PAROLE REVOKED WHEN FORGER SLIPS AGAIN

ROSEBURG, Ore., Nov. 24.—(AP)—Faye Springer, released from the county jail Nov. 9, on parole from a sentence of one year in the state penitentiary on a charge of forgery, was back in custody today and is to be taken to Salem to serve out the sentence imposed in September Sheriff Percy Webb announced. His parole was revoked as a result of his arrest Saturday for his admitted theft of $12 from the cash register of a service station where he was employed, the sheriff said.

Griffin Creek

GRIFIN CREEK, Nov. 24.—(Sp.)—The program and social held at the school house Friday evening was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd. The committee in charge was well pleased with the success of the meeting. The program was as follows: Address of welcome by the Grange Master, J. D. Brown; two selections by the Grange orchestra; song, by the double quartet readings, by Iva Harper; solo, by Mrs. Wm. Holloway of Medford; selections, by four Hawaiian guitarists; solo, Myron Eaton, accompanied on the piano by his mother; piano solo, Charlotte Benson; talk by Mrs. Holloway on the Warm Springs, Georgia, institute, which was very interesting; selections by orchestra; coffee was served. During social hour pie and candy were sold.

High School News by STUDENT REPORTERS

A week of labor by the staff of the Hi-Times will be realized in black and white when the holiday edition of the school paper comes out Wednesday morning of this week. Martin Oatis, as editor, with Ray Cronkite assisting him, has pushed through the publication of the paper in order to have it for the student body during the Thanksgiving holidays.

This paper will be the usual copy of the Hi-Times filled with school news, columns by student reporters, editorials, jokes and quips.

The paper will be given out to all the students Wednesday and will undoubtedly be met with its usual enthusiasm.

By Barbara Hampson Greatly cheered in mind, the 700 odd students of this noble institute of learning will be dismissed Wednesday afternoon for a four days' vacation lasting over all day Thursday and including Friday with Saturday and Sunday added as usual.

This vacation is due to the Thanksgiving holidays. It is probable that this vacation will be enjoyed by the Associated Student Body.

It is hoped that the three days following Thursday will be sufficient time for everyone to recover from the effects of "stuffing" Thanksgiving Day.

By Merlin Dow Work has begun on "Among Those Present," a Christmas play to be given the afternoon of December 18 by the Dramatic Club.

Due to the overwhelming amount of girls in the club, a play was chosen with an all-girl cast. Those selected for parts were: Jean Horton, Janice Shreve, Dorothy Bookler, Glenda Wirth, Corrinne Harwood, Virginia Martin and Lucille Knox.

"Among Those Present" is a short one-act play of live comedy interest containing the Christmas spirit. The one-act has not been started on but will soon be under way. The Dramatic club hopes that the Christmas play will be even better than those of previous years and that the attending crowd will enjoy the performance.

A government campaign in Kansas to eliminate diseased dairy cattle reduced the percentage of tubercular cattle from five percent in some counties to less than one-half of one percent in every county within a year.

Appendicitis was first recognized as an exact disease in 1885.

Tests by Kansas State college officials showed that wheat yields on Kansas bindweed-infested land averaged 13.8 bushels an acre. Fields free of bindweed averaged 18.2 bushels.

COUNTY BRIEFS

Eagle Point

EAGLE POINT, Nov. 24.—(Sp.)—Ed Nunn and brother of eastern Oregon have moved into one of the houses owned by Mrs. Blanch Stanley on the south side of the creek. Ed Nunn is manager of the Eagle Point Irrigation district.

Mrs. Gayle Natwick of the Long Mountain district was a caller in Eagle Point Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Herb Perry, went to Medford last Wednesday to a doctor who removed a small growth from her nose. She is feeling much better at this time.

Mrs. R. O. Varnum and baby daughter Audrey Carol and Mrs. C. L. Moon and small daughter Betty Cecil of Butte Falls were callers of Mrs. Orville Henderson Friday.

Mrs. Mabel Warner of Medford is the new proprietor of the Oasis beauty parlor and took possession Wednesday of this week. The new friends and patrons of Mrs. Fred "Swinney" Parlow, former proprietor, will miss her, but as she will still live nearby, she most likely will be back occasionally just for solid times sake.

Floyd Pearce left last Thursday evening for Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. Tate of the McCloud resort, was a business caller in Eagle Point Thursday afternoon.

The Pleasant Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Bischoff Wednesday afternoon with 13 ladies present. The project for the day was last-minute Christmas gifts and each member displayed a last-minute present. As the president, Mrs. Thelma Martin, was unable to attend, Mrs. Sanderson took charge of the meeting and put on the following contests: Thanksgiving history, Thanksgiving nuts and Do You Know Your Music? Miss Eiva Adams won the prize in the Thanksgiving history contest. The next meeting will be held December 9 and the Christmas fish pond will be one feature of the day. The hostess, Mrs. Bischoff, served a delicious luncheon to end the pleasant afternoon.

Friday evening, December 4, the Antioch community Sunday school will have a social good time and a short program. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the evening. Each lady is asked to bring lunch for two and members will be drawn for supper partners. Coffee will be served by the Sunday school. Every one come and have a good time.

Lloyd Sanderson had the misfortune to crack a bone in his thumb Monday.

Upper Rogue Grange. Upper Rogue Grange met Nov. 19 with a very good attendance of 56, with 35 grange members also present from Eagle Point who put on the 3rd and 4th degree work, which was exceptionally fine. They also put on a very beautiful drill at the close of the degree work. All was very much enjoyed and appreciated, and we hope we may soon have the pleasure of seeing this work again. Two new applications were voted on favorably and three read for approval. It was voted to agree to set Dec. 27 for installation of officers with Eagle Point and Lake Creek Grange at Eagle Point. This is on a Sunday afternoon and is open to the public. Fine progress is being made on the new grange hall, the frame work is well up. Let's keep the good work up and we will soon be moving in. Four of the grange ladies were appointed to make a drive for funds needed for doors, windows, etc.

A very interesting talk was given by Mr. Ward, on cheese, it being national cheese week. Hymns were also sung in honor of Thanksgiving. The H. E. club turned over $30. Next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Ash at Trail, Dec. 15 and will be a Christmas exchange, 15c value. These meetings are always open to everyone, and the neighbors are cordially invited.

Ways and means announced another dance at Rogue Elk Nov. 28. All Grangers are urged to support these dances every other Saturday and urge their friends to do so, as all the funds from them go towards building the new hall.

A number were reported sick with colds. Dr. Mallory who fell and injured himself, is improved and has moved from the hospital to the Holland hotel.

Noted Architect Dies. CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Ernest Robert Graham, noted architect who designed many famous buildings, died at his home yesterday. He was 68. He designed the historic Flatiron building, New York's first skyscraper, Federal Reserve Bank buildings in Kansas City, Dallas, Denver and Oklahoma City.
