred fans saw Central Point lose a heart-breaking game to Jacksonville Armistice Day morning, and the school officials are hoping for a similar turnout. Coach Hulbert and Principal Jewett announced that they were seeking a game for Thanksgiving Day against any team in their weight class.

SPOKANE DOG TAKES FIELD CLUB LAURELS

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 16.—(AP)—Concluding the most successful meet in the organization's history, Roy Bean, pointer dog, owned and handled by Dr. Balkenrich of Spokane, won the all-age stake on the Tacoma Field club program at the grand mound courses.

High Tide Shoals, pointer dog, owned by R. C. Smith of Eugene Ore., and handled by Jim Watson of Olympia, was second, and Whipple Cherry Creek Jerry, setter dog, owned and handled by Al Bada of Portland, was third. Eleven dogs were entered.

The second series for the amateur all-age entrants, 12 in number, was run Sunday when fog prevented finish of the event Saturday.

WESTERN PRO TEAMS DEFEAT EASTERNERS

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—(AP)—The western teams held the "balance of power" today in national professional football league affairs.

The four western division teams—Chicago's Bears, Green Bay, Detroit and the Chicago Cardinals—whipped four teams in the eastern section yesterday, and in a very decided manner.

It was the second time in eight days that western teams had clearly demonstrated their superiority over the title contenders. Yesterday the Chicago Bears walloped Boston's Red Skins, 28 to 0; Green Bay routed Brooklyn, 38 to 7; Detroit trounced New York, 38 to 0, and the Cardinals downed Pittsburgh, leading the eastern section, 14 to 6.

Cougars Remain in Race

A 32-10-7 victory over the University of California at Los Angeles kept the Washington State college football team in the Rose Bowl picture with a mathematical chance of tying for the Pacific coast conference championship. Here is a glimpse of how the Cougars did it. Floyd Terry (40), Washington State end, goes up to catch a pass from Quarterback Ed Goddard that was good for 23 yards and a touchdown. MANERO IS MAN TO BEAT IN PRO GOLFING TOURNEY

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 16.—(AP)—His golfing compatriots turned the pressure on little Tony Manero today.

The 117 contenders in the qualifying rounds of the National F. G. A. golf championship were tense but their real pressure was on the slender Italian with the black mustache who has a "hot" streak won the last American open, with the lowest total in history.

Now the Greensboro, N. C. dark horse has to show the boys his win was no fluke.

Manero has never gotten past the quarter finals of this competition, called the toughest in the world by the pros.

BRONCOS HUMBLE ST. MARYS 19-0 TO LAY OLD JINX

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Santa Clara university's easy 19-0 victory over St. Mary's turned the national spotlight today on the west's only undefeated and untied major football team.

Before more than 60,000 fans who came to see what Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's new coach, could do in the 19th year of the St. Mary's jinx. The red-shirted warriors completely befuddled their traditional rivals.

They saw the devastating Bronco score a touchdown in the first five minutes, and another near the end of the same period, then watched them turn aside the Gael goal line threats with the finesse of a professional club while converting a blocked punt into another touchdown in the third quarter.

Despite their unbeaten and untied status, the Broncos are not likely to play in the Rose bowl. Pacific coast conference teams have the first call in this annual New Year's day classic and the Broncos will be invited to play only if the leading conference waived its opportunity, authorities explained.

WASHINGTONIANS WILL BATTLE FOR ROSE BOWL CALL

Game Saturday To Decide Western Entrant—Stanford And California Will Claim Coast Spotlight.

By RUSS NEWLAND SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—(AP)—Out of the dirtiest scramble to determine a football champion since the Pacific coast conference was founded came the fact today that for the first time in six years a team outside the state of California will represent the west in the Rose Bowl game New Year's day.

Whether it will be University of Washington or Washington State college, the latter defender in 1931 and loser to Alabama, will be decided when the traditional northern rivals meet at Seattle, November 26.

Rivals Win Saturday Washington, leading the conference and undefeated, clinched at least a tie for the title by defeating University of Southern California, 13 to 0, Saturday. Washington State became a serious contender with an overwhelming 32 to 7 victory over the University of California at Los Angeles Bruins.

If it wins from Washington the little race will end in a two-way tie with each of the northern teams listing five victories, one defeat and one tie.

Washington, however, is the team to beat for the championship. A win for tie with Washington State in what has now developed into its most crucial game will earn for it the Rose Bowl bid.

Washington proved itself exactly two touchdowns stronger than Southern California. Earlier in the season Washington State battled to a scoreless tie with Southern California. But Washington State walloped U. C. L. A. by a four-touchdown margin, whereas Washington could do no better than a 14-0 win over the southern team.

Berkeley in Spotlight The outstanding conference game next Saturday will bring Stanford and California together in their annual classic at Berkeley.

The old time rivals helped stir up interest in their yearly struggle by flashing victories last week end. Stanford nipped Oregon State college, 20 to 14, while California battered University of Oregon into a 28-10 defeat.

The two rivals will line up as even money favorites.

Oregon and Oregon State, conference tail ender and next to the bottom respectively, will fight it out in their annual game, with Oregon State the probable favorite.

Other important games Saturday will find North Dakota State invading University of Idaho's home field and University of San Francisco meeting University of Montana at Missoula.

STARS FOR UNBEATEN BRONCOS

Santa Clara University's Broncos remain the Far West's only major undefeated eleven, and Nello Falaschi, blocking quarterback on the offense and fullback on the defense, is one of Coach Buck Shaw's biggest threats. As this picture proves, Falaschi on occasion can cross up the defense by tossing a pass. (Associated Press Photo)

Wyman, assistant to the president of Pan-American Airways, New York City.

The two-day program will be divided into four sections, each of which will be devoted to a major phase of aviation, Mr. Banwell said. The conference will be of considerable value to cities, organizations and individual persons who are directly or indirectly affected by the development of aviation, he asserted, and therefore he advised that as many as possible from Jackson county attend the meeting. He asked that he be notified by those planning to attend so that proper accommodations may be made.

BOWLING

The Quacks will scatter pins against the Rangers tonight in the Elks bowling league, it was announced today. The game that was to have been rolled on Armistice night, between the We Wins and the Scrubs, should be played some time this week so that the winner for last week can be determined, league officials pointed out.

HAM is a HABIT with them . . .

MANY families go on eating the same round of familiar foods week after week, year after year. Of course, they get some variety—fresh fruits and vegetables in season—special side dishes now and then—a new cracker or cereal or relish or something like that.

But, it's all too easy, unless you watch out—to wonder what to have for dinner tonight and then fall back on habit by serving the same old things cooked the same old way.

It may take a little thought to get out of the rut—but really not too much. If you want to treat your family right, watch this newspaper for hints on new things to eat and new ways to fix the old favorites. For example, there are more than fifty different ways of serving ham.

And don't miss the advertisements. You'll find them full of news—about good foods at special prices, about new kinds of foods, about new ways to cook and serve. . . It's so easy, after all, once you make up your mind to set a better table.
