DEUEL DISCUSSES JUDICIAL REFORM AT ROTARY MEET

F. Kramer Deuel, young Medford attorney, addressed the members of the Medford Rotary club and guests Tuesday noon on the subject of needed judicial reforms. Rotarians and guests, assembled at the Hotel Medford, enthusiastically received Deuel's constructive criticism of the country's system and suggestions for improvement.

In opening his address, Deuel urged the members of the Medford Rotary club and the public in general to interest itself in this important subject and cooperate in effecting essential judicial reforms. Self-governing powers must be allocated to the bar associations, the speaker pointed out, if membership is restricted to the deserving, and those who abuse their membership are to be disbarred.

Courts must be given the power to prescribe its rules and procedure if reforms are to be effected, Cramer Deuel said. This plan, used in England, is one of the reasons that English courts have made such splendid records.

More exacting educational requirements for admission to the bar are essential if improvements and reforms are to be expected in this country's judicial set-up, in the opinion of Mr. Deuel. In concluding his address, he plead for a greater public interest in courts and government itself, with a closer study of candidates, to the end that more intelligent and capable public officials be selected for public office, especially those directly concerned with the courts.

C. L. MacDonald was chairman of Tuesday's rotary meeting and introduced Mr. Deuel.

EVANGELIST, SINGERS TO START CAMPAIGN AT FREE METHODIST

Evangelist Paul Pitini opens a series of services tonight at the Free Methodist church, on Tenth and Ivy streets. The youthful evangelist, a nephew of the archbishop of the West Indies, has been speaking to packed houses of many denominations in the United States and Canada. He began his public appearances representing the seminary he attended, and to that experience attributes his deep interest in young people's work.

Rev. Pitini's logic, appeal and keen wit make him unforgettable among young orators and he has been in demand as a speaker before hundreds of high schools and colleges. Accompanying Rev. Pitini are the noted negro singers, the "Pullman Four," who will entertain throughout the revival, which will close December 13, with choice hymns and negro spirituals. This group has been singing together for eight years and recently appeared in Denver, Colo., before audiences ranging from 2000 to 5000.

The originality, spontaneous and infectious humor and tender pathos of the singers interprets the old south in a delightful manner.

Singing starts each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCT

"The most important ingredient in a whiskey is the reputation of its maker"

says the OLD TOWN TAVERN KEEPER

GRAINS and stills and charred-oak kegs alone cannot produce a good whiskey. To these must be added another ingredient... that painstaking and costly care in every manufacturing step that is the distinguishing feature of fine distilling. That's why the name, "National Distillers," on Town Tavern's bottle is so significant. It tells folks, even before the bottle is opened, that this rich, mellow rye whiskey has an intangible ingredient which makes it the preferred buy in its price class. Taste it today and see for yourself if this isn't so.
