Plan Sale—Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will hold a rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday in the building next to the Roxy theater on East Main street.

From Yreka—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logan of Yreka, Cal., were visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon. Mr. Logan is the Ford and Lincoln dealer in Yreka.

Here on Business—Lou Centro of Portland, special agent of the St. Paul Fire & Marine Insurance company, has been transacting business here the past few days.

Driver Tests—Persons seeking permits or licenses to operate automobiles are requested to report to Ward McReynolds, state examiner, at Medford city hall between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. Saturday.

Eastern Trip—Maurice Spats of the Crystal Springs Packing company left by train last night for Chicago, New York City and other eastern cities. He expects to be gone three weeks or a month, during which time he will transact business for his firm.

Recruiting Aide—Sgt. George McDonald, member of the 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., has been ordered to report to the recruiting station here for temporary duty in connection with a recruiting campaign for the regular army. It was announced today. He will remain here for about ten days.

WPA Officials Here—Fred C. Critchon of Portland, assistant state safety consultant for the WPA, and Allen C. Brandes of Salem, state safety representative, were to arrive here today on a periodic trip through the district in the interest of safety on the various projects. They are expected to remain for two days.

Cub Meeting—A Boy Scout Cub pack meeting has been scheduled for this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the senior high school. Irving P. Beesley will speak on the advantages and laws governing cub scouting. Parents of boys between the ages of nine and 12 are requested to attend. It is required that parents be present at the meeting if a boy is to join.

Dinner Guest—Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will hold a no-hostess dinner at 6:30 next Monday in honor of Esther Bier, state treasurer. Place for the dinner is to be announced later. Local and visiting members who desire to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Minnie Albaugh or Mrs. G. W. Neilson before Saturday noon so that reservations may be made.

To Portland—Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, will leave by train tonight for Portland where he is to attend a meeting of a regional research committee of which he is a member. The committee will prepare a program of research projects for region 6 which embraces all the national forests of Oregon and Washington. Mr. Janouch said. C. J. Buck, regional forester, will preside.

From Honolulu—James F. Everett arrived here yesterday from Honolulu where he spent the past two years in service with the 8th field artillery of the United States army. He is the guest here of his sister, Mrs. W. S. Estep. After visiting here Mr. Everett will continue to his home in Idaho Falls, Idaho. He was discharged from the army at Fort McDowell, Cal., on April 10 and will re-enlist after a visit at his home, he stated.

To See Lake—Miss Pearl Chase of San Francisco, chairman of the California conservation commission, is expected to arrive here Monday on a special trip to Crater lake. Miss Chase is eager to see the lake in its winter setting. She is interested particularly in the conservation of scenic and wildlife resources. She will be escorted about the lake area by J. Carlisle Crouch, chief ranger of Crater Lake national park.

G-Man Picture Now On Craterian Bill

J. Edgar Hoover and his G-Men are at the New Craterian theater on the same program with "Love Is News" which opens a three-day run today. The famed chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shows how his crew of trained men are chosen for their hazardous occupation—how each must go through a rigid examination, not the least of which is qualification as an expert marksman with pistol, rifle and machine gun. "You Can't Get Away With It," made with the permission of U. S. Attorney General Homer S. Cummings and Hoover, also shows what a slim chance any crook has for escaping the long arm of the law. Every time a person commits a crime he weaves a net of his own downfall. Wisps of hair, teeth marks, small drops of blood, fragments of handwriting, footprints as well as fingerprints are all silent witnesses.

Stars Of Hollywood Barn Dance Coming

Sheriff Loyal Underwood, who has headed the Arizona Wranglers' show for several tours throughout the west, is bringing the Original Individual Stars of the Hollywood Barn Dance to the stage of the Holy theater Monday only (April 19) for both matinee and evening performances. This is the first all-star Radio attraction to make a complete tour of the entire west, bringing such personalities as Glenn Hardy, who first conceived and presented the Barn Dance, Drury Lane, featured on the stage with the Duncan Sisters, Joe Bishop, the great international Hill Billy, well known for his work with Bill Hatch's orchestra and for his character sketches on the Barn Dance; Bud Duncan, better known as "Buddy Bumpkin," comedian on the Barn Dance since its inception, and former star of the stage and screen. Added to all this is Radio's newest cowboy sensation, Ray Whitley's Six Bar Cowboys, coming direct from a year's engagement at the Dallas centennial.

Hugh Herbert, starring in "The Man's Here Again," plays at the screen attraction for this special engagement.

Grace Moore In Craterian's Sunday Picture

A new, madcap Grace Moore, who sings from the immortal strains of Schubert's "Serenade" to the hotcha remblings of Cab Calloway's "Minnie the Moocher," comes to the New Craterian theater Sunday with the opening of her latest picture, "When You're in Love." Cary Grant heads

Two Gun Man

His popularity mounting with each of his new type western pictures, Dick Foran now rides with the Rangers as he dashes a thousand dangers for a friendly girl, in "Guns of the Pecos," coming to the Rialto theater for tomorrow and Saturday only, with "The Bold Caballero" filmed in all-color and featuring Bob Livingston and Heather Angel as the added feature.

"Guns of the Pecos" is set in the period just after the Civil War, when Southwest Texas, known as the Pecos, was run over by outlaw bands and Indians. The film is said to

On Roxy Bill

Bette Davis continues to reign as the supreme actress of the screen by her portrayal of the "richest girl in the world" in "The Golden Arrow," playing at the Roxy theater today and tomorrow with George Brent opposite.
