That five or more senators counted as against, or leaning against, will probably jump into the president's bag, if and when it becomes necessary. Several of these jumps will be surprising.

In other words, you cannot poll the present convictions of senators and reach any worthwhile conclusion. Too many senators will not vote their convictions this time. For one reason and another, they are being required to support the president against their own personal inclinations.

A poll based on the honest personal convictions of the legislators would show two-thirds of both houses of congress against the president's plan. There is no question about that.

On the basis, therefore, not of how they stand, but how they may be expected to vote, the following classification is authoritative:

In Mr. Roosevelt's bag—Ashurst, Barkley, Bilbo, Black, Bone, Bulkeley, Byrnes, Caraway, Dietrich, Ellender, Green, Guffey, Harrison, Hayden, Hitchcock, Hughes, LaFollette Lee, Logan, Lundeen, McAdoo, McGill, McKellar, Minton, Neely, Norris, Overton, Pepper, Pittman, Pope, Reynolds, Robinson, Schwartz, Schwelbensch, Sheppard, Smathers, Thomas (Elbert D.), Thomas (Elmer), Truman—39.

Likely to jump to Mr. Roosevelt—Bankhead, Brown (Fred H.), Brown (Frentiss M.), Chavez, Gillette, Hatch, Herring, Maloney, Murray, O'Mahoney, Radcliffe, Wagner—12.

Surely against—Adams, Austin, Bachman, Bailey, Borah, Bridges, Bulow, Burke, Byrd, Capper, Clark, Connally, Copeland, Davis, Donahy, Frasier, George, Gerry, Gibson, Glass, Hale, Holt, Johnson (Hiram), King, Lodge, Longeman, McNary, Moore, Nye, Shipstead, Smith, Steiwer, Townsend, Tydings, Vandenberg, Van Nuys, Walsh, Wheeler, White—30.

Likely to be against—Andrews, Duffy, Lewis, Russell—4.

Doubtful but probably against—Johnson (Edwin C.) and McCarran—2.

While all of these deductions naturally cannot be guaranteed, they are likely to prove no less than 96 percent correct. Reasonable doubts, in several instances, have been resolved in favor of Mr. Roosevelt, so the percentage of error will very likely fall against him, and make the result even closer than the figures indicate.

The word among the wise about Farley's predictions is that he has never mentioned how many votes he has, but has only said he has enough. Thus, it appears he is seeking to preserve his reputation as a prognosticator, while at the same time, trying to keep his eyelids majorities from defeatist dandruff.

Mr. Farley also knows what is not generally known, namely that the house judiciary committee, which is supposed to handle the legislation after the senate gets through with it, contains a majority against the president's program, and this majority probably cannot be broken down or lured away by any or all of the tactics used successfully on senators.

The house line-up is as yet uncertain, but the leaders have always been able to make the representatives jump through the hoops with more celerity than senators.

If you want the secret of how legislators sometimes alter their initial convictions, you may find part of the answer in the lists of relief allotments and patronage appointments to be made within the next ninety days. At any rate, these will be closely watched, not only while the light is going on, but immediately after it is over.

There is a rather general belief, for instance, that certain states will fare better than others, as will certain senators.

STATE BAR BOARD MEETS TOMORROW

The entire board of governors of the Oregon State Bar association is expected to attend the regular April meeting which will be held here tomorrow in the federal court room. Sessions will probably be held in both the morning and afternoon. A. A. Smith of Baker, board chairman, is to preside.

The Southern Oregon bar, together with guests from Roseburg and Klamath Falls, will meet with the board of governors at dinner in the Hotel Medford at 6:30. Between 40 and 50 attorneys will be present, said Frank P. Farrell, president of the local association.

WHEN WE STOP GREASY INDIGESTION WE FEEL JUST FINE

Our stomach can't digest grease. Neither can our bowels. Only our pancreatic juice, working with our bile juice, can digest grease.

When we get bad taste, headache and that nasty crummy feeling which comes from greasy indigestion, take 1 Carter's Little Liver Pill before each meal and 1 after.

Carter's Little Liver Pills bring a large flow of our pancreatic juice and bile juice into our bowels. The large flow of these juices digests the grease we have eaten. Then we burst into life and into our work like a joyous skyrocket.

But if you want this glorious relief from greasy indigestion, ask your druggist for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and stubbornly refuse to buy anything else. 25c.
