NEW LOW PRICE! HOLBROOK 90 PROOF BOURBON WHISKEY. Your fine acceptance of Holbrook, the friendly, wholesome Whiskey, has made possible a new, low scale of prices. Holbrook richly deserves such popularity. It is a clean, sanitary whiskey, born under the watchful scrutiny of many long years of laboratory control and scientific research. It is made by the exclusive Century Degerminating Process that reduces fusel-oil content to a minimum, assuring you of a fine, clean whiskey. Holbrook comes to you, a fine, mellow whiskey that measures both your taste and pocketbook. A PINT QUARTS... $1.10 CENTURY DISTILLING CO. PEORIA, ILL.

Returns Home—J. V. Watson returned home yesterday morning from a several days' stay in San Francisco. Employed Here—Dean Horne of Ashland is now employed at the Union service station here. Visits Grandparents—Medford visitors in Ashland over the week-end included Robert Madden, who was the guest of his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Brower. Visitor Leaves—Mrs. Dick Peterson has returned to her home in Ashland after spending two weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doss, at their home here. Daniels Home—Among recently returned Medford residents is T. E. Daniels, who arrived Sunday morning after spending two weeks in Los Angeles on a dapper southern California cities. Leaving for South—Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Arnold will leave by automobile tomorrow morning for Los Angeles where they will be Thanksgiving holiday guests of Mr. Arnold's mother, Mrs. A. E. Arnold. They plan to return to Medford Saturday. Mr. Arnold is manager here for Blake, Moffitt & Towne. Express Appreciation—Members of the Southern Oregon Art association today expressed thanks to the Mail Tribune and other newspapers of the valley for cooperation shown during the recent art exhibit. Flowers contributed by the Meyer Flowers shop also added much to the attractiveness of the rooms during the exhibit and were greatly appreciated, members stated. Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hartman are parents of a son born Sunday at the Ashland Community hospital. The baby, weighing 8 1/2 pounds, was named Dale Leonard. The Hartmans have been residents of Rogue River where Mr. Hartman has been a member of the school faculty. Mrs. Hartman was formerly Miss Maxine Miller of Ashland. To Serve Turkey—To help carry out the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce plan to reduce surplus stocks through increased consumption, the Rogue river national forest service will serve turkey at the Carberry ERA camp on week-ends for an indefinite period, as well as on Thanksgiving. It was announced today by Karl L. Janouch, forest supervisor. Three Injured—Slight injuries were suffered by West Brooks, Jr., Gene Elliott and Miss Juanita Allen, all of Grants Pass, when the car in which they were riding, driven by Brooks, skidded and turned over on the Pacific highway just north of Central Point Sunday morning. Brooks is said to have applied brakes when the machine went into a fog bank, resulting in the skid which demolished the car. Brush Fire—A brush fire on Poorman creek near Ruch was brought under control yesterday after it had spread across two acres. It was reported today by K. P. Reynolds, assistant United States forester in charge of fire control on the Rogue river national forest. A crew of 12 enrollees from the Applegate CCC camp fought the blaze. Cause was attributed to a mining clean-up fire that got out of control. Utilize Airport—Lieut. F. R. Sawyer brought down his Northrop attack plane at municipal airport yesterday noon for refueling. He was en route from Port Lewis, Wash., to March field, Riverside, Cal. After having lunch in town, he continued his flight south. Arrivals at the airport Sunday included Milton Barkow, en route from Portland to Santa Barbara, Cal., in a Fairchild; Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Parker of Ashland, who flew from the Lithia City to Medford and return in their Curtiss Robin; and Floyd Dickey of Ashland, who made a similar flight in his Avron Avian.

Laurel and Hardy On Holly Bill Laurel and Hardy, and their twin brothers, Laurel and Hardy (for screen purposes only), come to the Holly theater for tomorrow only in their latest full-length comedy "Our Relations." The two comedians play dual roles in the film—as a couple of well-meaning citizens leading sedate lives with their wives, and as their twin brothers—a couple of bad boys who were supposed to have been hanged for mutiny and whose existence had always been a closed book to the others. Then when, the almost forgotten twins return ashore, the fun begins. Mistaken identities is made the basis for many hilariously funny scenes at sea and on land.

Rialto's Drama A powerful story of circumstantial evidence in which a district attorney is himself caught in a web of circumstances which almost send him to the electric chair, is dramatically portrayed in "The Accusing Finger," a gripping story of the law courts which plays at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Thursday on a double bill program with "CCC All American Champ."

Roxy Comedy Nominated for the laugh prize of 1935 and all ready on its way, is "Three Live Ghosts," the hilarious film starring Richard Arlen and Beryl Mercer, which plays at the Roxy theater tomorrow only. Others in the cast are Claude Allister, Cecelia Parker, Charles MacNaughton and Dudley Digges.
