

Alimony Payer, 97. Protests.
LOS ANGELES — (UP) — Hosea Quincy Morton, 97, believed to be the oldest alimony payer in the United States, will still be obliged to give his ex-wife, Sarah F. Morton, 72, $35 a month out of his $100 a month pension. He asked for a reduction because of the necessity of paying a niece who cares for him.

An expedition of the American museum of natural history, New York City, recently brought back from the South Sea Islands nearly 11 tons of coral.

Newlyweds Receive Best Wishes Here After Ceremony

Medford and Central Point friends are extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boswell, whose recent wedding is of interest here.

Mrs. Boswell was formerly Miss Alice May Rutherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rutherford of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized last Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Laurelhurst in Portland.

Rev. Haman of the Laurelhurst Presbyterian church read the service in the presence of members of the family and close friends. John Meyers of Klamath Falls attended the groom as best man.

The bride attended the University of Oregon and graduated from Oregon State college, where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Mr.
Boswell is also a graduate of Oregon State college and was a member of Beta Kappa fraternity.

Mr. Boswell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boswell, formerly of Central Point and now residing in Los Angeles. He has spent the greater part of his life in Central Point and Medford and is well-known in the valley. He is at present on the faculty at the Junior high school in Medford, where they will make their home.

Dance To Honor Retiring Master

The formal dance being arranged by Medford DeMolays for tomorrow evening is to honor Dale Roberts, present master, counselor, a farewell gesture in view of the expiration of his term the first of the year, and William Meyers, who has reached his majority.

Dancing is to start at 9:00 o'clock in the chapter rooms in the Masonic temple, where decorations will feature the Christmas season with evergreen foliage forming a background. Music is to be by Whipple's orchestra.

Alford Randless is general chairman in charge of the affair.

Refreshments are to be served by the DeMolay Mothers' club, to whom the chapter extends thanks for cooperation in all branches of activity.
Mrs. D. D. Roberts heads the club committee.

Guests will be all members, Master Meyers, former members, members of the advisory council and invited guests.

Pocahontas To Gather Tonight

Announcement has been made by Pocahontas lodge that the losing side in the membership contest is to enertain other members this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Redman hall.

An extensive program is being planned by those in charge. Members of the losing team are to bring sandwiches.

Portland Guests Recent Visitors

Among recent Medford visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams of Portland, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garnett. Mr. and Mrs. Garnett had just returned from a visit in Eugene at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs.
Myrl Garnett.

Carl C. Donagh Is Dinner Host

Host to friends last evening was Carl C. Donagh, United States attorney of Portland, who arranged a wild goose dinner at the Hotel Medford.

Guests of Mr. Donagh were Judge James Alger Fee, Portland; Wade Crawford of the Klamath district; J.
T. Summerville, Portland, a former Medford resident; Miss Dorothy Adler, Portland; J. Mason Dillard, assistant United States attorney, Portland; Loren Cochran, Portland; Rex Kimmel, Portland; Miss Alice Tomkins, Portland; Glenn G. Foster, secretary to Carl Donagh, Portland; and H. S.
Kenyon, Portland.

Miss Tomkins is vacationing in southern Oregon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Tomkins of Ashland, and the other guests have spent several days here on matters connected with the federal court.

Sweeney Leave For California

Leaving for the south this morning were Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney, who are joining the many Medford residents spending part of the winter in the south.

The Sweeneys will go to their home in Carmel, Cal., where they will join Miss Edith Sweeney and Henrietta Jannsen, who are spending the winter there.

Dr. and Mrs. Sweeney plan to spend the ensuing two months in Carmel, expecting to return to their home here early in February.

Past Matrons To Be Entertained

Mrs. J. A. Perry is to be hostess to members of the Past Matrons club of Reames chapter, O. E. S., at her home, 404 West Main, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Perry is to be assisted by Mrs.
W. H. Bishop, Mrs. H. U. Lundsten and Mrs. C. O. Larson. Dessert luncheon is being planned for 1:30 o'clock.
Those in charge issue a cordial invitation to all visiting matrons and announce that all members are to bring inexpensive gifts for the Christmas tree.

now being circulated all over the United States. Jackson county has 1000 petitions each with space for 39 names and they way they are being filled bears a promise of all being signed up, very few people are refusing to sign.

The Medford petitions will get into full swing at this evening's Townsend meeting when that will be the main topic of business. Medford has been divided into about 20 districts, each of which is to have a lieutenant in charge and plenty of workers circulating petitions.

Mr. Bates of Ashland, district congressional board member, will be the speaker this evening, giving his report of the recent meeting in Portland.

This is also the evening for the semi-monthly Townsend dance which is very much enjoyed by everyone.
Let me again urge upon every Townsendite that they should attend every Townsend meeting.

FISHING FOR ALL U. S. FORESEEN IN OREGON

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 4.—(AP)— Lew Wallace, member of the state game commission, said at a club meeting here that Oregon's lakes and rivers would provide fishing for all the anglers in the United States when the commission's stocking program is completed.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

with herself only as treasurer. Andrews' dismissal was to be required, with Moidel, Roberts and Rhea Crawford, associate pastor, receiving long-term contracts.

Unless Mrs. McPherson complied, she was threatened with suits to place Angelina temple in receivership, declare her insane and set aside a $250,000 note and trust deed she holds. Fifty persons, it was asserted, would sue to quiet title to the temple property.

As a result of the assorted threats, Andrews stated, he was discharged as Mrs. McPherson's attorney and she signed the contracts, but these have since been terminated and he has been re-employed.

Sister Aimee is expected to appear before Miss Crawford's attorney tomorrow to give a deposition in the $100,000 slander suit brought against her by her former pulpit aide and one time "angel of Broadway."
