College Club Sets Dec. 29 As Date of Annual Xmas Dance

Date for the third annual all-college dance presented during the Christmas holidays by the Oregon State club was set for Tuesday evening, Dec. 29, at the club gathering Friday evening.

Extensive plans for the affair, always one of the most outstanding of the holiday season, have been announced by the committee in charge, headed by A. Z. Dear, assisting dean on the project are Mrs. W. J. Warner, Mrs. Wilson Wait, Leland Metzger and Kenneth Denman.

A large number of students on the Corvallis campus are also expected to cooperate when they arrive home for the holidays. Jimmy Johnson's Oregon State collegians will play for the dance, the committee has announced. Place of the affair is Oriental Gardens.

A feature of the meeting Friday evening was election of new officers, with Kenneth Scott Woods named as new president of the organization. Others are Carl Boswell, vice-president, and Mrs. Allen Perry, secretary-treasurer.

Other activities for the ensuing months were outlined during the business session.

Four tables of bridge were in play following close of the business period.

State President Is Guest of Auxiliary At Recent Session

Mrs. Charles T. Swenney was hostess to a large group of members and guests of the Jackson county medical auxiliary at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Luncheon was served the group preceding the session. Principal guest of the afternoon was Mrs. E. D. Adams of Klamath Falls, state medical auxiliary president. Mrs. Adams discussed auxiliary activities as did also Mrs. Osborne of Klamath Falls, also a guest of the group.

Mrs. H. B. Prentice presented accordion solos and Mrs. Harold Gillie sang "Green Deptha," by Pomar, and "As I Went a'Rolling," by Brahe.

Also appearing on the program was Mrs. E. A. Woods of Ashland, who gave a commentary and piano solo, "In The Gloaming."

Mrs. B. C. Wilson and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley presented current events on medical topics.

Personality Counts

Slender Fay Newman (above), 23-year-old Salt Lake City secretary who was named the "Miss America" of the secretarial world by the national convention of Alpha Iota, advised stenographers to develop personal charm. But she admitted she was worried about living up to her title with her employers. (Associated Press Photo)

Blanche Taylor Is New Chaplet Head

Blanche Muirgrave Taylor was named worthy matron of Adalee chapter, O. E. S., at the recent election of officers.

Other officers-elect are: Charles A. Myers, worth patron; Lela Shores, associate matron; H. Harbaugh, associate patron; Alliea Maxwell, secretary; Anna Langley, treasurer; Carlis Mae Hickert, conductress; and Helen Harbaugh, associate conductress.

Public installation of the new heads is planned for this month, with definite date to be announced later. Medesara Lela Shores, Nell Pick, Lulu Salisbury and Ida Wilson were named committee in charge.

Young Couple Wed In Klamath Falls, Surprising Friends

Coming as a surprise to their many friends in the valley was the marriage Friday afternoon in Klamath Falls of Miss Ruth Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clement of 1223 West Main, and Martin Clogston, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Clogston of Jacksonville hill road.

The young couple who were unattending the wedding were surprised by Rev. Harrell of Klamath Falls at one-thirty Friday afternoon in the presence of only a few members of their families and close friends.

They left immediately on a honeymoon trip in the south after which they will be at home in Bly, Oregon.

Mrs. Clogston was gowned in royal blue brocade taffeta with matching accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias. Her going away costume was also of blue.

Motoring over to Klamath Falls for the wedding were Mrs. Norman Judy, sister of Mr. Clogston, Mrs. C. W. Guchas and Harold Clement, sister and brother of the bride.

Mrs. Clogston graduated from the Medford high school in 1931 and has spent most of her life here. She attended the Willamette university in Salem where she was a member of Delta Phi sorority.

Mr. Clogston came to the Rogue River valley from Colorado and has made his home here until a year or so ago when he went to Bly to enter the lumber industry.

New York State Topic of Review Wednesday Club

Carl Cramer's "Listen For a Lonesome Drum," a description of New York, exclusive of New York City, was reviewed by Mrs. R. B. Hammond at last week's meeting of the Wednesday Study Club.

Intimate glimpses of life in various sections of the state and the many interesting stories of the author's experiences while visiting there make the book informative and enjoyable reading, Mrs. Hammond stated.

"The Mansion," a favorite among Henry Van Dyke's stories, was selected by Mrs. F. K. Deuel to present as the Christmas story on the program.

Mrs. L. E. Williams discussed current events which members report as of exceptional interest.

Miss Gentner Party Hostess

Miss Katherine Gentner was hostess to several friends last evening in celebration of her birthday.

Varied games and informal entertainment were arranged during the evening.

Guests were the Misses Joyce Young, Effie Belle Oliver, Rose Ellen Stoneker, Fredine Daugherty, Dorothy Konieth, Dorothy Hansen and Betty Noble and Neal Curry, Harry Young, Ervin House, Sherill Doty, Irwin Doty, Holene Pitta, Thayne Ford and Ben Hansen.

Business Club To Hear Mrs. Morse

Mrs. Glenn Fabrick is to be hostess to members of the Business and Professional Women's club tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at her home on the Jacksonville highway.

A feature of the program will be the appearance of Mrs. Maude Morse of Oregon State college, who will discuss personality phases and traits.

Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer is to sing and other music is being arranged for the evening. The education committee, headed by Miss Eva Bavelock, is in charge of the program.

Plans are also to be outlined for the Christmas party Dec. 21 which is expected to be an outstanding event of the club year.

Raymond to Appear In Musical Recital Tomorrow Evening

Of interest to music circles of the city is announcement of the recital tomorrow evening which will present Kenneth Raymond, pianist, at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church.

Raymond is to be assisted by Miss Marcia Van Dyke of Grants' Pass, young violinist, Raymond is a pupil of Mrs. Milton E. Coe and Miss Van Dyke of John R. Knight. Effie Herbert Kurts will accompany Miss Van Dyke.

Temperance Union Plans Contribution

Members of the Nazarene church will be hostesses to the Women's Christian Temperance union for the meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock according to announcement.

Rev. Fred Weatherford, pastor, is to be guest speaker and special musical numbers arranged by the hostess church are being planned for the program. The Nazarene group is also to conduct devotional services.

All members and friends are cordially invited. The complete program will be announced later.

Members of the society are planning the annual Christmas box to be sent to the Children's Farm Home in Corvallis, founded by the W.C.T.U. Each lady is asked to bring something for the box. Toys, games, books, home-made candy and cookies have been suggested by those in charge.

Supt. Hedrick To Discuss School Curriculum Trends

E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of city schools, is to be the principal speaker on the program being arranged for the meeting of the Junior High School Parent-Teacher association Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Superintendent Hedrick will discuss modern trends in curriculum development, outlining aims and purposes of the curriculum, modern trends in its development and adjustments necessary to keep step with changing social conditions.

"In the past, the school curriculum has always served as a vehicle to convey formal knowledge to the youth of the country," Hedrick states, "but today may be seen a very significant swing away from formal knowledge."

Also appearing on Friday evening's program will be Miss Floy Young, demonstrating a course now being developed through violin instruction in the schools.

Miss Gladys Bengie is to display work being accomplished through new planning courses and in the art department.

A feature of the program will be the singing of Christmas carols by Miss Piper's girls' chorus.

Officers of the group have announced: "The Lady Lions are asking the public's cooperation in the donation of discarded toys which, if left at the firemen's hall, will be reconducted and prepared for Old Santa's pack, to gladden the hearts and make happy many little boys and girls at Christmas time."

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Program Arranged For Club Session

Arrangements are being completed for the meeting of the College club scheduled for next Saturday at the home of Mrs. A. R. Clement on West Main street.

Mrs. E. H. Hurd is to act as social chairman for the afternoon. Included on the program will be the reading of Eugene O'Neill's "Days Without End", by Miss Vera Humphreys. Miss Mildred Patterson is to sing and Nona Heyland will dance, accompanied by JoAnn Humphreys.
