Dr. Harvey Farmer Will Preach Today J'Ville And C. P.

Dr. Harvey Farmer of Philadelphia, has returned to Medford for a few days and will speak this morning at the Presbyterian church in Jacksonville and this evening at the Federated church in Central Point. His message will be "Items from our spiritual stocktaking in the light of the Lord's coming."
Dr. Farmer has held Bible conferences in India, Ceylon, Federated Malay States, Canada, North Africa and some forty of the states of the union. He was for many years home director and field superintendent of the North Africa Mission which works with the Moslems and native tribes in Algeria, Tunisia, Morocco and Libya.
It is a privilege to hear the fine Gospel message Dr. Farmer brings, and also to hear of his life work in foreign countries. All are cordially invited to attend the services at 11 a. m. at Jacksonville Presbyterian church, and 7:30 p. m. at Federated church in Central Point.

Rev. Weatherford Refuses New Post

Rev. Fred M. Weatherford, pastor of the Medford Church of the Nazarenes, this week received a lucrative bid to the pulpit of an outstanding southern city of that denomination. Though the bid offers a salary increase of twenty dollars per week, Mr. Weatherford has elected to stay with the loyal local church and its friendly constituency.
Mr. Weatherford made known the offer of the southern city upon his return from Albany, where his family spent Thanksgiving with his brother, Attorney Mark V. Weatherford, of that city. The occasion especially commemorated his brother's 25th wedding anniversary.

Forest Fire Help Sought By State

The state forestry office in Salem yesterday requested the Rogue river national forest service here to stand by over the week-end for a possible call for assistance in suppressing upstate fires. The Salem office said the state's fire-fighting personnel and equipment were being strained severely and help might be needed. Especially night transportation facilities be required, national forest executives here were told.

PHOENIX JUNIOR CLASS TO PRESENT 'TIN HERO' IN SCHOOL GYM DEC. 3

PHOENIX, Nov. 28.—(Sp.)—Junior class of Phoenix high school will present Charles George's hilarious farce "The Tin Hero" Thursday, Dec. 3, at 8 p. m., at the high school gymnasium.
Central theme of "The Tin Hero" insures excitement and fun from beginning to end of all three acts. It deals with the plight of an extremely modest and retiring young man, suddenly thrown into the limelight by the exaggerations of his dotting mother, who believes that "the swam fearlessly and boldly through storm-tossed waters," to save a beautiful French girl from drowning while he was vacationing in France.
Unfortunately, Douglas, the unhappy hero, cannot swim a stroke. He saved the girl by rowing out to her in a leaky boat, but forgot to mention this detail to his mother. By the time his mother has finished embroidering the story, Douglas has become not only a hero but also a champion swimmer; and upon his return to America, he is forced to live up to all this advance publicity. In fact, poor Douglas is forced to do everything that goes against his reticent nature.
The cast includes: Irene Steadman, Frances Glover, Dorothy Davis, Jeanette McAbee, Norma Pree, Helen Briscoe, Lucille McCarty, Carmen Houston, Benjamin Swisher, James Newlin, William Downing, and Alex McFarland. The production is under direction of Miss Marjorie Goff.

ARCH MASONS TO BANQUET TUESDAY

Crater Lake chapter No. 32, Royal Arch Masons, will confer the Royal Arch degree on three candidates Tuesday evening.
Preceding degree work, the membership will convene in the large dining hall on the second floor of the Masonic temple, where a complimentary dinner will be served. Previous plans were to have turkey but since so much turkey has been consumed by the membership at Thanksgiving time, some other meat will be served at 8:30.
Royal Arch Masons are coming from Ashland, Jacksonville and Grants Pass, and this promises to be a most enjoyable evening for all present. All Royal Arch Masons are urged to attend.

Lady Astor Terms Baby Race Horrible
TORONTO, Nov. 28.—(Canadian Press)—Lady Astor came to Canada today and said Toronto's half million dollar baby derby was "horrible."
The American born member of parliament, who frequently has expressed her own ideas on the birth and bringing up of children, is here for a visit.
"Think of what good that money would have done if it had been left to open air nurseries," she said.
"What we want today in children is quality, not quantity. If we wanted the latter we might go to China to find it, but I wouldn't think of Canada."
