Installation Held For Iota Chapter Here Last Evening

With an impressive ceremony, Iota chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, international non-academic sorority, was formally installed last evening at the Hotel Medford by Miss Frida Dixon, national field secretary.

Miss Mildred Drury was installed as president of the chapter following installation of the chapter. Other officers named with her are Miss Bethel Slagle, vice-president; Miss Leabel Miller, recording secretary; Miss Opal Harvey, treasurer; and Gertrude Haskins, historian.

Miss Faisy Smith is to head the social committee and Loretta Phillips has been named chairman of the educational committee, with Jean Hamilton and Kathryn Robinson as her aides.

Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer is to act as educational director for the group.

Following initiation ceremonies, Miss Dixon was hostess to the group for dinner in the small dining room of the hotel. Yellow roses and black tapers centering the table carried out the black and gold colors of the sorority.

Miss Dixon left this morning for Klamath Falls, where tentative plans are being made for installation of a chapter within the next week. Chapters already in existence in Oregon are located at Baker, La Grande, Pendleton, The Dalles, Astoria, Portland, Salem and Albany.

The local group will meet for the first session this evening and will henceforth meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Former Resident To National Post

Of interest to many friends here is news of the appointment of Miss Charlotte LaTourrette, now of Athens, O., as a member of a national committee on athletic rules for women and girls.

Miss LaTourrette is a former resident of this city and a graduate of the University of Oregon. She has many friends in southern Oregon.

Miss LaTourrette is a sister of J. W. LaTourrette and Mrs. C. C. Sater of this city.

Program Planned For Mission Group

Plans are being completed for the program to be presented at the meeting of the Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church scheduled for tomorrow afternoon in the church.

Mrs. Minnie Parlett is in charge of the program, which is to be based on the theme, "Together We Move Forward." Mrs. P. C. Latham heads the group in charge of social arrangements.

A cordial invitation is issued to all members and friends of the group.

Visitor to Leave For Home Tonight

Farewells were being said today to Miss Helen Drummond, whose imminent departure for her home in Nebraska is regretted by her many Medford friends.

Miss Drummond, who has made an extended visit as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond, is to leave tonight to return home. She is Dr. Drummond's sister and has been greeted by many friends since her arrival here several months ago.

Wenonah Club Plans Dinner

Announcement has been made that plans are being completed for a turkey dinner for members of the Wenonah club at the home of Mrs. Gladys Weltermire for this week's session.

Election of officers for the coming year will follow the business session to follow dinner, those in charge state.

Baize-Ellenburg Rites Saturday

Quietly married Saturday afternoon were Miss Doris Ellenburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellenburg, and Richard Baize, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Baize.

The ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the groom's parents by Rev. W. H. Baird.

Following the service the young couple left for a few days' honeymoon on the coast, and will return to make their home in this city.

Both are graduates of Medford high school and well known among the young people of the city, having lived here for several years. Both have also appeared on numerous musical programs, he as instrumentalist and she as vocalist.

Disc Club to Meet Saturday

Mrs. George B. Canode will entertain members of the Disc club and their guests Saturday afternoon at her home, 1716 Crown Hill. Time is announced as 2:30 o'clock and all members are urged to be present.

Plans are being made for a program to be presented during the afternoon.

Week-end Visitors Return Home Today

Leaving for the north by motor today were Mr. and Mrs. William Baker of Eugene, who spent the week-end here.

They were guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Jr.

ANDERSON TRIAL SET WEDNESDAY MORNING

The trial of Harold J. (Sweetie) Anderson, charged with driving an auto while intoxicated, will start in circuit court tomorrow morning. The case is being heard in circuit court, due to a previous conviction on the same charge. The case has been pending since last April. The alleged offense occurred on North Riverside avenue, the district attorney said.

Anderson is represented by Attorney Porter J. Neff.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS TO ELECT WEDNESDAY

The United Spanish War Veterans and ladies of the auxiliary will meet Wednesday evening in the armory for election of officers. A potluck dinner will be enjoyed, starting at 6:30, and the regular meeting will convene at 8 o'clock.

Weather.

Northern California: Fair tonight and Wednesday; cooler in north portion tonight and frost in the interior; light northerly wind off coast.

Oregon: Fair tonight and Wednesday, but local frosts in west portion; not so cold interior of north-west portion tonight; gentle changeable wind off coast.

Hope for Snow.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Apparently, Multnomah county commissioners are convinced the current drought will not last all winter. The county purchasing agent was authorized to advertise for bids for nine new snowplows.

Martin to Portland.

SALEM, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Governor Martin left here for Portland where he will be a guest at the banquet given today in honor of Mrs. Nanny Wood Honeyman, elected to congress from the third district, on the eve of her departure for Washington.

Nine Pneumonia Deaths.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Nine deaths from 19 cases of pneumonia were reported for the week in Portland by the city health bureau. The number was the highest for any week this winter.

OREGON CITY, Dec. 1.—(AP)—A scarcity of water has closed the Eastern & Western Lumber Co. camp near Molalla.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Marvin Kerr, 22, struck by a digger shovel, died in a hospital from his injuries.

A rabbit was instantly killed when it ran into one of T. C. Colburn's legs. Colburn lives in Akron, Ala.

DIVISION COMMANDER SALVATION ARMY WILL LEAD MEET TONIGHT

Brigadier Harold Madsen, divisional commander of the Salvation Army in Oregon and Idaho and regional director of the army's work among Scandinavian peoples of the entire west coast, is a visitor in Medford today. He is making the semi-annual inspection of the work of the local army corps and will be in the city until Wednesday afternoon. He is accompanied by Captain Henry Korner, divisional financial secretary, who will conduct an audit of the books of the local corps.

A special public service is being arranged for this evening at 8 o'clock at which Brigadier Madsen will be guest speaker. Captain Durham, commander of the local corps, has extended a cordial invitation to the general public. Captain Durham states that Brigadier Madsen, who in addition to his excellent English, speaks all the Scandinavian languages fluently, is especially anxious to meet all Scandinavian peoples of this community.

A special feature of this evening's service will be the connection, by Brigadier Madsen, of the newly organized choir of the Medford army corps. The choir will sing two compositions of the present general of the army, General Evangelina Booth, from the special compilation of the general's songs called "Songs of the Evangelist." The two numbers chosen for this evening's presentation are: "Oh, Save Me, Dear Lord," and "I Have Religion."

HAIR WAVE SUIT TO JURY TODAY

Closing arguments in the $2500 damage action of Mrs. Helen Pierce against William M. Murray, Iva Hoogland and Mann's Department store, for alleged injuries sustained during a permanent wave operation were scheduled to begin this afternoon, and the case to be in the hands of the jury late today. Mrs. Pierce also asks $75 for medical services for burns on her temple.

The plaintiff was chief witness in her own behalf. Murray, operator of the beauty parlor, and Iva Hoogland, the attendant, were chief witnesses for the defense.

Attorney Porter J. Neff, counsel for the department store, contends the store had nothing to do with the beauty parlor operation.

Other defendants contend the hair-waving was conducted in a careful manner and further claim Mrs. Pierce

MARATHA F. MORRIS TO LAST REWARD

Martha F. Morris, 77, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter T. Tolle, on Stewart avenue, early this morning. She was born in Ringold county, Iowa, March 31, 1859, and since childhood had been a member of the United Brethren church.

Mrs. Morris had made her home at Bandon, Ore., until six months ago when she came to Medford to be with her daughter.

Besides her daughter here, she leaves two sons, Lloyd and J. J. Morris, of Bandon; two step children, Mrs. Lloyd Jackson of Mosco, Idaho, and Mac Morris, Roxbury, Kas. Also four brothers and two sisters, eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Her husband and two sons preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held at the Conger chapel at 2 p. m. Thursday with Rev. Oscar Gibson officiating. Interment in the Siskiyou Memorial park.

MINER IS ACCUSED OF SETTING FIRES

A complaint charging Fred Schrader of the Applegate with permitting spread of a forest fire has been filed in justice court by the district attorney through the forest service.

Schrader, a miner, is alleged to have started brush fires and to have allowed them to spread until they reached extensive proportions.

Schrader has not been apprehended, being away from his claims at the present time.

Davy Myron Dewitt Utzer of the Eagle Point district, charged with hunting without a license, was fined $25 and costs in justice court upon a plea of guilty.

Noah H. Dyer, charged with the same offense, has not yet appeared in court to plead.

The men were setting out a trap line on Elk creek and had firearms in their possession when arrested by state police and game wardens, it is charged.

Floa May Becknell of Ruch, charged with driving an auto without a driver's license, plead guilty and was fined $5 and costs. She was given until December 15 to pay.

Dr. Farmer Will Speak in Phoenix

Dr. Harvey Farmer will speak at the Wednesday service at Phoenix Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. December 2.

As the Missionary society of the church has just finished a study of the mission fields in Africa, Dr. Farmer will speak more fully of the work and conditions in the North Africa mission field, of which he is home director and field superintendent. He will tell of some of the problems brought about because of the Italian conquest and the Arab uprisings, and will also bring a heart-rending Bible lesson. All are welcome.
