SOCIETY and Clubs

American Legion Auxiliary

By Grace Holmes
The next meeting of the American Legion auxiliary is to be held in the Baldwin piano shop club room on Monday evening, November 23rd, at eight o'clock. This meeting is the social meeting of the month with Mrs. Roland Smith, membership chairman, in charge of the social hour. The evening is to be a well-earned "get acquainted" party. All new members and prospective members are asked to be present. If there are any auxiliary members of other units living in Medford or vicinity who would like to have them meet with us and become acquainted. The new membership cards are ready and will be distributed Monday evening.

The auxiliary year is divided into months during which the chairman of each committee is asked to provide entertainment for the social hour of her particular month. In this way the auxiliary membership becomes acquainted with work of each committee. These months are listed as follows:
November, membership month, membership chairman Mrs. Roland Smith.
December, hospital month, hospital chairman, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuhrer.
January, legislative month, legislative chairman, Mrs. Earl York.
February, Americanism and national defense, Mrs. Wm. Holloway and Mrs. Cass Wyomere.
March, community service, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Flegel.
April, child welfare, Mrs. Thomas Freed and Mrs. Carol Parker.
May, poppy, chairman, Mrs. Weldon Cleaves.

Members are asked to watch for the date of the rummage sale to be held in the near future.

Christmas Party
Planned by Group
Plans for a Christmas party Tuesday evening, December 7th, at the home of Mrs. E. M. Wilson were announced at the all-day session of the Baptist ladies' auxiliary Tuesday. Mrs. Everett Finley was hostess for the event and luncheon was served at noon.

Business session followed luncheon with various games being arranged for entertainment during the afternoon.

Royal Neighbors
Response Session
Because of the regular meeting date falling on Thanksgiving Day, Monday and Tuesday evenings, this week's session of Royal Neighbors has been postponed, with a definite date to be announced later. The group was host to a large number Thursday evening at card awards given to Mrs. Marie Gatenbein, Carl Pearson, Ed Lovell and Charles Lewis.

The Grange
Applegate Grange
Grange met November 18 with Master Edwin Taylor presiding. Marion Matheny, Barbara Mee, Aubrey Taylor and Chas. Offenbacher were obligated in third and fourth degrees.

Election of officers was main business of the evening. Officers were elected as follows: master, Edwin Taylor; overseer, Bernard Audien; lecturer, Mildred Taylor; steward, Ashton Hill; chaplain, Margaret Lester; treasurer, Clarence Gassaway; secretary, Naomi Smith; gatekeeper, Aubrey Taylor; Ceres, Barbara Mee; Ramona, Lois Matheny; Flora, Marion Matheny; lady assistant, Harriet Matheny; executive committee, Frank Knutzen, C. U. Thomas and Roy Johnston.
Thanksgiving night a dance will be given at the hall sponsored by the Grange.

CAMPAIGN TO AID TURKEY RAISERS MEETS APPROVAL

Popular and favorable response continued to be made yesterday to the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce plan to aid Rogue River valley farmers by reducing surplus turkey stocks through a pre-holiday increase in consumption.

E. T. Allen, owner and manager of the Allen hotel, announced that every employee of the hotel would be given a gift turkey for Thanksgiving. This is the second Medford business enterprise to announce such a policy, the J. C. Penney department store having disclosed Friday that all of its employees would be given birds for the holiday.

Medford post 15 of the American Legion will help carry out the chamber's idea by serving a free turkey dinner at a stag party Tuesday night for all World War veterans in Jackson county.

In furtherance of the plan, turkey was served at the "daddies" night celebration held Friday evening in the Lincoln school. About 150 persons attended. Also to carry out the idea, the Eastern Star served a turkey dinner at the past masters' night held Friday evening in the Masonic temple.

Meantime all Medford service clubs had ordered turkey menus for their luncheons and dinners this week and turkey is to be served also at the joint dinner-dance to be held at the Chateau Wednesday night by the Active clubs of Medford and Ashland. The 20-club enjoyed a turkey dinner at the Chateau last night. Restaurants and hotels throughout the county are featuring turkey dinners at reduced rates.

"The movement is gaining momentum and officials of the chamber are well satisfied," said A. H. Bannister, chamber manager. "We should like to have the growers come a little more to the forefront and help us push this campaign. We should like to hear from growers who have not yet arranged for the marketing of their turkeys so that in the event we receive inquiries we can be of a more direct help."

LEGION STAG FOR COUNTY VETERANS

Medford post 15 of the American Legion will be host to all Jackson county veterans of the World War at a stag party Tuesday evening in Knights of Pythias hall, 5th and Grape streets, it was announced yesterday by J. P. Flegel, commander. Horace Bromley is in charge of intelligence and Cole Holmes is head of the dinner committee.

Festivities will start at 8 o'clock with a program of entertainment in lieu of the usual business session. Dinner will be held after the program and turkey will be served to help carry out the Chamber of Commerce plan to reduce a surplus stock of the birds, Mr. Holmes said.

The party is free and post officers said it was hoped that all the World War veterans of the county would attend.

NEW SERVICE AT CUPP'S EXCHANGE
Inaugurating a new service for patrons of the John Cupp Furniture store, Cupp's Furniture Exchange was opened for business yesterday at 409 East Main street across from the Roxy theatre. C. M. Hon, well-known local salesman, is manager of Cupp's new department.

Old, out of date furniture may now be disposed of under the exchange plan by which it is applied on new, high grade pieces selected from John Cupp's extensive stock in the store located at 317 East Main street. New furniture at moderate price is also available at the exchange store.

"This is no ordinary second hand store. Every piece of furniture will be certified. In other words, it will be thoroughly fumigated in our own plant under the requirements of the sanitary laws of Oregon. Each article will bear the certified tag showing that state board of health regulations have been fulfilled," Mr. Cupp stated.
