SLAYER SUSPECT TAKEN BY POLICE

TACOMA, Wash., April 15.—(AP)—Claid Ryan, paroled convict sought on a first degree murder warrant for the slaying of Deputy Sheriff R. S. Jackson of Chehalis, was in the Tacoma city jail today undergoing questioning; while western Washington officers redoubled their search for his alleged companion in the shooting, Walter Seelert.

Ryan, unarmed and weeping, was captured without a struggle in a tavern seven miles above Orting, Wash., last night. Tacoma city police who answered a mysterious telephone tip, found him half intoxicated and ready to tell the entire story of the slaying of Deputy Jackson, and the wounding of Deputy J. D. Compton. The two deputies were shot in a pistol battle on a road near Chehalis last Wednesday morning.

Search for Seelert centered in the wooded district above Orting, where Ryan said he and the fugitive parted Tuesday morning, with Seelert nursing an eye gravely wounded by buckshot in the battle.

TREASURY PLANS MORE BORROWING

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau said today the treasury would start a new series of $50,000,000 weekly bill issues Monday to replenish federal cash.

With tax revenues dropping behind estimates, borrowing will be necessary to plug the gap between income and outgo.

(The treasury's cash working balance now stands at $855,000,000. In the past, Morgenthau has said he hopes to keep this close to $1,000,000,000.)

The secretary declined to tell his press conference how much the borrowing would aggregate.

He said the discount bills, which will be in addition to the regular $50,000,000 weekly offering to meet

FRENCH BOUND OVER IN ALTURAS SLAYING

ALTURAS, Calif., April 15.—(AP)—Harry French, 30, was bound over to superior court today on a first degree murder charge in connection with the shooting of Claude L. McCracken, publisher of a daily newspaper here.

French is a son of Bard French, publisher of a weekly paper in Alturas. The shooting occurred March 25 in McCracken's home.

At today's preliminary hearing, the brief testimony followed closely that given at the coroner's inquest. Justice William Armstrong did not set a date for the trial.

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 15.—(AP)—Federal authorities arrested Fred C. Miller, transient, and charged him with throwing rocks through the federal building windows. Officers were uncertain whether robbery was the motive.

LUCKY LAGER

This famous trade-mark means "ONE OF THE WORLD'S REALLY FINE BEERS"

WHENEVER you order beer... on draught, in bottles or in "Kelegined" cans... look for the famous red Lucky Lager "X" trade-mark, it's your guide to "one of the world's really fine beers."

For beer... is a product of highest quality, made of only the choicest ingredients that money can buy, under the exclusive Lucky Lager brewing process. It is slowly mellowed "Nature's Way"... the expensive way... in sanitary ageing tanks.

One golden glass of Lucky Lager will convince you that it is deliciously different from ordinary beer. You'll enjoy Lucky Lager's rich, full-bodied flavor... its creamy smoothness... its refreshing tang.

For beer at its best, insist on Lucky Lager... the dated beer.
