

Mail-Tribune All Star District Conference Grid Squads Selected

MEDFORD PLAYERS VOTED 4 PLACES ON MYTHICAL '11'

Ashland Gains Three Positions, Klamath Falls And Grants Pass Two From Coaches, Scribes.

With many surprises, the check of southern Oregon conference football coaches, officials and sports writers has been completed, and the Mail Tribune today offers its All-Conference first and second teams, with honorable mentions. In each case the selection indicates a majority vote by those casting, with the exception that some of those selected were moved out of the positions they filled so ably through the 1936 conference season.

Surprisingly enough the poll gives the once defeated and once tied Medford Black Tornado the entire left side of the line, and one backfield spot for a total of four positions on the first team, despite the fact that the Tigers ended up in the cellar position.

Grants Pass, Favorite
To Grants Pass, technical victors of the conference by forfeit after the Tigers trampled the Cave-men here under a 31-6 avalanche, goes only two places on the first team, and one on the second team. Kenneth Pruitt, bone-crushing Cave-man fullback, ran away with the voting in that department to place an impressive lead over his nearest competitor, Leo Sakrada of Ashland. Steve Fowler, hard-hitting Ashland fullback, was almost out of the picture in the balloting, although it is almost a certainty that a majority of the Medford fans would have rated him far above Pruitt. Pruitt had one day when the team played here, while Fowler and his team both sparked beautifully in tying the Tigers 6-6.

Baker Leads
The amazing lead piled up in the count was by Floyd Baker, Medford's vest-pocket guard who played defensive fullback and, at the end of the year, offensive quarterback. Baker turned in more than two-to-one votes over all his opponents together, and one voter nominated him who cheerily chose him the most valuable player in the league.

Baker was chosen for left guard in almost all of the tabulations, and several voters nominated him for first place at right guard. Because of his avalanche of votes Baker automatically becomes captain of the All-Conference team.

Wilson of Medford and Gillette of Grants Pass were tied with an equal number of votes for the end spots, outdistancing all opponents. Wilson was undoubtedly chosen for his sensational pass snatching ability, in several games he having hauled down seemingly impossible tosses. Gillette, according to the comment sent in with the votes submitted, was picked not only for his pass catching, but for his defensive ability as well, and an almost uncanny ability to solve plays almost before they had formed.

At the guard spot Baker had such a wide lead that Cox, of Klamath Falls, took the opposite guard honor with only a few, but highly enthusiastic, votes from those who had a chance to see his sparkling play through the year much better than did those in the Rogue valley.

Tackles Close
The tackle berth were a much closer scramble. Bromley of Ashland, Offord of Medford, Timms of Klamath Falls and Winetroun of Grants Pass being closely grouped, with Bromley having a slight edge. A margin of only one vote gave Offord the other tackle spot. Timms, the other boy who was playing his last year for the Pelicans, was the lad who won one down to Offord, Timms is a three-year letterman and played the entire season without a single replacement, surely an unusual record, but one duplicated by a team-mate, Taylor, who worked the entire season at center for the Pelicans.

Deal, of Grants Pass, J. F. Flock of Klamath Falls, and E. C. Jerome of Medford as the officials who worked the conference games; Coaches Loren Tuttle of Grants Pass, Forrest O'Connell of Ashland, and Bill Bowerman of Medford (Coach Les Avritt of Klamath Falls did not answer the Mail Tribune's query); and the following sports writers: Billy Husing of Ashland, Asahel Bush of Klamath Falls, Leo Shaw and Rex Tusting of Grants Pass, and Dick Applegate of Medford.

In the consolation bracket the seniors downed the junior seconds 22-14, with Kubli high point man for the victors with 12 points. Right behind him was Ralph Guidahl, of St. Louis, who scored a 68 today for a two-day card of 138. Jimmy Hines, of New York, third with 139, had a 67 today and W. Lawson Little, of San Francisco, tied the competitive course record with a 66 to take fourth place with 140.

LONG RUNS GIVE OUTPLAYED TROY TIE WITH IRISH

U. S. C. Makes One First Down And 24 Yards From Scrimmage For 13-13 Tie

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The luck of the Irish deserted Notre Dame today and University of Southern California's Trojans scored once on a 100-yard sprint and again on a 65-yard dash to tie the famed green of South Bend, 13 to 13.

Seventy thousand fans at the Troy homecoming saw Fullback Dick Berryman run 65 yards for the opening Trojan score. A moment later they went into hysterics when Bud Langley, a substitute halfback, intercepted a Notre Dame pass on his own goal line and ran the length of the field for another tally.

Coach Elmer Layden's decided favorites made their touchdowns on smacking, battering football, and outplayed the men of Troy in top-heavy fashion. Southern California made but one first down, and that late in the final period on a holding penalty against the Irish. Notre Dame made 18 and outstruck U. S. C. 223 yards to 24.

Troy got the luck, Notre Dame a moral setback. Headman Jones lived up to his promise that the Trojans would not lose inter-sectional, the eleventh, annual inter-sectional class.

Notre Dame's starting team took the opening kickoff and paraded 78 yards for a touch-down, but failed to convert. In the third, Notre Dame, missing a lateral from Fullback Ladretz to Danborn to McCook good for 39 yards, scored 88 yards in 12 plays and marched on a 15-yard pass from Wilke to McCormick. The extra point ended the scoring.

KARAMATIC LEADS GONZAGA TO 13-6 WIN OVER COUGAR

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Gonzaga's one-touchdown jinx over Washington State college held for the third successive year here today as the inspired Bulldogs snatched a 13 to 6 victory over the Pacific coast conference runner-up.

Sparked by the brilliant running and punting of George Karamatic, all-coast fullback, Gonzaga came from behind to tie the score in the third period and clinch victory under the final period floodlights.

The game was a brilliant duel between two great backs — Karamatic for Gonzaga and Ed Goddard, Washington State's all-coast quarterback. Karamatic, a junior, held a slight edge over Goddard, who played the last game of his three-year varsity career.

Goddard suffered most from a slippery gridiron from which snow had been scraped a few hours before the game. Time after time he lost his footing.

The pair staged a spectacular punting duel despite a slippery ball, with Karamatic averaging 42 yards and Goddard 41.

Washington State scored first in the third period. Goddard whipped a bullet pass to Walt Zuger, substitute halfback, who dashed 30 yards untouched for a score. Rodger Dougherty's place-kick was wide.

Karamatic sparked the Bulldogs' 70-yard drive a few minutes later after recovering a Cougar fumble. He scored after a try-for-point failed to the 38. His 37-yard dash to the goal.

Karamatic returned a punt from the W. S. C. 45 to the 29 in the fourth period. Ray Olsen's flashy running and passing gained the 2-yard line, and on the fourth down Dick Beutregard swept around end to score. Karamatic kicked the extra point.

Statistics gave W. S. C. an edge with nine first downs to seven and total yardage of 232 to 186. Gonzaga held a rushing edge, but W. S. C. gained 100 on passes to Gonzaga's 37. W. S. C. completed five passes out of 13; Gonzaga four out of 14. Gonzaga made the lone interception.

HARMONY SESSION OF A.A.U. IN ROW

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 5.—(AP)—A wide open fight on the floor of the Amateur Athletic union convention, set off by a contest within the District of Columbia delegation over nominations for election to the A. A. U. board of governors, disrupted the pre-arranged "harmony program" late today and brought opposing factions into direct, acrimonious conflict for the first time.

The verbal explosion was touched off by Charles L. Ornstein of New York, floor leader for the Tories behind the presidential candidacy of Jeremiah T. Mahoney, who is expected to be named tomorrow by the convention to succeed Avery Brundage of Chicago.

Closing time for too late to clarity is 1:30 p. m.

THUNDER OF BOOS FOR MENTION OF ROSE BOWL TEAMS

Selection Of Pitt Brings Criticism — Seat Sales Start Monday.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Dec. 5.—(AP)—The announcer at the Notre Dame-Southern California football game today told the crowd of 70,000 that tickets were on sale for the Washington-Pittsburgh battle in the Rose Bowl New Year's day.

A tremendous thunder of boos greeted the announcement.

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 5.—(AP)—Rose Bowl football officials opened up the morning mail today and sighed with relief.

Bombarded for 24 hours by a cross fire of criticism over the selection of Pittsburgh as the eastern opponent in the annual New Year's day game, they had reason to welcome the mail.

It contained checks and requests for tickets to the game. They hope the mailman comes again, and again. Athletic Director Ray Eckmann, of the University of Washington, Huskies, the host team of the west, remained confident that the Panthers and Huskies would sell out the huge bowl.

Husky officials announced arrangements for the ticket sale will get under way Monday at their headquarters (132 East Colorado street) here.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 5.—(UP)—Pitt will give its answer on the gridiron, Athletic Director W. D. Harrison of the University of Pittsburgh said today in reply to criticism of Pitt's selection to the Rose Bowl.

"This is one of the most determined football teams we've ever had at Pitt," Harrison said. "Follows the Bobby Larus and others on the team aren't going to Pasadena to take a beating. They're going out to redeem the Pitt prestige, dragged in to dust in three former Tournament on Rose games."

WEAK KICKS GIVE ST. MARY'S EDGE O'ER TEMPLE 13-7

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—(AP)—St. Mary's Gaels lapped an indifferent football season in brilliant fashion today with a 13-to-7 inter-sectional victory over Veteran Glen ("Pop") Warner's Owl.

Outcome of the game traced directly to poor punting on the part of Quarterback Davidson. His weak kicks in the second and third periods paved the way for St. Mary's touchdowns. Left End Ed Walker fell on it, Bill Docherty, captain and left tackle, added the extra tally to give the Owls a 7-to-0 lead.

The boys from the other side of the continent, small compared to the hefty pigskin warriors tutored by Edward ("Slip") Madigan, were outscored in the final reckoning but were far from outclassed.

The Temple score early in the second quarter followed a fumble by Right Half Hugh Sill with the ball bouncing over the goal line where speedy Left End Ed Walker fell on it. Bill Docherty, captain and left tackle, added the extra tally to give the Owls a 7-to-0 lead.

It contained checks and requests for tickets to the game. They hope the mailman comes again, and again. Athletic Director Ray Eckmann, of the University of Washington, Huskies, the host team of the west, remained confident that the Panthers and Huskies would sell out the huge bowl.

Husky officials announced arrangements for the ticket sale will get under way Monday at their headquarters (132 East Colorado street) here.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 5.—(UP)—Pitt will give its answer on the gridiron, Athletic Director W. D. Harrison of the University of Pittsburgh said today in reply to criticism of Pitt's selection to the Rose Bowl.

"This is one of the most determined football teams we've ever had at Pitt," Harrison said. "Follows the Bobby Larus and others on the team aren't going to Pasadena to take a beating. They're going out to redeem the Pitt prestige, dragged in to dust in three former Tournament on Rose games."

GUN CLUB PLANS HOLIDAY SHOTS

Plans for several special holiday shoots will be today by the Medford Gun club under the regular trapshoot at the club's grounds at the north end of the airport.

A new stimulus will be added for the trapshooters by the inauguration of perpetual challenge events. Each club member will be given an attractive button bearing a number and the name of the local club. The buttons, numbered from one to 60, will change hands whenever a club member challenges and defeats in a shoot for 25 targets, the member holding the next lower numbered button than his own. The buttons are familiar of shotgun cartridge heads, and very handsome, having been presented to the club by one of the members and made by Larry Schade.

A number of out-of-town shooters, among whom will be Elmer Feldenheimer, well known crackshot ace of the Portland Gun club, will shoot at the Medford club today. Now that the upland bird and duck shooting seasons are closed, the scatter gunners will turn out in large numbers to break the elusive clay targets. The public is invited at all times to shoot with the local gun club members.
