LEGAL NOTICES

ORDER

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County.

In the Matter of the Liquidation of the First National Bank of Medford, a National Banking Association: Application of B. E. Harder, as Liquidating Agent of the First National Bank of Medford, for Obtaining Appointment of a Trustee to succeed as Trustee the First National Bank of Medford, Under a Certain Trust Deed and Declaration entered into between certain Creditors of H. Van Hoevenberg, Jr., H. Van Hoevenberg, Jr., and the First National Bank of Medford.

Based upon the Petition of B. E. Harder, as Liquidating Agent of the First National Bank of Medford filed herein.

It is this day ordered and adjudged that all persons interested in the Trust created by that certain Trust Declaration and Deed entered into on the 17th day of February, 1934, by and between certain creditors of H. Van Hoevenberg, Jr., as first parties, H. Van Hoevenberg, Jr., as second party, and the First National Bank of Medford, a creditor of H. Van Hoevenberg, Jr., as third party, all as more particularly set forth in that certain mortgage which was executed by H. Van Hoevenberg, Jr., and Kathryn L. Van Hoevenberg, his wife, pursuant to the provisions of said Trust Declaration, in favor of the said first parties and running to the favor of the First National Bank of Medford as Trustee for said first parties, which said mortgage is of record in the office of the County Clerk of Jackson County, Oregon, in Volume 100 at pages 269 to 272 inclusive, of the Realty Mortgage Records of said County and State, are hereby ordered and required to designate and provide and take all necessary steps to appoint, and to appoint, a successor trustee to the First National Bank of Medford within 30 days from the date of this order, in said Trust deed and mortgage and the note which it secures, or to show cause on the 23rd day of April, 1937, at the Circuit Court Room of the Jackson County Courthouse at Medford, Oregon, at the hour of 9:30 a. m. of said day, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, why a successor trustee or trustees should not be appointed by this Court in the matter of the above trust.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Medford Mail Tribune, a newspaper published at Medford, Jackson County, Oregon, and that the first publication thereof be made on the 19th day of March, 1937.

Dated, this 18th day of March, 1937.
H. D. NORTON, Circuit Judge.

COUNTY BRIEFS

Sardine Creek

SARDINE CREEK, April 16.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elhart and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren of Ashland were callers at the Walt home Wednesday evening. Mrs. Elhart left by train Monday for Portland to celebrate their joint birthdays April 15 with her mother, Mrs. Eva Newton, and visit other relatives and friends.

Mrs. F. M. Tygart, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Centers of Gold Hill, was a business visitor in Medford last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith and baby, Clifford, of Gold Hill were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Badley, who live near Rogue River, were visitors Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Walt.

Mrs. Ethel Martin of Gold Hill visited Mrs. Earl Croft Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers are the proud parents of a nine-pound baby girl, born at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford April 8. The little miss has been named Kathleen Toroda.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burnett of Rogue River visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Smith, Sunday. They expected to leave Wednesday for Susanville, Calif., where he and his father have employment for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Walt accompanied Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nealon of Table Rock to visit the Upper Applegate Grange Saturday night and report a very interesting meeting.

A miscellaneous shower followed by a social dance was given at the community hall Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burnett, who were married recently. The bride was formerly Dora Smith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James U. Smith. The honor guests received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Walt were invited guests at the annual banquet of the Garden club in Gold Hill Monday night.

C. R. Hammond of Salem was a week-end visitor here, calling on old friends. Mr. Hammond was a resident of this place over thirty years ago and owns 40 acres adjoining the Dunlap place on the north, which he expects to return to and develop in the near future.

Charles Smith sprung quite a surprise on his friends and relatives here by returning Sunday from Prospect with his bride, the former Esther Chamberlin of Trail. They were married in Medford Saturday. Charlie is employed in a sawmill near Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and son and Mr. and Mrs. W. Catlett of Medford spent Sunday with the Fienes and Taylors. Mr. Lewis and Mr. Catlett run the Tri-State Neon sign shop in Medford. The men put in the time prospecting and the women drove up the creek and gathered white lamb tongues, which are now at their best.

Riviera

RIVIERA, April 16.—(Spl.) Mr. Lee and wife arrived April 7 from Englewood, Calif. They will complete their new home just south of the Evergreen auto park. Their two children will join them at the close of their school term. Mr. Lee had the misfortune to injure his hip while driving his truck here, but is much improved now.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks are staying at the home of Mrs. Elsie Battin while she is in Indiana. Previously the Hendricks had been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Coppock, in Gold Hill.

Mrs. Effie Birdseye and son, Glenn, visited at the Victor Birdseye home in Phoenix April 11. Teddy Birdseye returned home with them for a few days' visit.

Nick Struve of Medford was visiting friends here Sunday and displaying his new sedan.

Mrs. Walt Meissner and children, Beth and Ruel, of Glendale visited her brother, R. L. Miller, Sunday.

Friends of Nellie Jacobs will be sorry to learn that she is again confined to her bed.

Mrs. Jones, mother of Jesse Fitch, arrived the first of the week from California to visit her daughter.

Antelope

ANTELOPE, April 16.—(Spl)—Antelope Literary club met April 9. The program was as follows: music by Mrs. Roy Stanly and son Bertland; vocal duet by Hazel and Annabelle Riggs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. J. C. Greb; harmonica duet by the Walsh brothers, accompanied on the piano by their mother, Mrs. Myrtle Walsh; piano solo by Mrs. J. C. Greb. Songs were sung by the high school girls' glee club accompanied by Janet Hurd. Refreshments were served to a large crowd.

Those attending the Literary club from the various places were: Mr. and Mrs. Wright and daughter Linda, of Medford; Mrs. Roy Stanly and son Bertland, Ed and Edison Brandall of Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dutton and Mrs. Louisa Greb were shopping in Medford April 7. Mrs. Dutton also had some dental work done while in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Charley rushed their baby to the Community hospital April 4 when it became seriously ill. It is much improved at this writing.

Several ladies from Antelope visited Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McDowell of Sams Valley, April 8. Tea was served in the afternoon to the following ladies: Mesdames June Burton, Ruby Riggs, Myra Bigham, Helen Culbertson, Nell Von der Hellen and the hostesses, Mary and Mrs. Wallace McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baize visited Mrs. Ruby Riggs April 13.

Women of Antelope are busy making rock gardens and transplanting flowers and shrubs.

The ranch formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McDowell was sold this past week to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collins of Central Point.

Mrs. Harry Wright of Brownsboro visited Mrs. Helen Culbertson April 13.

The farmers of Antelope are in hopes the rain will let up soon, as they are so far behind with their crops, although the spring grain is doing fine.

Lake Creek

LAKE CREEK, April 16.—(Spl.)—George Lindley of Klamath Falls is spending this week with L. E. Bean.

The Argraves family of Klamath Falls were overnight guests of the William Hoefft family Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Short and son, Johnnie, are reported to be improving nicely but are still confined in Community hospital.

The rain Monday night and Tuesday faised the creek higher than it has been for several years.

A special meeting of the organizers and members of the Lake Creek Recreational club was held Monday. Matters of business were discussed. All present were agreed that the public is invited so long as they are in harmony with the principles of the organization. Next meeting will be held May 1 and a pie social will be part of the evening's entertainment. Each lady attending is asked to bring a pie. Part of the proceeds will go to the help of the Salvation Army, the balance to be used for necessary supplies for the club.

The Grange

Central Point Grange

Central Point Grange will meet tonight at the hall. Included on the program to be presented will be a repeat performance of the skit presented at the Upper Rogue Grange.

Birthdays of those born in January, February and March will also be observed.

INDIGESTION— GET QUICK RELIEF

Millions of men and women are suffering from disturbances of their digestive systems, due to acidity, and this is often the real cause of ill health, tired-out, run-down feeling, loss of "pep" and zest for living. If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (enteritis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. Take Gesa Tablets, the Doctor's Prescription, which are intended to soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach," and to help convert the starchy foods into dextrose, which is so essential to energy of the body, and preservation of life. For only a few cents a day you may now have the benefits of this Doctor's Prescription which so many sufferers say has been a blessing to them. Because of its remarkable success in many cases of acidity and digestive troubles resulting from acid conditions, Gesa Tablets are offered to sufferers under a guarantee that the first bottle must produce results or money back. Ask your druggist for that so many other sufferers say they have received from this quick-acting, soothing, antacid preparation. At Heath's Drug Store. —Adv.
