

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By JANET WEAY SMITH

Thanksgiving To Be Center of Attraction During This Week

Thanksgiving festivities will hold all attention in social circles this week. One of the most popular holidays of the year, Thanksgiving presents an ideal opportunity for varied entertaining.

The gathering of clans is a distinguishing feature of Thanksgiving, with those not entertaining at home usually spending the day with other members of the family in the city or traveling to other places to renew home ties.

As there is no football game here that day, a number of informal parties are being arranged to listen to reports of important gridiron battles elsewhere. Many are also planning small gatherings to precede larger affairs of the evening.

Among those planning a vacation out of town are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, who left this morning by motor for Seattle, Wash. There they will visit their son, Russell, a student at the University of Washington, and will be the guests of Mrs. Frank Bennett, sister of Mrs. Ulrich.

They plan to be away a week.

Varied Program At Social Session

A number of features were presented on the program at Thursday evening's social meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective association in the F. O. E. hall.

A class was initiated during the business session and Miss Estella Newman honored with a shower. Several numbers were presented with dancing being the principal event of the evening.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Josephine Hober and Frances Bentley.

Lodge Officers

Above are shown (top) Mrs. Carrie Mae Rickard of this city, warden of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, and Mrs. Estelle Weed of Portland, state president, who made her official visit to the Medford lodge Monday evening.

Plans Advanced By Groups For Holiday Affairs

Preliminary plans are already in process of formation for holiday entertainment, which always sets a mark to shoot at for number and variety of affairs.

Among those announcing plans are members of the Oregon State club, who will again entertain with their annual dance for students and former students of the college set.

First gathering of the club for the present season has been scheduled for Dec. 4 at the Girls' Community club and an invitation is extended to all alumni or former students of Oregon State college and their friends, wives and husbands.

The affair is being arranged as a no-host affair to greet those eligible who are not affiliated with the organization. Bridge will be played, the scholarship fund discussed and definite arrangements made for the holiday dance. Refreshments are being planned by those in charge.

Farewell Party Friday Evening

The Misses Florence Fry and Arnes Robinson entertained 12 guests at a cocktail party Friday evening in compliment to the Misses Mildred Ankrum and Helen Hellman, who were departing for San Francisco and Los Angeles for a vacation visit with friends.

Travel Is Popular With Medfordites During Fall Season

Travel has become the most popular fall diversion for Medford residents to judge from the numerous comings and goings to date. Coast football games have attracted an even larger number than usual this year, with the bridge opening in San Francisco drawing an even greater number.

Many residents chose to spend their fall vacations in the east with the greater number still away. California resorts provided a destination for others and a few are even farther away. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard are still vacationing in Hawaii and will not return until after the first of the month.

Among those attending the Oregon-Oregon State game at Corvallis this week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Scott V. Davis and their daughter Marilyn. They plan to continue to Portland for a several days' visit and will spend Thanksgiving in Longview with relatives.

Recently returned travelers are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray and daughter Dolores and Miss Mabel Ray. They were among the many going to San Francisco for the bridge opening. While there they also attended the Oregon-California game last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Haskins left this morning by motor for San Francisco and other bay cities. They plan a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Haskins' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Johnson of Berkeley and other relatives and friends in the bay area.

A large group left by special car Thursday evening for the big game of the south, Stanford-California, yesterday afternoon with many planning to remain in San Francisco for a few days.

Among those who were in the southland enjoying the conference football games and a view of the bay bridge were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wright, who have recently returned to their home here after a two weeks' stay in Los Angeles and other California cities.

Nominate Heads Friday Evening

First nomination of officers was a feature of the Pochontas lodge meeting Friday night with the second nomination planned for this week.

Following lodge session members and friends were entertained at a hard-times dance. Plans have been announced for another dance Dec. 11.

Daughters of Nile To Send Donation

The Thanksgiving box sent annually to the State hospital for crippled children in Portland by the Daughters of the Nile is to leave for the north tomorrow, those in charge have announced.

Those making donations are requested to leave them at the J. D. Rickert office, 222 East Main street, by tomorrow.

Making arrangements for the box are Mrs. O. L. Overmyer, Mrs. R. R. Johnson and Mrs. J. D. Rickert.

Club-Lodge Announcements

P. E. O.

Clayton A. P. E. O. will meet at the home of Mrs. C. C. Furnas, 41 Rose avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Portland Visitors Entertained Here

Mayor George W. and Mrs. Porter entertained with dinner at their home at 626 Minnesota avenue Friday evening in honor of Dr. Raymond R. and Mrs. Staub and Colonel Earl Popp of Portland.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Stephenson, A. H. Banwell and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter. Dr. Staub, physician and chairman of the Oregon state board of aeronautics, and Colonel Popp, regional director of the bureau of air commerce, came to Medford to speak at a Jackson county chamber of commerce forum-luncheon.

The Portland group left yesterday afternoon for Klamath Falls by plane.

Music Is Subject For Club Program At Recent Session

Music provided the subject for discussion on the program at last week's meeting of the Wednesday Study club. Current events were presented by Mrs. Harold Grey.

Mrs. W. C. James arranged the principal program which included a comprehensive sketch of the life and career of Toscanini, recognized as the world's greatest conductor, by Mrs. W. J. Warner.

Mrs. Warner stated that Toscanini began his musical career at an early age and kept perfecting himself as his goal. Today, at the age of 70, he is still striving for perfection. Mrs. Warner used as a basis for her talk Paul Stefan's book, which she said could not be called a biography of the artist but is a tribute to his long and useful life.

Mrs. James presented excerpts from "Music on the Air" by Hazel Gertrude Kinsella and also discussed America's folk songs. She pointed long been the acknowledged folk music of the Indian and negro music has music of America and added to the list the "lonesome tunes" of the south.

An illustration of this latter classification, Mrs. J. C. Collins, guest artist, described and sang two songs of that type and continued with two of Schubert's compositions. She was accompanied by Mrs. James.

State President Monday Visitor

Mrs. Estelle Weed of Portland, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, was entertained here Monday evening by the local lodge as she made her official visit.

About 100 members and guests were present to greet the state head at the meeting in the Odd Fellows hall. Refreshments were served following the business session.

Mrs. Weed and Mrs. Carrie Mae Rickert of this city, state warden, attended a district convention in Canyonville last week end in their official capacities and Mrs. Rickert was a guest of Mrs. Grants Pass lodge Tuesday evening.

During her stay here Mrs. Weed was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Rickert.

Luncheon Event For Past Matrons

Luncheon covers for eighteen were laid Wednesday for members of the Past Matrons club of Nevita chapter, O. E. S., at the home of Mrs. E. C. Faber. Tables were decorated in holiday colors.

In charge of the luncheon were Mesdames Elizabeth Scott, Elizabeth Faber, Leta Kyle, Nettie Walker, Isabel Leever and Ewel Freeman.

Wenonahs Play Cards Friday

Members of the Wenonah club were entertained Thursday afternoon at a card party at the Redman hall. Luncheon covers for members of the Past Matrons club of Nevita chapter, O. E. S., at the home of Mrs. E. C. Faber. Tables were decorated in holiday colors.

Announcement was made that the club is arranging a public card party for this Friday evening at the Redman hall at 8 o'clock.

Miss Watling To Speak at Meeting

Miss Gertrude Watling will speak to ladies of the Kiwanis club as a feature of the program being planned for the meeting Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Thompson is to be hostess to the group at her home, 29 Summit avenue for dessert bridge at 1:30 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Dillard and Mrs. Mark Clemenson.

Members are to bring sewing being done as a Christmas project, those in charge have announced.

Mrs. Strang Home From Visit South

Returning home the latter part of the week was Mrs. Charles Strang, who spent several days in San Francisco. She went south with her son, Herbert, who had visited here for the golden wedding celebration of his parents a short time ago.

As were many other Medford residents, Mrs. Strang was attracted south by opening ceremonies of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge last week. She spent ten days in the bay city.

Miss Runels To Wed Ray Frisbie Thanksgiving Day

Attracting much attention in Medford circles is the coming wedding of Miss Blanche Runels, daughter of Philip S. Runels of Santa Maria, Calif., and Ray Frisbie, which is to be an event of Thanksgiving Day.

The ceremony will be solemnized at noon in Trinity church in Portland. The couple will be attended by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yocheley of Portland and no others will be present for the simple service.

Bride and groom will have a short trip before returning to make their home here next week.

Among those entertaining for the bride-elect were Miss Josephine Koppes, Mrs. Karl Janouch and Mrs. C. J. Drummond, who were joint hostesses Thursday evening, inviting a number of friends to the Janouch home in honor of Miss Runels.

Other affairs are being planned to precede the ceremony.

Group to Entertain Large Number At Afternoon Affair

Among prominent affairs of the week-end for the younger set is the tea being planned for this afternoon by the Gamma Alpha Beta sorority. Invitations were sent out Wednesday to approximately fifty guests.

Special guests of honor will be mothers of the members.

Miss LaVerne Stephenson is to be hostess for the affair at the R. A. Stephenson home on Arcadia Court. Guests will call between the hours of four and six. Members will preside at the tea tables.

This is the first social affair of the winter season for the group and plans are being made for a dance and other events during the coming months.

Members of the group are the Misses Peggy Heter, Kathleen Dillard, LaVerne Stephenson, Florence Ringgen, Katharine Ford, Janice Shreve, Patsy Smith, Frances Daly, Frankie Rinabarger and Lois Herman.

Annual Service Is Presented Tuesday

Hostesses this past week were members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church who entertained a large group of members and guests at the annual praise service in the church Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Maynard Putney, president, presided at the affair.

Appearing on the program were Mrs. Walter Fraser Brown, speaking on Siam, and Mrs. Frank Albert who discussed "Our Work in the Southern Mountains."

Mrs. E. Iverson presented the impressive Thanksgiving service of music, readings and prayer.

Following the business session and program refreshments were served with an informal social atmosphere prevailing. Mrs. E. Iverson, Mrs. E. J. White and Mrs. F. Wortman were among those in charge of refreshments.

Mothers Hostesses At Dessert Luncheon

Among hostesses of the week were members of the Delafay Mothers' club, who arranged a dessert bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon in the Girls' Community clubrooms.

Scoring awards went to Mrs. Glenn J. Key, Mrs. Blanche Taylor and Mrs. Harry Webster.

Mrs. Grant Todd is to be hostess to the Mothers' club at a Christmas party December 21 at her home, 504 Palm street, it has been announced.

Official Visitors Here This Week

Brig. Gen. S. E. Watkins of Newberg, past department commander of Patriots Militant, a branch of the I. O. O. F., accompanied by Mrs. Watkins made a fraternal visit to the Medford branch this week.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Nettie LaPorte of Eugene, president of the Ladies' Association of Patriots Militant, who made her official visit to the local group Friday evening.

Th. Watkins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redden and Mrs. LaPorte was entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Rickert. The group returned north yesterday.

University Group Shown Exhibition

An unusual feature of the Saturday luncheon meeting of the Medford branch of the American Association of University Women was an exhibit of toys of educational value to children.

The display, which also included examples of correct books for young readers was arranged by Miss Helen Parish and Mrs. Paul Menegat.

Music during the luncheon included numbers by a vocal trio of high school girls, Corinne Howard, Rose Ellen Blomker and Hope Hammond. They were accompanied at the piano by Dorothy Hester.

Miss Carin Degermark, president, conducted the session which included a discussion of numerous business matters and announcement of December 12 as the next meeting date.

Miss Ellenburg To Wed Richard Baize

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellenburg have announced the engagement of their daughter, Doris to Richard H. Baize, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Baize. A definite date has not been set as yet for the wedding which will be an event of early December.

Both Miss Ellenburg and Mr. Baize are graduates of the Medford high school and are well known here and their many friends have been interested in announcement of the coming wedding.

They plan to make their home here where both have resided with their families for the past few years.

Official Is Guest Of Temple Tuesday

Entertained here Tuesday evening was Ella Roper, grand chief of Oregon who was the guest of Tallman temple Pythian Sisters on her official visit to the local group.

Among business of the evening was the nomination of new officers. Refreshments were served following the temple session.

Committees were appointed to confer with the Knights of Pythias concerning arrangements for a dance at the K. P. hall November 30 for members and their friends.

Plans were also announced for a pot-luck supper at the next meeting scheduled for Dec. 1.

Elks And Guests To Dance On Eve Of Thanksgiving

One of the most important social functions of the fall season will be the Thanksgiving eve dance to be presented for Elks and their invited friends in the ballroom of the Elks temple here Wednesday night.

The committee in charge has estimated that the greatest number to attend an Elks dance this year will be present. A special decorator has been retained to arrange a harvest effect in the ballroom, with the work already underway.

Dancing will start at 9:30, with Les Price's 10-piece swing band furnishing the music. The dance will be informal.

Elk dances have always been recognized as among the most entertaining features of the season.

Thursday Club Changes Session

This week's meeting of the Thursday Morning Study club has been scheduled for Friday morning following Thanksgiving, according to announcement made yesterday.

Included on the program will be a discussion of modern dictatorship and causes of war by Mrs. William Campbell and a book review by Mrs. Rose Scheffelin.
