SAFEWAY STORES BUILD GOOD WILL IN SOCIAL MEET

Friendly, social contacts promote good-will and a spirit of cooperation in a large organization. This is the opinion of T. M. Medford, district manager for Safeway Stores, with headquarters in Klamath Falls, and to back up his idea Mr. and Mrs. Medford were hosts to 175 Safeway employes and a number of prominent guests at a delightful dinner dance Armistice night at the Hotel Willard in Klamath Falls. A number of Medford people were present at this party and enjoyed an evening replete with dining, music, songs and dancing.

Ernest Ham of San Francisco, advertising counselor for the Safeway organization and M. L. Bean, divisional manager of Safeway Stores in Portland were main speakers of the evening. Mr. Ham optimistically predicted an era of progress for business and told the Safeway staff and guests that "business signals say GO." He urged his listeners to keep pace with new merchandising methods. Mr. Bean's address was of an inspirational nature and scored a hit with his audience.

Introductory remarks were made by Mayor Willis Mahoney of Klamath Falls, Ross Farley of the Safeway public relations department, with headquarters in Portland, Henry Perkins, Klamath Falls attorney and C. A. Anderson, county agent of Klamath county. Ted Medford, host and district manager of Safeway stores, was the genial toastmaster for the evening.

During the banquet, Jack Barbour, noted Irish tenor, delighted the large audience with vocal selections reminiscent of the days of the world war. Hans Hoerelin accompanied him on the piano and also presented one of his own piano compositions. Following the dinner and entertainment, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed in the ballroom of the Hotel Willard. The Medford Safeway delegation was headed by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Haws and Mr. Lyle DurRell. L. G. Bickel, manager for the Western States Grocery company and Mrs. Bickel headed the staff of that organization.

Special guests included Mayor and Mrs. Willis Mahoney; Attorney and Mrs. Henry Perkins; County Agent and Mrs. C. A. Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Vitis of the Shopping Guide; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Grey of The Medford Mail Tribune; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loggan of the Bend Bulletin; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gillette of the Lakeview Examiner; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bean of Portland, divisional manager of Safeway stores; Ernest Ham, San Francisco; Ross Farley, Portland, Safeway public relations department; Mr. and Mrs. John Houston of Klamath Falls.

Burelson's Start Anniversary Sale Wednesday Morning

Marking the end of eight years in Medford, Burelson's store will celebrate with an anniversary sale beginning Wednesday morning. Outstanding values will be featured on the main floor and in the newly enlarged downstairs store with extra saleladies to assist southern Oregon women in making selections.

An exceptionally large stock of high quality merchandise is on display on Burelson's main floor for this important fall selling event. During a trip to San Francisco last week Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burelson secured additional apparel for their anniversary sale. Lower priced dresses, sweaters, skirts, lingerie and hats are located in the downstairs store. Seven hundred square feet of floor space were added to this section recently with numerous improvements including several new departments.

Eight years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Burelson moved to Medford from Crookston, Minn., they established a ladies' ready-to-wear store on South Central avenue, where their business showed a rapid growth which necessitated a number of expansions. From that location they went to their present quarters in the Medford building on North Central avenue. In order to offer their patrons every possible service and a large selection of seasonable fashions in apparel for all occasions Burelson's have continued to improve and expand their store until it is now one of the best known in this part of the state.

COUNCIL TO VIEW ASSESSMENTS DUE

At its regular semi-monthly meeting in city hall tonight the council is expected to consider a resolution declaring due and payable the entire unpaid balances on all Bancroft assessments that are delinquent three years or more.

The resolution was authorized by the council a month ago and since then clerks have been preparing a list of delinquent assessments that would come under the scope of the resolution. After adoption of the resolution foreclosure steps will be taken, it was indicated, though a reasonable time will be allowed for the payment of the back assessments.

Other than the resolution only routine matters were scheduled to come before the council tonight. The meeting will be called to order at 7:30 in council chambers on the top floor of city hall.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR GUILD SHOW

You can get them at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe, Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann's and from any member of St. Mark's Altar Guild—what? Tickets to "Oliver, Oliver," of course. Tickets went on sale at those two places this week and members of the giuld, who are sponsoring the scintillating comedy, which gets very, very hilarious in spots, have been selling them for several days.

November 23 and 24 are the dates and several members of the city's smart set, who have looked in on the show are already arranging parties for the evening, it was revealed at last night's rehearsal. "Everybody is going to be there," when the lines start flying in all directions, if talk by feminine tongue can be relied upon.

SAMS VALLEY LADIES CLUB MEET POSTPONED

SAMS VALLEY, Nov. 17.—(Spl.)—Meeting of the Sams Valley Ladies club has been postponed to the first Thursday in December, the meeting place to be announced later.

GORE SUIT TRIAL SCHEDULED DEC. 9

Trial of the suit of William H. Gore against Jackson county for approximately $88,000, assertedly due for services rendered in behalf of the Oregon-California land grant tax refund bill before congress in 1926, has been set on the circuit court calendar for Wednesday, December 9, with Circuit Judge H. D. Norton presiding.

Gore bases his suit upon the contention that he had a verbal agreement with the county court of which W. J. Hartzell was county judge, whereby the county agreed to pay him a "reasonable percentage of all monies obtained" in the event the O.-C. bill was passed by congress.

Jackson county in an answer, contends that all payments before 1929 are outlawed by the "statute of limitations," that no contract existed, and all payments to Gore and others were "donations of gratitude."

A number of officials of upstate western Oregon counties who received O.-C. payments are expected to be called as witnesses.

YOUTH IS ACCUSED BY MRS. POMEROY

An information charging Sam W. Ballard, 20, California youth, "with obtaining goods by false pretenses," with Mrs. Ariel Burton Pomeroy as the complaining witness, was filed late yesterday by the district attorney's office. The specific charge against Ballard is the obtaining of "seven quarts of oil" from the General Petroleum service station, in this city.

The whereabouts of Ballard are at present unknown.

According to the district attorney's office, Ballard was employed by Mrs. Pomeroy, and was accustomed to make gas and oil purchases, signing for them. Slips for 24 such purchases have been turned over to the district attorney.

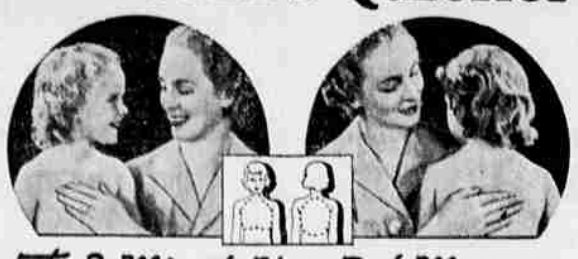
Young Mothers! Here's Help to END COLDS Quicker



The 3-Minute VapoRub Massage

Massage VapoRub briskly on the throat, chest and back (between and below the shoulder blades). Then spread it thick over the chest and cover with warmed cloth.

It takes so little time—it does so much — this 3-Minute VapoRub Massage!

Almost before you finish rubbing, VapoRub starts to bring relief two ways at once—two direct ways:

1. Through the Skin. VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a poultice or plaster.

2. Medicated Vapors. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by body heat, are breathed in for hours—about 18 times a minute—direct to the irritated air-passages.

This combined poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm—relieves irritation—helps break congestion.

While the little patient relaxes into comfortable sleep, VapoRub keeps right on working. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Avoids Risk of Stomach Upsets

This safe, external treatment cannot possibly upset the stomach, as constant internal "dosing" is so apt to do. It can be used freely, as often as needed, even on the youngest child.

AVIATION AUTHORITY TALKS HERE FRIDAY AT CHAMBER LUNCH

Dr. Raymond R. Staub, Portland physician and aviation enthusiast will speak at a forum-luncheon to be held Friday noon in the Hotel Medford under sponsorship of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. He will speak on "Aviation."

"Everyone is affected by the developments which are taking place in aviation and so everyone should attend this luncheon," a chamber bulletin states. It was suggested that reservations be made immediately by calling 63. Women are invited to the luncheon. Arrangements are in charge of Lieut. H. A. Stanley, chairman of the chamber's military and aviation committee.

Dr. Staub is credited by the chamber with assisting Medford in the development of the municipal airport. He is considered a well-informed and dynamic speaker.

Dr. Staub is chairman of the Oregon state board of areonautics, regional director of the National Air Defense, regional vice president of the National Association of Aviation Officials and chairman of the aviation committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

DAMAGED HEADLIGHTS BRING DOLLAR FINE

Clayburn Glass of the Modoc orchards, charged with driving an auto with improper lights, was fined $1 and costs in justice court yesterday. Glass was arrested last Saturday night by state police on the Pacific highway. His headlights were askew and he claimed that he had collided with a horse on the road, earlier in the week, and had failed to have the lights fixed.

Clarence James Erickson of Ashland, charged with intoxication on a public highway, was assessed $10 and costs. In lieu of payment he was remanded to the county jail for a five day period.

MASONIC LODGE WILL HONOR PAST MASTERS AT MEETING FRIDAY

Medford Lodge No. 103 A. F. and A. M. will hold their annual meeting in honor of past masters of the lodge on Friday evening.

The Medford lodge was chartered August 5, 1892, with many prominent Masons of southern Oregon present, among them Thomas G. Reames, past grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon, and C. C. Beekman, both being outstanding in the early history of Jackson county.

Among the earliest masters of Medford lodge were N. L. Narregan, who for many years was principal of the Medford schools; Dr. E. P. Geary, W. I. Vawter, former banker of Medford; D. T. Sears and J. E. Enyart, also former Medford banker..

During its existence Medford lodge has been presided over by 34 past masters, one of whom was elected to the highest honor that could be conferred by the Masons of the state of Oregon, Past Master Ezra M. Wilson being grand master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Oregon, during 1934 and 1935.

The meeting will be preceded by a turkey dinner at 6:30, after which will be held the regular stated communication of the lodge. An interesting program has been arranged for the balance of the evening.

Low-Cost Fuels Do Their Duty in this Engine's Ideal "Climate"!

All that the Spark-Ignition "Caterpillar" Tractor's engine asks, to quickly prepare an ideal "tractor fuel" climate, is for you to start on gasoline—and mount the deep-cushioned seat.

Instantly the highly-effective, triple-action heat-conditioning system gets busy. The super-heater spots heat from all 4 cylinders on the intake manifold—the big, responsive thermostat regulates water circulation for a speedy warm-up.

As you drive along, you watch the convenient temperature indicator reach 190 degrees—then just reach over and shift the handy control valve lever to switch from gasoline to tractor fuel. Correct operating temperature is accurately held—to assure proper vaporization, clean combustion and alert performance on low-cost, low-volatility fuels.

The Twenty-Two and the new model Thirty are built to operate on low-cost tractor fuels (or gasoline if you prefer)—and to cut your fuel costs 30% to 45% below gasoline to do the same work.

And for savings up to 80% on fuel, we urge you to examine the records of "Caterpillar" Diesel Tractors—moldboard plowing, for example, on a gallon of 6-cent fuel per acre!

Diesel, distillate or gasoline tractors — We handle them. See us now for cost-cutting, modern power equipment.
