

Oregon State Outclasses Oregon to Win 18 to 0 — Joe Gray Stars

SCORING THREATS OF WEBFEET END ON 1-YARD LINE

Passes And Punts Key To Victory — Nicholson Stages Long Run — Statistics Even.

BELL FIELD, CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—The football drought at Oregon State college came to an end today.

An inspired Beaver eleven, paced by the passing and line pounding of a fleet left halfback, Joe Gray, swarmed all over ancient rivals from the University of Oregon and handed them their first beating in this inter-school classic in four years, 18 to 0, before a near-capacity home-crowd of 18,000.

Gray, man of all work, never scored but two of his passes, one in the first quarter and another in the second, went for touchdowns and he put the ball almost on the goal line in the fourth period, after which a big fullback, Kolberg, carried it over from the one-yard line.

The Beavers never were able to convert but they didn't need to. Oregon was not without its moments. Nicholson, left halfbacking for the Webfoots, almost scored in the first period but the officials ruled that his knee touched the ground in skirting left end and State took the ball on downs on its one-yard line.

In the third period, Kennedy, quarterback, dropped a pass on the goal line.

Oregon State started its touchdown parade in businesslike fashion, ringing up a score shortly after the kickoff. Taking the ball on their 42, Gray and Kolberg, fullback, alternated in chalking up four consecutive first downs on passes and line plunges the Oregon eight. Line plays added three more before Gray flung a pass to Swanson, right half, in the end zone for a score. Swanson's kick for the extra point was blocked.

Late in the second period, State started from its 45 and marched to the Oregon five, mostly via the air, when Gray, on third down, faked back and tossed another pass across the goal to Wendick, right end. Swanson tried another kick and missed.

As a nightcap, the Beavers launched another victory march in the fourth period from their own 27. Gray passed to Wendick for eight yards, ran 17 through the line and needing a first down from the Oregon 18, he bucked the line twice for 12 yards, fumbled on the next play but recovered on the four, where Oregon stood the Beavers off twice on downs before Kolberg crashed through Hutchins' kick was wide.

Despite the overwhelming score, Oregon again proved its ability to look well in the statistics, chalking up 144 yards from scrimmage to 187 for State and accumulating 61 yards on passes to 86 for the Beavers. Oregon rolled up eight first downs, seven from scrimmage, to 12 for State, eight from scrimmage.

The kicking of Duncan, Beaver quarterback, repeatedly knocked the steam out of Oregon's drive, his spirals traveling 80 yards, while Lasselle, whose line plunging provided the crowd with thrills, bobbled his punts, several leaving the Webfoots in danger.

Oregon's two scoring threats were produced by Nicholson, Lasselle and Bradlock.

Shortly after Oregon State had drawn first blood, Nicholson, sweeping the ends with a run of 35 yards and another for 10 yards, put the ball deep in Oregon State territory, but lost it on fourth down, when in his dash goalward officials ruled his knee was grounded.

Making a desperate comeback drive after halftime, Oregon opened up with Nicholson, Lasselle and Bradlock gaining consistently through the State line. On the 18-yard line, Gammon heaved a fast, high pass to Kennedy but the quarterback, standing on the goal line, couldn't handle the ball and it fell incomplete, and with it went Oregon's last dangerous scoring threat.

YALE NOSES OUT HARVARD 14-13 FOR BIG THREE TITLE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Yale barely stayed off a great Harvard second half rally today to beat the Crimson 14 to 13, and capture the 1936 "big three" football championship.

A crowd of 88,000 saw Harvard score in each of the last two periods after trailing by 14 points at half time. Captain Larry Kelly talked one of Yale's touchdowns to set a record for scoring in every "big three" game in three years.

PRINCETON, N.J., Nov. 21.

—(AP)—Scoring in three of the four periods, Dartmouth and Princeton ran down the curtain on their 1936 football season by battling to a 13-13 tie before 42,000 people in Palmer stadium today.

VAST CROWD SEES CALIFORNIA WIN OVER CARDS, 20-0

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Berkeley, Calif., Nov. 21.—(UP)—The University of California Golden Bears wrote a happy ending to their 1936 western football campaign today by defeating Stanford University's Indians 20-0 in the 42nd annual game between the two northern California schools.

While 32,000 persons, the largest football crowd in the far west this season, went mildly mad in the excitement and the crush of northern California's "big game," the Bears put over touchdowns in the second, third and fourth quarters and converted for the extra point twice for their biggest victory over the ancient rivals since 1922 and their first win in the series since 1931.

California started to pour it on with Bottari's entrance into the game starting the second quarter.

The dark haired sophomore ripped off 40 yards in five plunges for three first downs to put the ball only 35 yards from the Stanford goal. Then he tried two passes and neither of them connected. The third time he drew back his arm and let fly. Henry Sparks was under the ball down near the goal line. So was little Jimmy Coffin, Stanford safety man. Coffin got there first, but he couldn't reach the ball. All he could do was tip it. Tip it he did right into Sparks' hands as the California end was falling to the ground. Sparks held the ball as he dropped on the goal line for the score. Then he kicked a placement for conversion to end the first half scoring.

In the third period, California used the air and the ground for another scoring drive from 35 yards out.

An intercepted pass led to the third touchdown in the final period. Chapman stepped in front of one of Calvelli's long tosses and ran 35 yards to the Stanford 18 before he was spilled. A penalty and vicious drives by Bottari moved the ball to Stanford's two yard line, where a neat bit of strategy produced a six point dividend. Stanford was set for another Bottari rush and Vic Obliger. But as he hit he turned and tossed laterally to Chapman who was in the clear. It was only an abort step to the goal and Chapman made it in a single bound. His try for point was wide. California came within inches of another score in the last second of play.

GEORGIA UPSETS FORDHAM HOPE OF ROSE BOWL GAME

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(UP)—Georgia jolted Fordham out of the Rose Bowl picture today.

Before 35,000 amazed spectators in the Polo grounds, the scrappy scarlet-shirted men from Dixie smashed the Rams' dream of "Rose Hill to Rose Bowl" by holding them to a 7-7 tie.

It was the second tie this season for Fordham.

In the first half, Georgia threw back Fordham's mighty line—the so-called seven blocks of granite—and early in the third period, took to the air and grabbed a 7-0 lead when halfback Maurice Green flipped a 30-yard touchdown pass to Otis Maffett, an end. Young converted.

That score—the first touchdown recorded this season by any of Fordham's major opponents—was made while Ram outposts were in action. "Sleepy" Jim Crowley, Fordham coach, quickly threw in the first stringers who, with Joe Dulike and Captain Frank Mautte leading the charge, ripped off 70 yards on the ground as they smashed to a touchdown. Palau converted.

Fordham outplayed the boys from Dixie but the breaks favored the southerners. The Rams made 12 first downs to five, eleven of which were by rushing. They made 149 yards to 88 through the line, 84 yards against 38 through the air—but except for that one sustained scoring drive, the Rams couldn't deliver.

MONTANA BLASTS FRISCO DONS 24-7

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Montana's Grizzlies sprinted and kicked to a spectacular 24 to 7 football victory over the University of San Francisco Dons today. The spectators numbered 6,000.

The Dons entered the second half with a 7 to 6 lead as a result of a 50-yard pass from McCafferty to Haggerty, who, trapped on the 15-yard line, lateraled to Ray Peterson. Peterson crossed the goal line untouched.

But the Grizzlies soon overtook the Dons. Milt Popovich, Montana ace, climaxed a march in the opening period with a seven-yard thrust for a touchdown and Whittinghill put the Grizzlies in front in the third quarter with a 36-yard field goal.

FIRST BEAR WIN IN FIVE YEARS SPARKED BY BOTTARI — LUCKY CATCH GIVES FIRST SCORE.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 21.—(UP)—The fighting Irish of Notre Dame brought 'em back alive today.

They tamed, beat and caged the mighty Wildcats of Northwestern by the astonishing score of 26 to 6, ending a college football lull that had not been halted through rain and sunshine for seven straight games, a raid that found them even floating on the national championship dream of mighty Minnesota.

Notre Dame, playing brilliant mechanical as well as inspired football, astonished a capacity crowd of 36,000 spectators this blustery November afternoon by whipping the champions of the western conference in one of the biggest upsets of the season. The pop-eyed spectators left the Notre Dame stadium wondering which was now the ranking No. 1 football team of the nation. They knew it was no longer Northwestern.

Notre Dame took advantage of every opportunity to outmaneuver the fagged out, hitherto unbeaten Wildcats. The size of the score just about indicates the difference between the two teams. Notre Dame, practically handed three touchdowns in glaring misplays and fumbles, but it was the vicious tackling of the fighting Irish, their terrific blocking and faultless execution of plays that won their most impressive victory of the year.

Four touchdowns were scored by Notre Dame, one in each period before the badly whipped Wildcats staged themselves long enough to stage a 77-yard march in the fourth to register their only score. From start to finish, except for a few minutes in the closing period when Notre Dame had a lead of 26 to 0, the Irish outplayed Northwestern, and wiped out that stunning upset of a year ago, when the Wildcats handed them their only defeat of the 1935 season.

FIGHTING IRISH CONQUER BIG 10 CHAMPIONS 26-6

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Duquesne University's great underdog eleven overwhelmed the previously unbeaten Marquette university Avianche 13 to 0 today before 27,000 cheering fans. Boyd Brumbaugh started, in passing 32 yards to Hesterle for one score, and bucking two yards for the other touchdown. He kicked the extra point after the second marker.

DUQUESNE DOWNS MARQUETTE 13-0; GOPHERS TRIUMPH

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 21.—(AP)—A battle of forward passes left Indiana and Purdue all even as the two teams fought to a spectacular 20 to 20 tie before 30,000 fans here today.

A scoreless first half was followed by a display of offensive fireworks in the closing half which saw both teams score three touchdowns and two extra points. Every touchdown was made by the forward pass route.

GOPHERS COAST

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 21.—(AP)—The University of Minnesota's powerful gridiron machine clicked off three touchdowns and a field goal in the first half and then coasted to a 24 to 0 victory over Wisconsin today. About 33,000 persons saw the game.

IDAHO EKES OUT WIN O'ER DAKOTA

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Idaho's Vandals came from behind today to turn back the battling Bisons of North Dakota State college, 13 to 12, in an intersectional aerial football battle.

A Dad's day crowd of 3,200 went wild late in the third period as the Vandals culminated a 40-yard march with the winning touchdown. With the ball on the 19-yard line, Maxson dropped back and threw an easy pass to Rex Willard, of Spearfish. South Dakota, who was clear in the end zone.

The placekick was wide, but the extra point by Steve Belko after a previous touchdown was enough for victory.

BRUBAKER FLATTENS SAVOLDI, HANDLY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Phil Brubaker, young Dinuba, Cal., heavyweight whose rapid rise ascent was halted several months ago by Jack Sharkey, is on the comeback trail today, boosted along by his third-round technical knockout of Lee Savoldi of St. Paul.

Savoldi was flattened half a dozen times by the Californian's solid blows in their ten-round match here last night.

Brubaker weighed 191, Savoldi 161.

TURKEY SHOOT AT GUN CLUB TODAY

The annual Thanksgiving turkey shoot of the Medford Gun club will be held at the club's trap north of the airport starting at 10:30 this morning, with events arranged for all kinds of shooters.

The event is open to the public, and shooters from all parts of southern Oregon and northern California are expected, aside from a large number of local scatter-gunners. Over 30 turkeys will be given away, in addition to geese, hams, bacon, chickens and sugar.

Gun club officials have arranged the firing so that inexperienced bombers will have as good a chance at trophies as the crack shot. There will be squads of five beginners at various times during the day, and special "pot-luck" shoots whereby five entrants put their names on a piece of paper, a charge of shot will be fired into it, and the name with the most holes in or near it wins the turkey.

Shet shooters are not being neglected, and there will be special events for them during the day. A lunch will be prepared and served on the grounds.
