

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

To Portland—Among those expected to leave by train tonight for the north is Mrs. J. F. Smith, who will go to Portland.

Has Operation—Mrs. E. J. Madden is among patients at Community hospital, having undergone an appendectomy Monday evening.

Temporary Move—Biden shoe service announced today its removal to the Kidd store on East Main street during remodeling of its premises at 19 South Central avenue.

Colton North—Sam Colton planned to leave tonight for Portland to join Mrs. Colton, who has been visiting there. They expect to spend several days visiting in the north.

Phylian Home—Returning home this morning was George Phyllian, who has spent the past few weeks traveling in the east, stopping in a number of cities on business.

Business Visitors—Out-of-town residents transacting business here yesterday included Will M. Dodge, T. L. O'Hara, P. L. Nutter and Earl Baird, all of Ashland.

Parent Tonight—A Thanksgiving pageant will be given in the Howard school at 7:30 this evening. Admission will be a pound of food stuffs that can be used in making soup in the school kitchen.

Get License—A marriage license was issued at the Josephine county clerk's office in Grants Pass Saturday to Adolph Louis Straube, farmer, and Luetta Nancy West, both of Jacksonville.

Here from Ashland—Among out-of-town visitors in Medford Monday were R. H. Elhart of Ashland, who transacted business here, and Glen Johnson, also of Ashland, who attended a committee meeting here in the evening.

Grange Dance—Ways and means committee of the Phoenix Grange will sponsor a dance at the hall Friday night, starting at 9 o'clock. Silva's orchestra will furnish the music, and turkey sandwiches will be served by the committee. Those in charge state that everyone is welcome.

Back from Game—Capt. and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson and daughter Kathryn returned Monday evening from a four-day vacation trip to the big game at Corvallis. They also visited in Portland and Salem. Lieut. E. J. Brugger accompanied them to Portland and returned with them Monday.

Back from Inspection—H. C. Obye, assistant supervisor of the Rogue river national forest, was back at his office in federal building today after completing a general inspection of Pelican Bay Lumber company logging operations northeast of Crater lake. He returned via Dead Indian Soda Springs and Lake of the Woods, where he also made inspections.

Return from Conference—Eugene C. Golden, district educational adviser, and Don Mace, adviser at Prescott and headquarters detachment, returned late last night from Vancouver where they took part in an educational conference held by the Vancouver Barracks CCC district. Dr. D. E. Wiedman, ninth corps area adviser, presided at the meetings.

Accepted for Army—Robert M. Clark of route 1 was accepted yesterday for service in the United States army and was assigned to the 7th Infantry stationed at Vancouver Barracks, Wash. It was announced today from the Portland office of Maj. H. D. Bagnall, district recruiting officer, that Clark applied for enlistment at the recruiting station in city hall here on November 20.

Hurt in Fall—Mrs. Margaret Moore, cook at government camp in Crater lake national park, was receiving treatment in Community hospital today for bruises and a wrenched muscle in her side. The attending physician said her condition was not at all serious. She fell from a step ladder while she was cleaning the walls of the camp mess hall yesterday forenoon.

Plan Program—Epworth league of the First Methodist Episcopal church will present an "old-fashioned" Thanksgiving program tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock in the Sunshine parlors of the church. An outstanding feature will be a high school boys' chorus presenting an original interpretation of "Pop-eyes" according to the announcement. There is no admission charge, but a free-will offering will be taken. All members and friends of the church and league are invited.

Throng Expected—One of the largest crowds in years is expected to attend the annual firemen's charity ball at Oriental Gardens tomorrow night. Chief Roy Elliott stated today. Advance ticket sale has been large, he said, and indications point to a gala evening. Steve Whipple and his nine-

Attend Party—Oscar Sliver, William Grenbner, Hugh Bentley, Dr. W. J. Grandall, Arthur Taylor and Guy Applewhite were among the large group of Ashland Legionnaires who attended the stag party and turkey dinner sponsored by the Medford Legion post at the K. P. hall last night.

Clark Gable Coming In Holly Show

Clark Gable, as the up-and-coming prize-ringer champ, and Allen Jenkins as his trainer, furnish many of the laughs in "Cain and Mabel" coming tomorrow to the Holly Theater for a three-day run. Others in the cast include Roscoe Karns, Marion Davies, Walter Catlett, Hobart Cavanaugh, Ruth Donnelly, Bert Kelton and William Collier, Sr.

Rialto's Star

Whenever there is a champion there is always someone who attempts by hook or crook to dethrone him. Such is the case of Stuart Erwin, all-American bridge champion of "All-American Chump," which plays at the Rialto theater today and tomorrow on the same grand double bill with "The Accusing Finger."

Show Starts Tonight At 6:30!

Table with showtimes and prices for Rialto theater. Shows: 1:45, 6:30-9:00. Mats: 25c, Evs: 35c, Kiddies: 10c.

THEY CALLED HIM "CHAIN-LIGHTNING"!

Stu as the farm lad who "went to town" as a bridge player... he could add numbers faster than an adding machine... but at love his mind was a perfect blank!
