OLD KENTUCKY GARDEN PROVIDES SETTING FOR JUNIOR HIGH OPERETTA

By Mary Lee Strang.

The scene of "An Old Kentucky Garden," junior high operetta to be given Friday evening, opens in the garden of Colonel Staunton's home in Kentucky. Living at the plantation are his niece, Jeanie, and his nephew, Phillip. A surprise party is being given by Colonel Staunton in honor of Jeanie's birthday. Richard Morgan, Phillips' roommate, arrives from college in the north to spend a few days with his friend. He is introduced to the colonel, who discovers that Richard has been bewitched by the charms of Jeanie, who in turn is allured by his gallantry. The colonel is indignant, assuring Richard that his niece shall be courted by southerners only, and orders him to leave next morning.

Next evening a reception is to be given in honor of Stephen Collins Foster who is visiting in the neighborhood.

Hilarious comedy is provided by Henry Blow, a prospector of the '49 gold rush and Widow Hannah Larkin who has buried three husbands and is anxiously looking for another with the help of her new "beau-catchers."

An exciting climax is reached when a Hindu magician appears and steals Jeanie's priceless ruby, an heirloom given to her as a birthday gift by her uncle.

How Hannah gets her man and Richard rights himself with the colonel adds much to this clever and delightful operetta to be presented by the junior high school's combined glee clubs in the school auditorium.

MATTSON FAMILY RECEIVES THREATS

TACOMA, April 20.—(AP)—Dr. W. W. Mattson revealed today new threats have been made against members of his family, but he expressed confidence his son's kidnap-slayer soon would be captured.

The father of slain Charles Mattson, 10, said lives of Muriel, his 15-year-old daughter, and William, 16, his remaining son, have both been threatened. He expressed belief the threats were from "cranks."

In the first interview granted since Charles' body was found in an Everett, Wash., thicket Jan. 11, Dr. Mattson disclosed the threats came in the flood of letters delivered at his home every day since the kidnaping last Dec. 27. The last, it was learned, was made less than two weeks ago.

STUDENT REPORTERS

By Elizabeth Bare

A "barn dance" sponsored by the Associated Student Body was held April 16 in the boys' gym in an effort to raise funds for increased student body activities.

The gymnasium was attractively decorated and presented a familiar barnyard scene.

Approximately 200 students, alumni, and faculty members were present.

"The dance was a great success and everyone had a good time," stated Richard Thierolf, business manager.

TRUCK SANS EVERYTHING DRAWS POLICE CITATION

Floyd Reed, 22, of Eagle Point at least had a Ford truck.

State police, however, discovered that was about all he could point to as they cited him to appear in justice court here next Thursday.

The charge? No drivers license, no license plates, no windshield swipe, no rear-view mirror, and no registration slip.

Reed was given the citation on Brownsboro road yesterday.

ASTORIA, April 20. — (AP) — John Sjoli, 38, died of lockjaw as the result of an infection developing when he fell in his garden and the dry stalk of a chrysanthemum plant pierced his nostril.

SUPREME COURT PLAN OPPOSED BY NEWBURY IN KIWANIS ADDRESS

United States supreme court must be kept free and independent, Attorney Don Newbury told the Kiwanis club at its weekly luncheon-meeting in the Hotel Medford Monday afternoon.

Speaking in opposition to President Roosevelt's court program, Mr. Newbury said the executive and legislative branches of the government are linked by politics and declared the court should be kept independent of the two political divisions.

In commenting on the opposition to one-judge majorities, Mr. Newbury stated that out of 12 supreme court decisions against new deal legislation only two were 5 to 4 rulings.

The American Bar association opposes the president's program 6 to 1 and the Oregon State Bar association 4½ to 1, Mr. Newbury emphasized.

W. W. Walker became a member of the Kiwanis club at its Monday meeting. Guests were Vern Vawter of Santa Barbara, Cal., a former Medford Kiwanian, and A. W. Shepherd.

BALLOT TITLE ISSUED FOR TAX LIMIT PLAN

SALEM, April 20.—(AP)—Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle paved the way for active circulation of petitions for the initiative measure limiting taxes on real property and providing a limited exemption on personal property when he issued the ballot title for the constitutional amendment today.

The proposal would fix a flat rate of $10 on real property having an assessed valuation up to $2500 and would exempt payment of personal property tax up to a value of $1000.

The initiative proposal was filed by Charles B. Gibson and 19 other residents of Portland to be voted upon at the 1938 election.

OREGON REMOVES BAN ON TEXAS TOMATOES

SALEM, April 20.—(AP)—A proclamation lifting the tomato pin worm quarantine on shipments from Texas constituted the first act of Governor Frank M. Franciscovich, acting executive in the absence of Gov. Charles H. Martin.

Franciscovich signed the proclamation upon the recommendation of Solon T. White, who stated that since Texas was free of the pest the state should be removed from the list of infected states.

As president of the senate republican Franciscovich became governor when democrat Charles H. Martin left the state for Washington, D. C., to assist Senator Charles L. McNary in a fight for favorable Bonneville dam legislation.

Mandolin Player Is Quizzed In Slaying

NEW YORK, April 20.—(AP)—Police questioned Mischa Ross, 30, mandolin player and Broadway booking agent, today in an attempt to solve the hammer killing of Julia Nussenbaum, violinist and dancer who appeared in the theater under the name of Tania Lee Lova.

Miss Nussenbaum was found bludgeoned to death in a rehearsal hall yesterday. Ross was found at Mountaindale, N. Y., and was brought to the office of Inspector Michael F. McDermott.
