BOY WONDER OF CLEVELAND WILD IN FIRST START

Pirates And Giants Tied For Top—Cubs Down Cards—Yanks Finally Win.

NEW YORK, April 24.—(UP)—The New York Yankees won their first game of the season and the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates continued their dog fight for first place in the National League. But these events were secondary today, for young Bob Feller made his first start of the season—and lost.

Four walks and a pair of hits in the first inning sent the 18-year-old boy down to defeat as the Cleveland Indians bowed, 4-3, to the St. Louis Browns.

Young Bob strained a muscle in his right elbow during that disastrous first inning. But in the next five other innings the Iowa fireballer still fanned eleven Browns. In those innings, Bob yielded only two hits and a pair of walks as he showed the Browns the fire which has made him the greatest of all rookie pitchers. He was replaced in the seventh by Ivy Paul Andrews.

In their half of the second, the Indians scored three runs, aided by Frankie Pytlak's triple. But the tribe could not bunt any more of the eight hits they got off Jim Walkup and Feller lost the ball game.

The Yankees finally won a game—they had been rained out every day since their opener—when they pushed over two runs in the tenth to defeat Boston's Red Sox, 6-5. George Selkirk's triple with two men on told the story. The Philadelphia Athletics moved into second place by scoring three runs in the ninth that defeated Washington, 6-4. Detroit and Chicago were rained out.

In the National League, the Pittsburgh Pirates won their fourth straight—a 3-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds—while the champion Giants won their third straight by halting the Boston Bees, 7-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals suffered their first defeat of the year as they bowed, 13 to 12, to the Chicago Cubs.

The Pirates won with a spectacular ninth-inning rally that netted two runs. Handley's single that scored Dick Shot and Vaughan won the ball game.

The Giants whipped the Bees on three homers, scoring their second shutout in as many starts. Mel Ott hit two homers and Dick Bartell accounted for the other one. Clyde Castleman yielded only six hits, striking out the first three men who faced him in the opening frame.

Wayne La Master, young rookie, scored his second victory of the season when he sent the Dodgers down with eight hits. Van Mungo, who started for the Dodgers, was charged with his second loss of the season.

The Cards and Cus staged a slugfest with the Cubs winning out as they scored a run in their half of the ninth that offset four by the Cardinals. The Cubs got 15 hits off Harrell, Johnson, Paul Dean, Ryba and Winford, while the Cards nipped Parnelee and Bryant for 12.

ST. MARY'S WINS FROM JVILLE 15-14

Results Friday
 At Jacksonville 14, St. Mary's 15.
 At Phoenix 4, Eagle Point 29.
 At Gold Hill 4, Central Point 15.

St. Mary's high of Medford provided the big upset of county class B league baseball action Friday afternoon by knocking Jacksonville out of the pennant race, 15-14, in a hair-raising first win in five starts.

Mikische, St. Mary's hurler, was the hero of the slugfest when he retired two Jacksonville hitters in the last of the final frame with the tying and winning runs on base. St. Mary's used three pitchers, Mikische, Lemire and Reddy, while Johnson of Jacksonville stood the full brunt of the winners' attack.

DEAD HEAT RACE FEATURES TIGERS TRACK TEAM WIN

Angelley To Arrive Today For Annual Meet On Emigrant Lake—Other Entrants.

Featured by a sensational mile-run in which Chris Barker and Gordon McCollum ran a dead heat, Medford high school's track and field team won a triangular meet with Grants Pass and Kerby, Friday night, under arc lights at the Climate City. The scores were: Medford 69, Grants Pass 58, and Kerby 1.

Barker, Medford's ace miler, and McCollum, district champion, produced a great race, and finished so close that the judges were unable to determine a winner. Barker led until 150 yards from the tape when McCollum challenged, passed him, and stayed in front until five yards out with an amazing sprint, the Tiger flyer caught him at the tape.

The meet was the first ever held at night in southern Oregon, and was witnessed by a large crowd. Ashland was invited but failed to send a team.

MEDFORD NINE TO PLAY WEED TODAY

Medford's Southern Oregon League baseball entry will tangle with the Weed, Calif., Sons of Italy club at Weed today in the final and only exhibition game before the circuit opening next Sunday. Weed is a member of the Northern California league, and won the 1936 pennant.

Manager Mike Balkovick will take about 14 players to the California city today, leaving from the Medford service station at 9 a. m. sharp. Following are the players who will probably make the trip: Balkovick, catcher; Ray Erickson, Larry Pepper and Ray Tungate, pitchers; Hoffman and Sammy Van Dyke, first basemen; Wally Rickert and Howard, second basemen; Dick Lewis and Malcolm Stine, shortstops; Donovan, third base; and Ray Lewis, George Gitzen, Dick and Paul Sakralda, outfielders.

OUTBOARD CHAMP WILL RACE MAY 2 IN 20-30 REGATTA

Ward Angilley of Marysville, Calif., last year's national outboard motorboat champion and winner of the Colonel Green $5000 trophy, will enter the annual regatta at Emigrant Lake staged under the auspices of the Medford 20-30 club, according to word received yesterday by Heine Fluhrer, local enthusiast.

Angilley is one of the most famous outboard drivers in the country. In addition to boasting the national title, he cracked the world's record in his C-7 Lollypop racing runabout recently with a time of 48.275 miles per hour. In that boat he has won four out of five races so far this season and, with the exception of a new hydro, is the same boat he used in the 20-30 club regatta last year.

In his letter to Fluhrer, Angilley stated that he would arrive from Marysville today and try out the lake. He intends to bring the C-7 Lollypop and also the motor with which he scored enough points last year to win the national championship. Other boats he will enter in the race are: C-1 Sweetheart, the 8th in C hydro, and C-7 Lollypop in F racing runabout.

Angilley claims he is "bringing up my whole gang and all our outfits, so you can depend on Marysville doing the part toward making the regatta a success."

Another member of Angilley's staff, Harold Ashley, will drive his own outfit in a C service runabout, and then will drive Angilley's old boat and extra racing motor in C-5 Sweetheart, the 7th in F hydro, and C-188 Tag-A-Long in C racing runabout.

Another driver from Marysville will be Jack Dempsey, who was Angilley's mechanic for six years before turning driver. It will be his first race, and he will enter C-188 Helicat in F racing runabout.

Bill Lerchere of San Francisco will also probably enter his Pacific Coast championship class A outfit—C-271 Wild Bill in A hydro, Angilley reported.

The annual regatta this year will see $470 in cash prizes given to winners. At least 25 entries are expected, including the best drivers and boats on the Pacific coast. It is open to either amateurs or professionals.

Vinyl Swanson, first baseman and outfielder, suffered a split fingernail during practice Thursday, and it is not known whether he will be able to make the trip or not. Ray Tungate, member of last year's hurling staff, has not attended workouts yet, but is expected to make the trip.

Bob Morris, former Roseburg American League southpaw pitcher and present Medford high student, turned out Friday for practice, and may be taken to Weed.

The game is called for 2:30 p. m.

Utah Governor Visits SALT LAKE CITY, April 24.

Governor Henry H. Blood, taking his first vacation since assuming office in 1933, left today to visit his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David J. Ellison of Salem, Ore.

BELCASTRO BACK WILL FACE BRITT IN ARMORY BOUTS

Bill Morgan, All-American professional tackle in 1934 and 1935 with the New York Giants and a former Medford high star, may retire from active football service, he intimated yesterday. Morgan is at present employed by the United States Rubber company, with headquarters in Portland.

"I cannot say for certain whether I will be with the Giants again this year or not," the husky Morgan said. "There is a possibility I may retire from the game although I realize there are probably five or six good seasons remaining for me." Morgan is 23 years old, several years below the pro footballer's average age.

The 240-pound lineman who stepped directly from the campus of the University of Oregon into a pro football job with the Giants, and in his second year of play was called the "greatest tackle in the world" was in Medford yesterday in the interests of his company. He is a salesman in the mechanical rubber department, and has western and eastern Oregon as his territory. His swing around that area enables him to be in Medford, his home town, about once a month.

Counting his one year with Medford junior high, Bill has played 13 seasons of football. He was a mainstay at Medford high under Prink Callahan, and followed the present U. of O. mentor to Eugene when he was appointed freshman coach for the Webfoots. After one year on the freshman outfit, Morgan stepped into the varsity forward wall and battered opposing Pacific coast conference lines for three years. He captained the Oregon eleven in his last year, and twice was named All-Conference tackle.

Straight down the list, it will be bad boy versus good boy tomorrow night when southern Oregon's wrestling brethren move in upon the Medford Armory to perform before what is expected to be a large gathering of mat addicts.

Topping the triple-match program will be Pete Belcastro, long gone from these parts but still remembered with mixed feelings, and Alvin Britt, ex-junior heavyweight champ of the world and well-liked because of his orthodox methods of labor.

Belcastro is something of a human chameleon, suiting his wrestling moods with apparent tranquility to the type of opponent he is at present doing business with. It is usually the case that when Pete is faced by a hardy, rough and ready valiant of the first water, he becomes endowed with a bright light of purity that will let him do no wrong. The change of character is rapid, however, when Pete's opponent is, himself, one of the clean members of the game. Then, there is apparently no limit to what Belcastro will pull off in order to gain a verdict. However, the rule is not ironclad, and although Pete can be practically figured to hold down the dirty end of tomorrow's match, he may surprise and attempt to lick Alvin with legitimate tactics.

In the middle event, Toots Estes will bring his sensational speed into play against Duke Pettigrove, the New Orleans brute. By his upset win over Danny Savich last week, Estes took his place close to the pinnacle of all grapplers now appearing in southern Oregon. Pettigrove, making his first start in the Medford ring last Monday, proved that he cared little for the clean angle of the game.

The cleanie versus meanie theme is further carried out in the opening affair when Cowboy Billy McEwen tangles with Pat "Poppey" O'Brien, the ancient Irishman. O'Brien, in his first appearance here for many months last week, displayed an off-color tendency only slightly, but reports from Klamath Falls are to the effect that, against a clean grappler like McEwen, he turns number one villain.
