Wedding In South Surprises Friends

A recent announcement which comes as a surprise to their many friends in the valley is that of the marriage of Miss Alice Westerfield, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Hicks of this city, and Addison Helms, son of Mrs. Mary Helms of Klamath Junction.

The ceremony was solemnized in Los Angeles October 24. Both bride and groom are well known here and have a large circle of friends and acquaintances who will join in extending congratulations.

The groom has passed the last four years studying art in New York city and European cities. Since his return from Europe two years ago he has been engaged in art work in southern California. He painted murals for the San Diego exposition and also for the Dallas Centennial in Texas.

The young couple plan to make their home in Los Angeles. Days Visiting In New York. Among Medford residents in the east are Mr. and Mrs. John Day, who are visiting in New York City at the Hotel Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Day spent a large part of the summer here at the Reginald Parsons' home, Hillcrest Orchard. Mrs. Day was formerly Miss Mary Parsons.

Sunday Weddings In Climate City

Two weddings of interest to Medford friends were solemnized Sunday morning in Grants Pass.

Miss Irene Clara Koepsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Koepsell of this city, and Verne H. Penleton of Central Point took their vows in the Newman Methodist parsonage at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, with Rev. J. B. Coan reading the service. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Myron Downey. They plan to make their home in Central Point after a coast trip.

Also wed in the Climate City Sunday afternoon were Minnie J. Burrow of this city and Samuel T. Dickson, also of Medford. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis by Rev. C. H. Hillton. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wissing of Grants Pass. Mr. and Mrs. Dickson will make their home here.

Local Officers Honored Guests

Luncheon arranged by Rogue River chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Voorhies in Grants Pass the latter part of last week honored Mrs. Boone G. Harding of this city, state regent. Also honored guests from Medford were Mrs. C. C. Murray, regent of Crater Lake chapter, and Mrs. M. M. Morris, state secretary.

It was Mrs. Harding's official visit to the Grants Pass group and she addressed the members on her visit to the Continental Congress last spring in Washington, D. C., relating official matters pertaining to the organization. She also told of the reception given for state regents and delegates by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, a Washington member of D. A. R.

Many Students Expected Home

A large number of Medford students at University of Oregon and Oregon State college and other Oregon schools are expected to arrive home tomorrow evening and Thursday morning for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Among the large number welcomed will be Miss Ann Dean, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Dean, and Miss Mignon Phipps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Phipps, both of whom are students at the Eugene campus.

The arrival of the college group is expected to bring an added fillip to social activities over the week-end.

Rosenbergs Home From San Francisco

Returning home in time for the Thanksgiving holidays are Mr. and Mrs. David Rosenberg, who arrived this morning from the south.

The Rosenbergs were among the many Medford residents going to San Francisco last week to see California's big game of the year between Stanford and University of California. Opera performances and a view of the new bridge are also important attractions of the bay city during the fall months.

Teachers Form New Organization

Miss Sarah Van Meter was elected to head the Elementary Grade Teachers' association at the first meeting of the group held last evening for the purpose of organization. Others elected with Miss Van Meter were Mrs. George Canode, vice-president, and Clara Gumelius, secretary-treasurer.

Teachers of the Roosevelt school were hostesses and bridge and games followed the business session. Scoring awards went to Mrs. Iva D. Murray, Mrs. Wardlow Howell and Miss Lura Lynch.

The hostesses served refreshments to a large group. Purposes of the organization are designated as professional and social.

Tea Planned For Members

Plans are now being completed by Southern Oregon Art association for a tea in honor of new members. Date of the affair has been set for Tuesday, December 1.

To Visit Here Over Holidays

Among out-of-town visitors expected here for the Thanksgiving holidays is Mrs. Marie Swinson of Napa, Calif., who will arrive Thursday morning. She is to be the guest of Mrs. Rose Eifert and Miss Edna Eifert and of Mrs. E. N. Eldridge.

Mrs. Swinson plans to return south Sunday and will be accompanied by Mrs. Eifert, who will be her guest for some time.

Farewell Dinner Honors Visitor

Mrs. L. E. Walker of Dayton, Wn., who has been a guest for the past ten days of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Todd, of Eagle Point, was honored with a farewell dinner recently arranged by her hosts.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bert Conner, Violet Trubee, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bender and other relatives and friends.

Mission Class Meets Friday

Announcement was made today that the Women's Missionary Study class will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Sherman L. Divine, 27 Ross Court. All members are urged to be present.

Find Four Bodies Beneath Debris Of Juneau Slide

Modern from start to finish and as frank as television, with every line, seasoned with the right dash of humor, the first night audience found "Oliver Oliver" last night. And liked it so well the advice of the hour is "go early tonight if you want to get a seat at St. Mark's Guild hall."

Everyone who went, is telling everyone else to go. For a spade's a spade in this smart creation of Paul Osborn's pen and the local cast doesn't mind calling it. The show started on the minute (8:15 o'clock) and galloped along with such sizzling dialogue the audience scarcely recognized the finish, when it arrived.

There wasn't a stall, scarcely a breathing spell, between laughs and the universal cry at the end was "give us more like this." Praise go to everyone in the cast and an orchid, a rose, or whatever she will have, to Jeanne Fabrick. She gave a truly professional interpretation of Constance Oakshot, who just was bent double under a fallen timber. Her skull was crushed and the back broken. The fifth known victim was Mrs. Gus Erickson, negress, whose body was recovered early yesterday from the debris of the small frame house in which she lived with her husband. He was in a serious condition from slide injuries today.

Stevart Christensen, caretaker of the Whaley lodging house, in the slide district, reported he saw several persons on S. Franklin street, in the path of the slide Sunday night. He said he believed they had been caught under the roaring mass of mud, stone, timbers and debris.

Spurred by the recovery of about five unidentified bodies from the ruins of Sunday's great landslide, rescue crews today redoubled their attacks on earth and wreckage they believed buried perhaps a dozen others.

The unverified death list stood at six or seven, with 10 injured in hospitals, and 13 missing, not finally accounted for.

HE MADE A TEN-YEAR TEST WITH ALL-BRAN

Say good-bye to the headaches, the low spirits, the sleeplessness that often follow common constipation. Just read this letter: "In 1926, I started using ALL-BRAN. And now, after ten years, during which I have put Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to a long, hard test, I am writing you this letter. It is better to eat this food and be in condition, than to resort to laxatives." —Bernard Altman, 63 Goodale Road, Mattapan, Mass.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will help you too. Its "bulk" absorbs moisture within the body, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system. Tests prove it is safe and effective. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. Either as a cereal, or in recipes. How much better to use this food than to take patent medicines. Buy ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

BRITAIN, FRANCE ACT TO PROTECT MERCHANT SHIPS

The ministry of navy to "take all appropriate measures looking to the protection of the French flag in Spanish waters." The cabinet was called to consider insurgent Commander Francisco Franco's threats of a blockade of government ports.

Italy, Germany Accused

The Spanish government in Madrid, after an investigation, mentioned the fascist powers of Italy and Germany by name and accused "foreign warships" of preying on the government navy.

These fascist powers have recognized the Franco provisional government as the de facto government of Spain, and it is on their political set-up that the Spanish fascists have indicated their regime would be modeled.

The Spanish communists indicated that a German U-boat might have looted the torpedo which Madrid charges damaged the cruiser Cervantes in Cartagena harbor Sunday.

Embassy to Move

While rapid developments in the Mediterranean drew the closest watch from the major European nations, the United States ordered its embassy in Madrid evacuated to Valencia, and offered safe conduct to all American nationals desiring to flee the harassed capital.

After Thursday morning the United States will have no diplomatic representation in the Spanish capital. Charge d'Affaires Eric C. Wendelin announced.

International volunteers, the Spanish government said, meanwhile halted a renewed insurgent attack on the northwestern University section of the capital, where bloody hand-to-hand fighting has been in progress for days.

SEE OLIVER TONIGHT, SAY THOSE WHO 'DID' COMEDY ON MONDAY

The plaintiff asks damages for injuries allegedly received while receiving treatment in the beauty shop of the defendants.

The case of the state against Harold J. Anderson, charged with driving an auto while intoxicated is set for December 3. The charge is taken direct to the circuit court, due to a previous conviction for the same offense, as provided under Oregon law.

The W. H. Gore suit is scheduled for December 9, and is allotted three days for hearing.

The auto damage suit of Lulu Luper against Val J. Placher, is set for Monday, December 21, and the auto damage suit of Dee Gentry against J. K. Baughman is listed for December 23.

During December, Judge Norton plans to hold court in Josephine county for one week.

had to get her bills paid through something more refined than labor. And her son, the famous Oliver Oliver, was done with convincing realism by Richard Siegler, who appeared so brilliantly apologetic it was hard for the local audience to identify him.

Neville Biden also rang the bell with a professional clang, hiding himself completely in the person of Justin Stock, fresh from flat Ohio, dipping the dialogue deeper and deeper into the fount of wit.

Anna Mae Fison, as Constance's "best friend," took on years and a sharpened tongue with convincing ease, never failing to give a natural twang to her pointed conversation.

Dorothy Pruitt was from first to last the lovely Phyllis, sought for her money, hiding her love and all together mixed up. She really made the audience feel her confusion.

Hale Greenman in the difficult role of the villain, if such he could be called in such a ridiculous drama, (he wanted the girl for her money) was equally adept at interpreting the author's intentions as Carl Bridgewater.

Kathleen Dillard and Bruce Hammond, as competent servants in a rather crazy (to say the least) household, completed the list of characters, contributing their part to the inspiring comedy.

Thanks go to St. Mark's Altar Guild, sponsoring the show and to Oliver's "Mae Early" who directed it. Also to Elizabeth Crissell for scenery; Herman Purucker for lighting; Ethel Burgess, program, and Mildred Schuchard, tickets. And (with a capital "A") to the following firms: John Cupp Furniture company, John A. Perl, Pruitt's Melody Shop, Baldwin Piano Co., Porter Lumber company, Purucker Electric, Kennel-Ellis studio, the Mail Tribune, the Medford News, KMED and Chamber of Commerce.

For gowns, worn by the devastating damsels, and apparel, equally dashing, worn by the men, "thank you" are voted to Ethelwyn Hoffmann, Adrienne's, Reinhart and Barker and The Toggery.

In the meantime, while the rest of the town prepares to see "Oliver Oliver" those who have, insist again that Medford should have a little theatre movement to add frequency to such clever entertainment.
